OUR INTRODUCTION

In consolidating the two papers of Stayton and assuming control of the Stayton Mail we feel that the readers are entitled to an introduction to us and to know something of the policies we will try to carry out.

E. D. Alexander, the senior member of the firm scarcely needs any introductory to the reading public of Stayton and vicinity as he has been a resident of Stayton for the past fifteen years and the greater part of the time has been engaged in the printing business and a number of those years published a newspaper so that practically everybody knows him.

C. E. Daugherty the junior member of the firm is a new man in in your midst, having taken the editorial and business management of the Standard last November, but suffice it to say that he has had 26 years experience in the newspaper and printing business, having worked on some of the largest papers in the country and for some of the best printing establishments in the west.

In politics we will be absolutely independent. We will endeavor to give our readers all the news all the time, thus giving them a paper that they will be glad to support and proud to call their own.

As the success of a country newspaper from a news-gathering standpoint depends largely on the country correspondence. We appeal to all the correspondents to both papers to send in your news items just the same as usual.

We also feel that we should say a word to our advertisers and other patrons. We have increased the circulation of our paper by consolidation even more than we had anticipated and in this manner have doubled the value of our paper as an advertising medium. We are better equipped than ever to do your commercial and job printing.

Brownsville, Cannery here has many more orders than it can fill for 1917.
Cottage Grove cannery will operate this season.

With war threatened, the country begins to realize the value of great industries and railroads. Legislation and regulation which injures and destroys them, injures the whole country. A crisis like the present shows that the safety of our country in time of trouble depends on perfect working industrial organizations.

Dr. Mervin, Washington Industrial Service Bureau:—"Eventually, however, this struggle between capital and labor must yield to an industrial co-operative group in which all interests will be represented fairly."

Politics is more powerful than business as is shown by the general failure to pass bills consolidating functions, boards and commissions that are duplicating each other at public expense.

Salem, Bill to spend $200,000 on home for delinquent children referred to the people.

Newberg Graphic. The Southern Pacific log train that is coming in daily now makes music that has a pleasing sound to many ears. It means work for a large number of hands and this means the payment of many grocery bills and other accounts.

Southern Pacific distributes first half of $110,000 labor bonus for 1917.

Interstate Commerce Commission has raised lumber rates from all Willamette valley mills fifty cents per ton, or ten to twenty-five dollars a car.

Burke Fish Co. to establish refrigeration plant on Coos Bay.

China gets 2400 miles railroad in 1917 built with American capital. It is to be hoped this year will see conditions that will invite capital to go into American railroads.

Crane has a $54,000 irrigation project.

Klamath Falls gets another box factory to employ 50 hands.

Marshfield, Options have been closed by an Eastern concern for more than 100,000 acres of spruce and fir timber land on lower Umpqua and Smith rivers, at a consideration of more than $3,000,000. A large pulp and paper mill will be established and cruisers are now ascertaining the amount of paper spruce available.

Congress for some time has been confronted with the question whether the great source of waterpower shall be used or be unproductive indefinitely. The Shields bill which is now in conference provides opportunity for the necessary compromise but little progress has been made. Certainly it should be possible to get some action in the month remaining to the present Congress for a deadlock in the matter cannot satisfy the desire of any of the parties to the controversy.

Abie, but Not Willing.
"Come, now," persisted the lawyer, "are you not able to say of your own knowledge that the defendant was in the room at the time and objected to the whole proceeding?"
"Yes, sir," savagely replied the witness, "I am able to say it, I reckon, but I'd be telling the biggest lie you ever heard of if I did."

Driven to It.
"You ask me for help, and I dare say you haven't done a lick of work since the day you were born," snarled old Mr. Codgers.
"Oh, sir," answered the mendicant, "you do me a great injustice. I had a cruel parent, sir, and many a time, after he had whopped me, I went forth and milked the cows."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Hunting on Treacherous Soil.
Solpe shooting on an Irish bog is an excellent test of a gunner's skill and enthusiasm. An experienced bog shooter if he finds himself going down throws himself flat on his side or back and at the same time throws his gun to his attendant, generally an unshod "gossoon," who rarely fails to catch it. The sensation of being bogged is very unpleasant, but if a man throws himself on his side or back there is strength enough in the peat to support his body.—"Forty-five Years of Sport."

Walking Signboards.
"Sandwich man," that expressive term applied to unfortunates who walk the streets bearing two advertising boards strapped over their shoulders, is said to have been originated by Dickens in one of his "Sketches by Boz."

THE GOOD JUDGE SEES A HOG ON TWO LEGS

JUDGE, THERE'S THE BIGGEST TOBACCO HOG ON EARTH, ALWAYS ASKING FOR A CHEW OF W-B CUT AND PUTS HALF A POUCH IN HIS FACE—THEN SAYS IT'S TOO STRONG.

WHY HANT THAT'S A WASTE OF GOOD TOBACCO. W-B IS RICH TOBACCO AND A SMALL CHEW IS ENOUGH FOR ANY MAN. DON'T HAVE PEOPLE CALLING YOU A HOG.

SOME call these face-stuffers hogs, some call them gophers. But they are getting scarcer and scarcer since gentlemen found out about W-B CUT Cheewing. There is no excuse for a man making a monkey of himself today. The fine rich tobacco flavor was put into W-B by nature, the touch of salt brings it out nice and tranquil like, without your worrying your jaw around continually. W-B is getting to be pretty nearly as popular as sunshine these happy days.
