

Contry Correspondence From All Over The Valley

Victor Point

Farmers of this vicinity are much pleased with the change in the weather.

A. R. King spent Saturday at P. Fischer's.

Mrs. W. H. Humphrey's was a business visitor in Salem Friday.

Roy Jones motored to Silverton Friday.

H. E. King and family were entertained at the Gibson home Sunday.

Mrs. J. King and son Arnot, visited relatives at Union Hill Sunday.

Miss Ida Doerfler was in Silverton Friday.

A. F. Welter of Oak Grove, visited Victor Point Saturday.

Miss Ava Darby was a Sunday guest at the W. H. Humphrey home.

Frank Cheney made a business trip to Silverton Saturday.

Mrs. F. Yost and son Frank, were Friday evening callers at the Robl home.

Mrs. J. King and son Arnot, visited at the Humphrey home Friday.

Mrs. Caspell is spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. Phillip Fischer and family spent Sunday at the Clarence Jones home.

Miss Leona King has returned home from a visit with friends at Union Hill.

Mr. Ellis Whitney of Woodburn, a former resident of Victor Point, spent a few days last week with relatives here.

Gregory Robl and George Doerfler went to Stayton Tuesday.

The Fisher Lumber Co. has purchased a large amount of cable to extend their line further back in the timber. The timber is now getting so far back, that they will probably close the mill in another year or so.

The next meeting of the five hundred card club will be at Hans Olson's home.

Jos. Doerfler is studying to be a stenographer.

The dance given last week at the W. O. W. hall, was well attended and probably the best given this winter.

Doerfler Bros. have sold a fine pig to Mr. Brown of Junction City, Ore.

Kingston Kinks

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chrisman and little daughter, Mrs. Jess Chastine and little son ate Sunday dinner at the Loyde Chrisman home.

Miss Esther Willing of Stayton visited over Sunday with Miss Ina Harold at the G. F. Harold home.

Mrs. D. I. Caldwell called at the Raleigh Harold home Thursday afternoon.

Ben Darby and family spent Sunday at the Geo. Chrisman home.

Miss Emma Peters, who has been working at the Curtis Cole home the past two months, returned to her home at Union Hill Monday.

Mrs. Loyde Chrisman visited with home folks a few days last week.

Curtis Cole was a Stayton visitor Monday.

The largest crowd of the season attended church services on Sunday morning at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Creech and children and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brand and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Philippi.

Mrs. M. S. Titus called on Mrs. Carl Titus Saturday.

Willie Shepherd spent Saturday and Sunday in Stayton.

Rev. Levitt, who held services here Sunday, was entertained at the P. P. Crabtree home.

C. J. Ruettgers and family visited with Mrs. Mary Boedigheimer of near Sublimity Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mertz of Cole were Sunday callers at V. Pietrok's.

Nick Geymer spent Sunday at Karl Peters'.

Maud and Fred Smith were Sunday guests of Elsie and Frank Peters.

Mrs. P. P. Crabtree was a Stayton visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Baker entertained Mrs. Clayton and children at a dinner Sunday.

Much interest is being shown by the school children in the organization of an Audubon Bird Club of the National Association.

Jordan Jingles

T. H. Thomas and wife spent the first of the week with Mrs. Thomas' mother at Stayton, Mrs. Sarah Cox.

Nick Oppe was a Stayton visitor Tuesday.

Percy Thomas of Mont., who had visited friends here a month, left for his home last week.

Mrs. Bessie Blyeu is here from Keavin, Mont. for a visit until spring.

The gravel roads are all right, but where no gravel is used it is frightful.

John Bender has again been appointed supervisor of Road Dist. 25.

There is some talk of a cheese factory being located at Jordan. We hope this is true, as this will give a ready sale for the large amount of milk produced in this locality.

H. C. Downing is visiting with Geo. Queener this week.

Mrs. Bessie Blyeu and Mrs. Nellie Thomas visited at the T. H. Thomas home Thursday and Friday.

Eldon Turnidge of Mill City visited at the Eureka ranch Wednesday.

Frank Rohwein is laying a lot of tile this winter.

Silver Creek Falls

Frances Coberley, who has been ill for some time is able to attend school again.

Quite a number of people attended the program given at the Hult school Saturday evening.

Alfred Hult and Jim Vangorder have left for Mill City where they expect to work.

A party given by Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Freeman Monday evening, Jan. 15, 1917, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens who were married Jan. 5. A large crowd attended and many beautiful presents were received by the bride and groom. Those present were: Joseph Winter and wife, Ben Peterson, wife and children, W. W. Neal, wife and children, Bert Neal and wife, Mrs. A. E. Coberly, Mrs. H. Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens, Misses Mary Hostetler, Maud Largent, Gertrude Mais, Shella Neal, Messrs

Silverware. See It

We Give Free With

Our January Clean Up Sale

Of all Broken Lots So-Called Odds and Ends will soon be over and we advise all Economical Housewives to come and get their share, besides our regular

Dry Goods and Shoe Sale

We give you a few Grocery Specials For This Week

COMMENCING SATURDAY, JANUARY 27, 1917

A Lemon Special
15c per Dozen

New, this Seasons Crop Black Figs
2 lbs. for 25c

Peaches, Best Kind
3 lbs. for 25c

Schrunk's Special, U-Needa Coffee
40c Grade 2 lbs. for 55c

Choice Dry Pears of Season
2 lbs. for 25c

3 Cans Tomatoes 25c

Best Jap. Rice 5 lbs. for 25c

New Stock of Henderson Corsets are here Come and see them

WE PAY BEST PRICES FOR PRODUCE

THE FARMERS STORE OF QUALITY

GOOD GOODS

A. W. SCHRUNK, Prop.
AUMSVILLE, OREGON

GOOD GOODS

Coupons For Rogers Guaranteed

A Cash Purchase

George Mais, Harris Letz, John Reinhart, Tom Patterson, Jim Patterson, Antone Sasher, Sidney Heneau, Jay Bleakney. The evening was spent in playing games and at 12 a lunch was served. All departed at 3 a. m. wishing the couple a long and happy married life.

