

Contry Correspondence From All Over The Valley

North Santiam

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gibbons and son Darwin who were called here from Portland due to Mr. Gibbons' fathers death, will remain at the home of Mrs. Gibbons parents Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, for a while.

Mrs. W. F. Harris made a trip to Salem this week to see a Dr. She has been in poor health for several weeks.

L. H. Davis made a business trip to the capital city one day this week.

The Waldo Fruit Co. purchased a car load of potatoes here and the car is on the switch to be loaded at once.

Don't forget the Parent-Teachers meeting tonight, Jan. 19, everybody welcome. A program is arranged.

S. E. Kuenzli was bedfast for several days.

I. R. Hammer did some work on the school house this week.

H. A. Chance is having more ground cleaned up, which is a marked improvement.

Chas. Oglesbee made a business trip to Salem a few days ago.

Jordan Jingles

There are several cases of pneumonia around Jordan. Frank Linderman has been quite bad, but is some better. Mrs. Leo Rundt was taken sick Wednesday of last week, and Miss Frichtel was quite bad with the same disease.

John Bender was caught in his gasoline engine by his coat sleeve last week and dislocated his left arm at the shoulder. Dr. Prill of Seio set the injury.

John Foltz, E. C. Pepperling, J. A. Silbernagel, Jacob Silbernagel and Alois Bender took in a four-horse load and three other loads of dried apples and prunes to W. F. Klecker at Stayton last Friday.

August Bender returned from Anaheim, Cal. on Friday of last week. He had a fine two month's trip, and John Silbernagel, who went with him is still here at work.

Union Hill

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heater were Stayton visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Carter visited at the W. H. Carter home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Scott and family were Sunday visitors at the J. King home.

Mrs. Jessie Carter called on Mrs. W. R. Heater Friday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Oliver spent the week-end with Miss Rand of Rock Point.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thomas and family visited at the C. C. Carter home Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Darnell left Tuesday to make a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Tate.

E. C. Carter, wife and baby, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Burnett Sunday.

Mrs. Pottorff and daughter, Lorence, visited with Mrs. Chas. Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, who has been visiting home folks, left for her home in Eugene Monday.

Mrs. Sam Matheny returned from Silverton Friday.

Wayne Ashby made a business trip to Sublimity Tuesday.

Rock Point

Henry Frank and wife were Stayton callers Tuesday.

Cecelia Bell is staying at J. T. Hunt's this week.

Vester Bones visited at the F. M. Fresh home this week.

E. C. Downing and family spent Sunday at the Roy Porter home near Aumsville.

Fred Henkel is working for Albert Frank.

W. H. Downing motored to Salem Tuesday.

J. T. Hunt and wife are staying in Salem this week.

Mrs. J. J. Staiger has a sister from Canada visiting her.

Miss Bertha Oliver of Union Hill spent the week-end with Miss Laura Rand.

Rock Point School Notes

The Parent-Teachers' meeting held last Friday night was well attended.

Mr. John Smith, County Supervisor, gave a most interesting talk on the "Rural High School" explaining the help which the agricultural department brings to the country.

Mrs. Perry Darby gave a reading and the primary grades dramatized a fairy tale.

The rest of the evening was given over to a community sing, and many of the standard songs were sung. The introduction of the old-time rounds caused much merriment.

We have some specimens of pepper from California and this has been an incentive for language compositions.

Our model dairy farm on our sand table was constructed by the boys of the school. In this way they brought out some of the newer methods of planning the buildings on a farm.

The upper grades have been most interested studying the life of "Joan of Arc." A picture study of the same has awakened much interest in this heroine.

West Stayton

Mrs. R. W. Van Nuys visited with Mrs. Dively Sunday afternoon.

T. Y. McClellan made a business trip to Portland Saturday, returning Monday.

Ross Condit and family were visiting with relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Ternan was a week-end visitor in Salem.

Mrs. Howard visited with her mother Mrs. Van Nuys, Monday afternoon.

