

Country Correspondence From All Over The Valley

Mt. Pleasant

Miss Anna Miles spent the week end with home folks at Salem.

Mrs. P. H. Lambert is visiting at Lebanon with her daughter Miss Hazel.

Mrs. Frank Habberman returned to Salem Saturday, after a weeks visit with home folks.

Frank Senz made a business trip to Albany Sunday.

Ed Smith visited with his daughter Mrs. H. R. Shank one day this week.

Miss Gladys Downing called at J. H. Kloers Tuesday.

Arnold Senz and wife called at Joe Senz Monday.

The following Sunday School officers were elected for the coming year: Supt., Mrs. John Huber, Ass., Supt., Will Ryan, Librarian Miss Roxana Shank, Sec., and Treas., Miss Mable Townes, Organist Miss Dorothy Smith, Chorister Miss Marguerite Ryan, Mrs. Roxie Shank primary dept., Miss Anna Miles Junior Class, and Mrs. John Huber young Peoples Claas, with all these officers and teachers just mentioned, we think we will have a large and prosperous Sunday School for the coming year.

Irvine Ray was a Sunday called at the Mrs. Roxie Shank home.

Roy Brenner called at P. H. Lamberts Tuesday.

Tony Giesler, David Aegerter and Barney Topher were entertained at the J. H. Kloer home Sunday evening.

Clifford Downing and the Misses Gladys and Elsie Downing called at the Ed Smith home Sunday.

Don't forget the program and basket social Eriday evening at the school house.

Frank Lambert made a business trip to Jefferson Tuesday.

Bill Topher called at the Twin Walnut farm Friday.

"The Batchelors Club" met with Phillip Pietrok Monday evening. Music was furnished throughout the evening by Joe Pietrok, they had both instrumental and vocal selections on his famous mandolin. A two course dinner was served at midnight. Those present were: Pete Feiddler, David Aegerter, Frank and Charley Lambert and Joe and Phillip Pietrok.

Jordan Jingles

Mrs. Sarah Cox returned with T. H. Thomas Wednesday morning for a visit with her daughter Mrs. Thomas.

Wm. Brotherton and wife visited at the Shepherd home in Stayton Tuesday.

Varda Shelton was up on Thomas Creek Monday posting notices of the closing of the creek to fishing.

Mrs. Newton Thomas of Montana, who has been visiting with Clyde Thomas and wife, expects to return home soon.

A pleasant party of twenty or twenty-five persons gathered at the Wing home one day last week to do honor to Mrs. Wing's birthday. A pleasant time was reported by all present.

Jos. Schwindt will take his cattle to the old W. Richardson place where C. C. Wilson will furnish the feed for them.

Seeve Brossart was over to Stayton Tuesday for medical treatment.

T. H. Thomas and family ate Sunday dinner at the Brossart home.

Silver Creek Falls

J. E. Kemsey made a trip to A. J. Hullts Tuesday.

Geary Neal made a business trip to Stayton Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Coberley and daughter Frances spent the week end at the Bert Neal home.

D. O. Freeman and son Merrill took a sleigh ride to Silverton Wednesday.

Bert Peterson left Saturday for Portland where he expects to work.

The basket social that was to come off February 23rd, has been postponed until some time in the near future.

Fox Valley Gems

We still have some snow, but are very thankful it is slowly disappearing.

Mrs. Frank Vaughn visited Mr. and Mrs. Erank Johnston Sunday afternoon.

George Beers called at the Woodworth home Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Trask and son were Lyons visitors Saturday.

G. F. Johnston was in Albany on business Tuesday.

Ray J. Fox, purchased a fine Poland China hog which arrived in Lyons on Saturday, and motored to Fox Valley in Mr. Hardison's runabout. Mr. Hog seemed very thankful to set his feet on the ground once more after a weeks journey by train from the East.

J. H. Johnston was a Mill City caller Wednesday.

Lyons News

Paul Johnston has been quite sick with Grip but is better now.

Mrs. Frank Vaughn spent Sunday with G. F. Johnston and family.

