THE CHEERFUL FACE.

Next to the sunlight of heaven is the cheerful face. One glance at this face lifts us out of the shadows into the beautiful, bright and warm within. A host of evil passions may lurk around the door, but they never enter and abide there. The cheerful face puts them to shame and flight.

Fitness In Gifts.

The ideal consideration in making a Christmas gift is fitness. What would be an ideal present for one person would be a mockery for another. It isn't the cost—it isn't even the beauty of a gift that must be first considered—it is the need and the tastes of the recipient.

Difficult to Identify.

"A man should be content to let well enough alone."

"Very true," replied Miss Cayenne. "But think how wonderfully wise a man must be to recognize well enough when he sees it."—Washington Star.

SAW WOOD

Twenty-three of the high school boys got out bright and early Saturday morning and with saws and axes hied to the Burson timber west of town where they put up over fourteen cords of wood.

If they work as well on other days it will take them about four days to cut enough wood to raise the $75.00 they promised for the gymnasium fund by the wood route. Stick to it boys, we are betting on you.

BUYS MILK ROUTE

A. T. Brewer has purchased the milk route of E. D. Crabtree, and hereafter there will be but one route. Mr. Brewer will take entire charge on January 1. Mr. Crabtree still has his cows but will separate the cream and sell to the creamery.

A nice line of books to choose from at Beauchamp's Quality Drug Store.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY.

It's All Real to Bobby Boy, Who'd Like to Ride With Santa Claus.

Bobby Boy was sitting in his wee brown chair so close to the great bunch of Christmas holly that he could stretch out his fingers and touch the shiny red berries whenever he wanted to make believe that he was far away in the great forest in Santa Claus land. He had only to close his eyes and "shiver his shoulders," as if he were cold, when the warm, quiet room would vanish and he would be walking with Merry Bell in the story.

"By and by," said the sweet voice of Sister Marjorie, who was reading from the book, so she couldn't shut her eyes and make believe she was in the forest too. Bobby boy remembered that he must tell Sister Marjorie just what it looked like when they reached home.

"By and by they came to a part of the forest where there were tall trees, green and fragrant, just like the trees one sees in the markets before Christmas.

"Merry Bell clapped her hands. "Hurray!" she cried. "We're almost there! See; here are the Christmas tree woods. Pretty soon we'll find the reindeer feeding on the evergreen vines."

"They walked softly through the snow paths.

"Sh!" said Merry Bell; "don't frighten them. When they see us the Christmas reindeer will know us and come running to us to let us kiss them. That's how we know which are the good reindeer that will carry dear old Santa safely over the world on Christmas eve. Just think—if a reindeer was bad and tipped poor Santa out!"

Bobby Boy opened his eyes wide.

"Ho! I wouldn't care if they did tip him out. I'd want right out in the snow an' help him put all the toys back, an' nen maybe he'd give me a ride."

Sister Marjorie laughed and went on with the story which dealt with the enchanted country behind the picture books.

Christmas Long Drawn Out.
It has become the custom to imagine that every ceremony connected with the Christmas holidays in old England was observed on the holiday itself. Nothing could be further from the real facts. It should be remembered that in England of old, and to some extent even in industrial England of today, Christmas does not refer only to the holiday itself, but to the twelve days and nights immediately following the feast of the Nativity. It would easily be discovered by anybody who took the trouble to give a few moments' thought to the subject that it would be nigh physically impossible to follow all the ceremonials and customs connected with the Christmas season on one day.

The Season of Joy.
The festival of Christmas is gratefully unique because of the predominant note it contains—the note of joy, of a rapture, an abandon of delight, which carries all before it—and, while it surcharges the hearts of those who are naturally gay, it also invades the gloomiest and the most sorrowful and creates for them a rift in the constant clouds of the heart. Rev. S. P. Cadman.

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Stayton Readers

For months Stayton citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, by residents of this locality.

Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable?

Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement.

The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Stayton reader.

Mrs. M. Custer, 615 E. Third St., Albany, Oregon, says: "I had an acute attack of kidney complaint, caused by a cold settling on my kidneys. It made me so weak and lame that I could scarcely move around the house. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me." (Statement given February 6, 1906). It is a later date, Mrs. Custer said: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me a world of good, and I will always recommend them."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Custer has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop'rs., Buffalo, N. Y.
