

Country Correspondence

From All Over The Valley

Union Hill

Too late for last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heater and daughter Vivian, visited at the David Pottorff home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter and son Robert spent Tuesday night at the Chas. Peters home.

Bell Hurt, who has been in bed with pneumonia fever, is improving and it is hoped will be able to be about again in a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter and childreu visited at the E. C. Carter home Sunday.

W. A. Heater and son Douglas were trading with Sublimity and Stayton merchants Saturday.

Annie Peters is again attending school after a few days illness.

W. A. and C. E. Heater made business trip to Salem last Monday.

Elizabeth Frank, who has been attending school in Sublimity, returned home Tuesday for the summer.

Walt R. Heater and family and Mrs. I. B. Carter were in Stayton and Sublimity Saturday.

Albin Johnson spent Friday visiting with Guy and Hugh Hurt, returning to Silverton Saturday, where he will work in the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt R. Heater and son Ronald visited at Sam Matheny's Sunday.

Mr. Stevely has hired Billy Odenthal of Sublimity to do his spring plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Scott and children visited Sunday at the Orlo Humphrey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas traded in Sublimity and Stayton Wednesday.

Mrs. Ada Tate and son Clifford visited at the W. D. Hurt home Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heater and daughter Vivian visited at the Adolph Heater home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabens spent a few days at the Wm. Rabens home this week.

Mrs. C. J. Seibel returned home from California Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Scott and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matheny and son Robert visited at the W. R. Heater home Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Peters and daughter Mary visited with Mrs. Stevely Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Carter and son Lylal spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Carter spent Sunday at the C. C. Carter home.

Mrs. Mary Burnett who has been staying at the A. C. Barrows home the past month returned home Saturday evening.

Belle Hurt who has been quite sick with pneumonia the past two weeks is rapidly improving.

Elmer Rabens is the proud owner of a rat terrier puppy.

Fox Valley Gems

Mrs. Geo Wolf and children of Gooch were callers in the valley Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. D. C. Abels was on the sick list Monday effected with a severe cold.

Mrs. Claude Wilson and daughter Olga were business callers in Gooch on Saturday.

Several people from here expect to attend the public sale at the D. Townes place near Mt. Pleasant this week.

Elmer Bradley of Portland arrived here Saturday evening for a few days visit with friends he is stopping with the Abels.

Mrs. J. H. Johnston and daughter Hilda called at the Perry Bressler home Saturday afternoon.

E. E. Trask and wife were trading in Gooch the last of the week.

Frank Johnston was a business caller in Albany Tuesday.

Mrs. D. C. Abels and Miss White visited Mrs. Walterman Sunday.

Marshall Stone and family of Gooch were driving their new Ford on Sunday.

Albert Croisant of Me Cully Mt. visited Tuesday evening with Breutford Canyon.

Lyons News

The snow is nearly all gone here, but there is plenty in the mountains.

Father Henry held Mass last Sunday in the catholic church of this place.

Rev. Van Winkle conducted services both morning and evening in the M. E. church. There will be services two weeks from last Sunday and also Easter.

Elmer Bradley is in Lyons visiting friends and staying at the Hotel Able.

The school entertainment given by the Lyons school last Friday evening was well attended, and a splended program rendered.

The primary department, Miss White teacher, deserves special mention in rendering the play Hiawatha. The school song in which all joined, entitled "There is no land like Oregon," with Miss White at the piano Prof. Kane playing the coronet, and two of the high school pupils Branford Kenyon, and Albert Croisant with violins, met with hearty applause. The play by the high school, "Popping the question" was well rendered.

Elmer Histt and family have moved back on their farm north of Mehama.

Quite a number of the Lyons young people attended the dance at Gates Saturday night.

Wee blue flowers are blossoming all through the woods which show spring is coming if she is a little late.

Sublimity Shots

Mrs. Will Neal has deen under the weather for a few days but is feeling some better now.

Miss Waisle Miles made a visit to Miss Rena Lang Sunday at her home.

Mrs. E. Coberly, teacher of the Silver Creek Falls school had a basket social last Friday night.

There were about fifteen baskets sold. Mrs. Coderly collected $11.50 for which to obtain a few necessities for the school.

The evening was passed by recitations, songs, dialogues and drills by the pupils which was nicely learned, everyone seemed to enjoy the evening.

Mr. O. D. Miles made a business trip to Oregon City last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rabeuns have been visiting relatives at Union Hill during last week.

Mrs. Gary Neal called on her sister, Mrs. B. Neal Sunday afternoon.

Don't Forget

To put out your squirrel poison A stitch in time saves nine We carry Woodlark, Red Dragon and C. and W. Money back guarantee at Beauchamp's Drug Store.

Dr. G. F. Korinek gave the tubercular test to the cattle sold at the Townes sale to-day.

We give a coupon for Rogers Silverware with every Cash Purchase of $25 or more. Call and see our beautiful articles.

The Farmers Store of Quality

BUTTERICK PATTERNS and APRIL FASHIONS Are Here.

Having bought early enables us to sell at the old prices and we will continue to do so for the next 30 days. We have bought large orders and now we quit buying and are going to unload at prices that defy ALL COMPETITION. Here we list only a few items, as space and time would not permit to mention them all.