A surprise party was given at Mrs. Kings last Wednesday evening on their daughter Mrs. Ruth Trask those present reported a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Ruth Trask left Saturday morning for her home in California.

The young people have enjoyed sleighing these frosty snowy nights but everybody will be glad when the snow is gone.

This snow has been hard on stock of all kinds. And hard on the farmer who thought he had his stock through the winter.

I wonder how the early gardeners are under the snow.

Mehama Mites

Gus Zoellner left for Salem Wednesday.

Mrs. Sam Burdick passed through town Tuesday.

Giles and Leo Wagner was in town Monday.

N. S. Wagner went to Stayton Thursday to have his face attended.

Valerine Zoellner will leave for Wardner Idaho where she has been working.

Oscar and Galdo Zimmerman attended lodge at Lyons Wednesday night.

The people in and around Mehama have more snow this year than they have had for a good many years.

If you want pure, sanitary milk or cream call
Brewer's Dairy.

Farmers' Store of Quality

WATCH THIS SPACE NEXT WEEK

A. W. SCHRUNK, Aumsville, Ore.

Kingston Kinks

School has been resumed with renewed energy after two weeks vacation owing to inclement weather.

The Dramatic Club held a business meeting at the T. W. Creech home Monday evening.

V. J. Philippi and O. Baker motored to Salem Tuesday in V. J.'s new car.

Mrs. V. Pietrok and son and daughter Lawrence and Lanna spent Sunday at the Joe Brand home.

Mrs. A. McKenzie called on Mrs. Ruettgers Tuesday morning.

Avalene and Mildred Clayton were trading in Stayton Saturday.

L. T. Titus called on Mr. Gassner Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Bodeigheimer and son of Sublimity, visited at the C. J. Ruettgers home Thursday.

Joe Gassner and son Herman were trading in Stayton Saturday.

Mate Titus called at the P. P. Crabtree home Monday.

Mrs. T. W. Creech was a Stayton caller Tuesday.

Katherine Brand and Julia Creech were School callers Tuesday.

Mate Titus was a business caller in town Tuesday.

Wm. Nendel delivered groceries for Gehlen in our community Monday.

Rock Point School Notes

After a weeks vacation work is again going on as usual.

The seventh grade is very interested in the study of the Republic of China and we expect the Boxer Rebellion to be a source of much information.

We are reading the book "Johnny Blossom" in the school and find it most amusing. It also gives us a glimpse of Sweden. We have about 30 new library books, which are to be circulated thru the community.

We expect to have Miss Cowgill from O. A. C. next week, to give a talk on "Canning." This will be open to the public and we are sure much good will be derived from it.

The Parent-Teacher's will hold their next meeting Saturday night and they want everyone to attend.

Union Hill

Crea Lincoln of Silverton is visiting his brother Joseph Lincoln the past week.

Mrs. C. L. Seibel received a telegram calling her to her mothers bedside in California as she is very ill.

The young people gathered Saturday evening and gave a suprise party to Miss Iza Geer an enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Titus Archer and family were visiting at the Wm. Stevely home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matherly went to Silverton Monday to visit relatives returning home Thursday.

Mr. Becker has bought the John King place.

Mrs. H. A. Thomas and sons Cearles and Elwin spent Thursday and Friday at the Floyd Crabtree home at Stayton.

The Walluga Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Stevely all the members were present but three there were two visitors Mrs. Arthur Mollet and Miss Mary Peters a pleasant afternoon was spent by all.

Triumph Notes

Miles Kintz and wife spent Sunday on Fern Ridge with relatives.

Ben Gescher was in the Capital City on business Thursday.

Wm. Mullet and wife spent Sunday with Theo. Highberger and family. They intend to branch out in the poultry business. They are running five incubators and intend to hatch 1500 or more chicks.

Albert Arthur was a business visitor at Aumsville Monday.

N. Gilmore and family visited at Orlo Humphreys' one day last week.

Arnold Ruef and sons were transacting business at Alfred Fox's Monday.

Eddie Highberger and wife spent Sunday with home folks in the Hills.

