Oak Grove

A noted improvement in our classes in language has been made in the past few weeks, and the pupils are taking up this subject with a greater enthusiasm.

Our class in spelling made new resolutions last Thursday and we agreed that the "Gold Star" will be harder to win and will mean more to us in the future.

We are working hard to make our basket social a complete success. The program committee has done their work well and have obtained many good numbers.

We are looking for a large attendance Friday, Feb. 23.