D. O. Freeman returned home Friday after a flying trip to Bend Ore.

Mrs. A. E. Coberly visited her sister, Mrs. A. J. Hult, Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Geary Neal has his new house nearly completed and expects to move in soon.

A bunch of boys of Silver Creek Falls undertook the charivarie Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens Tuesday evening. A terrible noise was made, but the poor boys departed without any treats.

Miss Edna Largent of Silverton, visited her sister Maud of Hult, Saturday and Sunday.

Joe Lang gave a dance at the Herbert Brown home Saturday night. Unfortunate for Joe his dances are not well attended.

D. O. Freeman made a business call at A. Frazer's Monday.

J. E. Kimsey and wife are expected home from Portland in a few days.

Mrs. John Vangorder is at Silverton under a doctor's care.

Albert Rabens and wife are visiting at the Wm. Rabens home at Union Hill.

Union Hill

Elis Whitney of Woodburn, visited with his cousin Mrs. W. A. Heater, a few days last week.

Mrs. Lulay of Sublimity visited with her daughter, Mrs. J. Frank a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Carter returned home from Ashland, Ore. Sunday. Mrs. Carter's health is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lincoln called at the W. H. Carter, home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Oliver spent Saturday at the J. J. Staiger home at Rocky Point.

The Walluga Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Chas. Peters. There were nine members and two visitors present. The afternoon was pleasantly spent visiting and sewing for the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Carter were visiting at the C. C. Carter home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens is spending a few days at the Wm. Rabens home.

Mrs. J. King and son Arnot and the Misses Ethel and Leona King, spent Sunday at the M. M. Gilmour home.

Mrs. Dorothy Carter and children visited Mrs. W. R. Heater Friday afternoon.

Miss Emma Peters who has been working at C. Cole's near Kingston, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Mollet and son Ralph and daughter Bertha, motored to Salem Saturday.

The Parent Teachers meeting held at the school house Friday evening, was well attended. A short program prepared by the 4th grade, was rendered in a very pleasing manner, also a reading by Mrs. Belle Heater, a recitation by Leona King, a couple of songs by the young people and Miss Rand of Rocky Point and Miss Ethel King of Triumph, favored us with very interesting talks on "How to Keep Order in the School Room"

Mr. and Mrs. A. Branch and family of West Stayton, spent the week end at the Chas. Peters home.

Mt. Pleasant

Chester Boyes of Albany is visiting at G. H. Rays.

Henry Laux of Montana, spent the week end at the H. Senz home.

Mrs. Ed Smith is visiting her daughter at Portland this week.

Frank Habberman and wife were Salem visitors Saturday. Mrs. Habberman returned Monday.

Miss Mamie Laux and Thos. Henry, Frank, Tony and Pete Laux of Albany, and Miss Mamie Zimmerman spent the past week at the Senz home.

Miss Gladys Downing spent the week end with the Misses Shanks.

Arthur McKenzie and Tony Minten called at F. X. Hottinger's Sunday.

Mrs. D. Townes and daughters Miss Mabel and Mrs. Leslie Towns called at G. H. Rays Tuesday.

Miss Francis Kloer called at M. F. Ryans Tuesday.

Mrs. Ed Smith and Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Roxie Shank and daughter, Roxana, Melvin Shank Wayne and Willis Huber were Sunday visitors at H. R. Shanks.

Fred and Maud Smith visited at the Chas. Peters home Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Shelton and children, Mrs. Leslie Townes and Mrs. D. Townes were entertained at the W. R. Ray home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Senz and daughter Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zimmerman and family, Pete Fiedler and wife and Mrs. Fuchs of Stayton, Miss Mamie Laux and brothers were entertained at the H. Senz home Sunday.

Frank Habberman and wife, Miss Mabel Townes, Charles Lambert, Mrs. Roxie Shank and son Melvin, Misses Gladys Downing, Roxana, Crystal and Grace Shank, Frank Lambert and D. Aegerter Jr., attended the operetta at the Stayton High school Friday night.

Mrs. P. H. Lambert called at the D. Townes home Friday.

Phillip Pietrok is employed at the Jungwirth Bros. Saw mill.

Ona Shelton visited at the W. R. Ray home one day last week.

Miss Angeline Ryan is suffering with a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Senz entertained a number of young people with a dance Saturday eve. A large crowd attended and a good time is reported by everyone.

Lyons and Fox Valley

Miss Silva Gooch was in Lyons giving music lessons to her numerous pupils.

Rev. Van Winkle preached a fine sermon in the Lyons M. E. church Sunday, both morning and evening. He also preached in Mehama in the afternoon and will preach again in two weeks.

Mrs. Schnackenberg leaves for Hillsboro this week. Her many friends here wish her success in her new home, but like to see her leave.

(The report in the Lyons items of Jan. 4, that Arthur Vaughn and Miss Elsie Pruner were married, is a mistake, the correspondent being misinformed.)

NOTICE!

The Trover-Weigel Studio will open Saturday and Sunday Feb. 3rd, and 4th. They are now located in the Mathieu Bldg on Second Street.