A large crowd attended the dance given at the hall Friday evening, and all had a pleasant time.

John Green of Turner, visited at the James Walker home Sunday.

Ellen Condit who has been ill with la grippe, is somewhat improved at this writing.

Earl Brown is employed at the Gentry ranch.

Glen Porter was a Capitol City visitor the week end.

Mrs. Coness called at the Butler home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. VanEykeren returned from Salem Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Dively entertained the members of the Crochet Circle at her home last Thursday.

We give Free Coupons for Rogers Best Guaranteed Silverware with Cash Purchases

"The Farmer's Store Of Quality"

Every Day is Bargain Day at Our Big Store, where you can find Everything to Eat and Wear at Most Popular Prices

Our Prices For This Week On Groceries Are

10 Bars Laundry Soap for	25 cents
7 Bars White Wonder Soap for	25 cents
5 lbs. Best Head Rice for	25 cents
5 lbs. Golden Rod Oats for	25 cents
5 lbs. Macaroni for	25 cents

Men's Overalls Bib or Band in Blue only, while they last at only $1.00 Pair

We buy your Produce at best Prices

Good
Goods

A. W. SCHRUNK,
Aumsville, - - Oregon

Good
Goods

Lyons and Fox Valley

Mrs. Albert Ring is home from California where she has been making an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Trask.

Mrs. David Monroe has been quite ill with the grip, but is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson made a short visit among friends in Lyons last week. Mrs. Peterson was formerly Miss Ella Phillips.

Mrs. Morris is home again from Oregon City where she spent the holidays.

The dance at the Lyons hall Saturday night, was well attended. Some of the Mill City folks were down.

Preaching by the Rev. Van Winkle, at the M. E. Church next Sunday. Epworth League in the evening. Everybody invited.

We understand that Mrs. Snackenburg is going to move down near Portland so she can be with her father and mother who are old and infirm. Frank Berry will work her farm this year.

Mrs. Joe. Whiteman is visiting home folks this week.

Kingston Kinks

Mr. and Mrs. James Leffler were in Stayton Tuesday.

Miss Marie Henkel and Mrs. Liston Darby called at the Curtis Cole home Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schaefer were Stayton visitors Monday evening.

There will be preaching services at Kingston Sunday, both morning and evening, by Rev. Lindon Levitt. Come out and hear him.

P. P. Crabtree and wife were shopping in Stayton Tuesday.

Mrs. G. F. Harold and Miss Emma Peters called at the T. O. Archer home last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyde Chrisman and Mrs. E. C. Chrisman ate a birthday dinner at the Harry Chrisman home Sunday.

Miss Lena Basl of Coon Hollow, who has been working at the T. O. Archer home for a short time, returned to her home Monday.

Liston Darby is working for N. Geymer this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sandner and little daughter called at the Raleigh Harold home Sunday.

Mrs. M. S. Titus and daughter Mrs. V. Philippi, spent the week end in Silverton visiting Mrs. Titus's brother, S. Williams and family.

We are glad to note that some of the progressive young gentlemen of our community are devoting a few of their leisure moments in the diligent study of law. Anyone thus showing their willingness to increase their intellectual activity along any of these lines has our strongest approval and best wishes. We hope that much pleasure and good may be derived from their efforts.

Geo. A. Smith, the real estate man of Stayton is actively engaged in the real estate business in this section.

Mrs. P. P. Crabtree and daughter Edha called at the Mate Titus home Sunday.

E. Shepherd and wife of Stayton spent Sunday at the home of their son Adam Shepherd.

Willie Ruettgers spent Sunday afternoon with L. T. Titus.

The Misses Mary, Mame and Elsie Peters and Bertha McKenzie spent Sunday afternoon at the P. P. Crabtree home.

Philip and Laurence Peitrok were Sunday visitors at the Joe Brand home.

Mildred Clayton and Elsie Peters were absent from school Monday owing to illness.

