DIED

Vincent Pietrok one of Linn county's most prosperous farmer's and a well respected citizen, died at his home east of Kingston, February 20. He is survived by his widow and a large family of children. The funeral services were held in the Catholic church at Sublimity Feb. 22, Rev. Father Lainck officiating. Interment was in the cemetery at the same place.

DIED

Mrs. J. M. Kimsey of Macleay died at her home Feb. 18, 1917. Mrs. Kimsey was born Feb. 25, 1835, in Platt Co., Mo., and came to Oregon with her parents, Gilham and Rodah Walker in 1851. She was married to Edson Kimsey May 26, 1852. He passed on before some ten years ago. She leaves 2 sons, James and J. E. Kimsey, and 2 daughters, Mrs. H. J. Lyman of Portland and Mrs. M. E. Tull of Barlow, also one sister, Mrs. S. F. Beauchamp of Hilgard, Ore., and many more relatives and friends to mourn her death.

ENTERTAINS MRS. THOMAS

Mrs. W. E. Thomas of Salem was visiting at the home of her son A. C. and at the Stayton Hotel for the past week was given a pleasant surprise Saturday evening by a 6 o'clock dinner given by Mrs. Lesley. Several old time friends, some she had known 40 years were invited. After dinner they were taken to the Star Theatre where they enjoyed the program very much. All said good night with many thanks to the hostess for a pleasant evening.

REMODELS GARAGE

Chas. Cladek has remodeled his garage to give more room for the auto side of his business. He is preparing for a big run of business this year.

INSTALLS NEW DYNAMO

The Stayton Electric Light Co. has installed their new dynamo, and already the lights look different. An entirely new current is also supplied the motors—a change from the old 133 cycle single phase to a 60 cycle three-phase current, which puts Stayton on the map with an up-to-date plant in every respect.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of Stayton and surrounding country for their kindness and courtesy to us during our stay in Stayton, and assure each and every one that we wish you all prosperity and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waltemeyer.

English Undefined.

We observe that in his Jutland battle story Rudyard Kipling uses the phrase "under the circumstances." It is no doubt supported by usage, but all the same we are rather surprised to see it employed by such a master of English style. The proper expression must surely be "in the circumstances," since it is difficult to see how you can be supposed to be "under" the things that stand around you. There is an old controversy on the subject, and we thought the matter had been settled long ago. However "in the circumstances," we venture on this gentle protest in the interest of English pure and undefiled.—London Globe.

School Notes

In the debate given by the members of the Sophomore English class, the affirmative side won the decision from judges Olmsted, Keech and Smith, by a very small margin. This debate proved very interesting and instructive to the students and it is hoped we may be able to have one of these debates at least every six weeks. This work will aid in developing material that will place Stayton High School in its proper place as a member of the State High School Debating League next year.

Miss Adelaide Steward has left school. We are sorry to lose her from our high school.

The Sophomore English Class will begin the study of selections from Abraham Lincoln's famous writings and addressees this week.

The H. S. is rejoicing over the gift of $20 from Mrs. Lee Tate, for their new gymnasium.

Miss Olive Bassett spent Saturday in Silvertown, visiting her grandmother.