Chas. and Frank Staiger called on Miles Kintz Monday.

Leo Highberger visited in Stayton Tuesday, in the dentist chair.

Wes Riggs was in this neighborhood recently buying beef cattle.

Ethel King is teaching a successful term of school here.

West Stayton

T. Y. McClellan made a business trip to the Capital City Monday.

Joe Fery who had been visiting in Portland, returned home last Wednesday.

Mrs. Schmitz and Hilda Davis, were Sunday visitors at the Gunsaules home.

Oliver Forette was a passenger for Salem Tuesday morning.

Will Titus and wife were Stayton visitors Tuesday.

John Gunsaules has been laid up with rheumatism.

Mrs. Hally Doe returned to her home in Salem after an extended visit with her sister Mrs. Lottie Gentry.

Mrs. Fallrich and son are visiting in Salem this week.

Arthur Branch and family were

The Equi Light For Ford Cars

This Light Is Designed For Ford Cars

With the Equi the light is white at all speeds, and really brilliant at seven miles per hour, can be attached in a few minutes and is guaranteed. No Ford owner should be without one of these lights as it assures him of a good light at all times.

J. P. Wilbur

Distributor For State of Oregon

trading with Stayton merchants Tuesday.

Mr. Cobb made a business trip to Salem the first of the week.

MASONIC MEETING IN TURNER

Tuesday evening there was a crowd of 14 Stayton Masons journeyed to Turner to meet with that lodge. The occasion being the visit of Wm. Moore of Pendleton, the Grand Master of the State. There were some 80 Masons present from surrounding towns and a splendid meeting is reported. After the lodge meeting a splendid banquet was served by the Turner Masons and was much enjoyed by all. One of the pleasing features to those who knew him was that R. O. Thomas who has been ill for some time was found much improved in health.

Those attending from Stayton were: Messrs W. H. Hobson, J. P. Wilbur, W. W. Elder, J. T. Follis, Ward Holford, H. Humphrey, S. H. Heltzel, L. S. Lambert, G. F. Harold, C. C. Cole, Grant Murphy, Wm. Lovelace, J. W. Jackson, and W. F. Blakely.

ARCHIE BRADSHAW SELLS OUT

W. F. Klecker and Chas. Gehlen bought out the stock of Archie Bradshaw last Thursday and moved the goods to their respective places of business. Mr. Bradshaw expects to remain in Stayton for a few months at least.

School Notes

The students of the high school are already planning on the opening of a new gymnasium. Committees have been appointed to take charge of plans and every effort is going to be made to make this a successful occasion both socially and financially.

Upon Friday evening, March 9, the Parent Teacher Association meeting will be held in the auditorium of the H. S. A splendid program is planned and all are cordially invited to attend.

Wallace Smith had the misfortune of throwing his arm out of place when he tripped and fell in going down the incline.

The first six weeks examinations of the 2nd semester are to be given Thursday and Friday of this week. The teachers and students are all working very hard to raise the standard of the work this semester over that of last semester.

The Chante Club met Monday evening in the Music room, spending the evening singing, after which a sumptuous luncheon was served by the "Eats Committee." All report that they had a jolly good time.

In the near future the Chante Club are going to give a community sing to which the public is cordially invited. This entertainment is to be free for every one.

To any one interested we ask that you send in a list of familiar songs you wish to have sung in this part of the program. We wish to have every one take an active part, and we hope to have a goodly number of "Old Familiar" suggested so every one in the audience may sing with us. Please hand your list to Miss Ruth Roy by March 14.

Miss Maud Hollister spent the week end at her home in Salem.

It is important to have your eyes tested and your glasses adjusted properly.

Dr. A. C. Eaton, Optometrist
Phone 345.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their help and tokens of friendship during the recent illness of our son Ralph Tate.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Tate.

Mrs. Joe Peery gave a birthday dinner to her daughter Cleta Tuesday evening. A few friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp accompanied by Mr. Alva Thomas and daughter motored to Salem Tuesday.

Roy Crabtree, of Scio, was a business caller in Stayton Saturday.