Joe Gassner was a business caller in Stayton Saturday.

Andrew Rauscher of Golden-dale, Wash. called at the C. J. Ruettgers home Monday.

Miss Bertha McKenzie called at the Chas. Peters home Sunday.

Mrs. P. P. Crabtree called on Mrs. Jos. Gassner Monday afternoon.

Victor Point

The young folk of Victor Point are talking of organizing a basketball team for this season.

"It is said that Ingersaul Loske has decided to rent part of the Jacob Amstaty farm."

Among those who attended Farmers and Home makers week at Corvallis were: H. Jaquet, J. Krenz, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Doerfler and the Misses Anna and Mary Doerfler.

The next meeting of the five hundred club will be held at the home of Glen McClellan, our local merchant.

Ed Krenz is planing on taking a trip in his car to Southern Oregon as soon as the nice weather comes.

The leap year dance given by the young ladies was reported a success.

John Hunt and daughter Matilda are on the sick list.

Doerfler Bros. have recently shipped two fine hogs for $100, one to Estacada, Ore. and one to Mt. Angel College.

Among those who were home to spend their holiday vacation were: Misses Inez Fisher, Zelma and Jasper King, Lolo Jones, Wilhelmina and Frances Doerfler and Una Darby.

Karl Hanneman, who has again taken his work of official tester for the Marion County Association, is now testing for Jacob Fox and Frank Doerfler.

Alexander Doerfler had a close call this week when one of his large hogs overtook him and cut a gash in his body about eight inches long.

Jacob Fox has made a fine improvement by putting up a farm sign "Capitol View Farm".

Mt. Pleasant

Mrs. G. H. Ray made a business trip to Albany Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Habberman visited at Munkers Wednesday.

Ed Smith was an Albany visitor Saturday.

Frank Senz was a week-end visitor in Albany.

Mrs. John Huber called on Mrs. H. R. Shank Tuesday.

Mrs. D. Townes and daughter and Mrs. Leslie Townes visited at the P. H. Lambert home one day last week.

Mrs. G. H. Ray and daughter Miss Elda spent Wednesday eve at the Mrs. Roxie Shank home.

Miss Zona Ray returned to Seio Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Kloor and Tony, August and Mattie Kloor and Miss Francis Kloor, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Townes, Mr. and Mrs. D. Townes, Miss Anna Miles and Lam Kates spent Sunday at Lee Downing's.

Jungwirth Bros. attended the dance at Schleis Hall Saturday eve.

Lewis Ray called on David Aegerter Jr. Sunday.

Miss Maggie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, and Charles D. Alexander, a prominent young business man of Albany, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Sunday by Rev. McGee. Those present besides the family were: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shank and son, Earnest Knapp, Joe Pietrok and Mrs. Roxie Shank and family.

A singing was given at the Mrs. Roxie Shank home Sunday eve. A large crowd attended and a good time was reported by all.

BE PREPARED

READ

POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE

300 ARTICLES - 300 ILLUSTRATIONS

KEEP informed of the latest progress in Engineering, Mechanics and Invention. For Father and Son and All the Family. It appeals to all classes - Old and Young - Men and Women. It is the Favorite Magazine in thousands of homes throughout the world. Our Foreign Correspondents are constantly on the watch for things new and interesting and it is

Written So You Can Understand It

The Shop Notes Department (20 Pages) contains Practical Hints for Shop Work and easy ways for the home to do things around the house.

Amateur Mechanic (17 Pages) for the Boys and Girls who like to make things, tells how to make Wire, Iron and Telegraph Outlets, Engines, Boats, Sewing Machines, Jewelry, Road Furniture, etc. Contains instructions for the Mechanic, Carpenter and Sportsman.

$1.50 PER YEAR SINGLE COPIES, 15c

Order from your newsdealer or direct from the publisher. Sample copy will be sent on request.

POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE
6 No. Michigan Avenue, CHICAGO