EXTRA SPECIALS--GROCERIES

10 bars of Elk Savon Soap for - 25c
6 bars White Wonder Soap - 25c
6 bars extra fine Toilet Soap - 25c

ORANGES FOR HEALTH
Sweet Sunkist
Special at 10c dozen

Lemons, large and fresh, at only 15c doz Golden Rod Rolled Oats, 5 lbs. for 25c

Best Parlor Matches
6 boxes for 25c

White House Paint
At gallon, $1.50

Wall Paper
Double Roll for 5c

Best Quality 1 1/2 inch Leather Halters, Reg. $1.50, Special for one week only, $1.25 each
Very Best Quality Web Halters at 25c each.

5 Gallon Never Fail Oil Cans Regular $2.50 Kind Special Priced at $1.50

Sweat Pads, Bridles, Harness and Supplies at best and Lowest Prices

We Buy Your Produce at Best Prices

GOOD GOODS

A. W. SCHRUNK
Aumsville - - Oregon

GOOD GOODS

Rock Point

(Too Late For Last Week)
R. E. Downing of Salem, spent Monday on his farm.

William Darby who has been quite sick, is much improved. Henry Frank was a Stayton caller Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fresh and daughters visited relatives in Stayton Sunday.

Marion Fresh spent Sunday with Earl Downing.

Ida Frank spent Sunday afternoon with Clarice and Alice Downing.

Leona Frank of Stayton, visited relatives here this week.

Jake and George Schmitt are grubbing for E. C. Downing this week.

J. T. Hunt and son, Marion, were Stayton callers Monday.

Mabel Frank is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Downing visited in Salem a few days this week.

Mrs. Henry Frank and daughter Myrtle were Stayton callers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Fresh and children spent Sunday at the E. C. Downing home.

Edith and Ethel Fresh visited Miss Rand Saturday.

Lillian and Floyd Staiger spent Saturday at the Downing home.

J. A. Burns and Mrs. Pearl Miller were Stayton callers Monday afternoon.

Mrs. F. F. Foster very pleasantly entertained a company of lady friends at her home Friday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served and the occasion was much enjoyed. The guests were Mesdames G. F. Korinek, Horace Lilly, E. D. Alexander and Jos. Peery.

Dr. G. F. Korinek gave the tubercular test to the cattle sold at the Townes sale to-day.

Victor Point

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys spent Sunday at the J. D. Darby home.

Miss Ida Doerfler visited a few days last week with relatives in Salem.

Miss Bernita Jones spent the week end with Leona King.

Ivan Darby of Silverton spent Sunday with his parents.

Harry Humphry was in Stayton Saturday.

Mrs. Bye and Mrs. Lilleind of McAlpin were in Victor Point Friday.

Ava Darby was entertained at the Phillip Fisher home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and family visited at the King home Sunday.

Harry Humphrey our local Life Insurance agent went to Portland Monday.

Thomas Gibson was a Sunday caller at the M. Gibson home.

Joseph Doerfler called at the Mellow Lawn farm Sunday evening.

Roy Jones made a business trip to Silverton Tuesday.

Kingston Kinks

Mrs. V. Philippi called on Mrs. Creech Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Gassner and children left Friday for a few days visit with friends at Thomas.

Mrs. Carl Titus and Mrs. Mose Titus were trading in Stayton Monday.

A. A. McKenzie was loading a car of cord wood two days last week.

Edna Crabtree was absent from school Monday.

Miss Ruth Fuson returned to her school Monday morning from Salem where she attended a party given in celebration of the birthday anniversary of herself, mother, two uncles, aunt, and a great grandmother who is 93 years old, all of whose birthdays are within 6 days time.

Joe Gassner motored to Thomas Sunday to get his family.

L. T. Titus sold a load of turkeys in town Monday.

H. S. Williams went to Silverton Thursday to visit his son who is ill at that place.

Marcile Baker enrolled in school Tuesday.

Mrs. T. W. Creech who has been ill for the past two weeks is reported no better.

A Surprise Party

A number of school friends of Miss Ethel Wirth assembled last Tuesday evening and marched to her home, giving her a surprise birthday party, and so quietly had they gone about their plans that she never suspected anything of the kind until they arrived at her home.

There were some twenty-two persons in the party and a general good time was had by all present. Parlor games and a guessing and selling contest was had, two prizes being offered in each contest. Miss Ethel Wirth won first prize in the guessing contest and Coral Smuck the consolation prize. In the selling contest the first prize was won by Gladys Hamman, consolation by Will Smith. After lunch was served they enjoyed a candy pull.

Wayne and Willis Hubel, Lyle Lutz and Earnest Knapp called on Melvin Shank Saturday.

Nick Senz was a Sunday visitor at the J. H. Kloer home.

A large crowd attended the surprise party given at the Ben Thayer home Saturday evening a very enjoyable time was reported by all.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Siegmund and baby, of Fern Ridge, were Stayton visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Siegmund and baby, of Fern Ridge, were Stayton visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Siegmund and baby, of Fern Ridge, were Stayton visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Siegmund and baby, of Fern Ridge, were Stayton visitors Sunday.

Mt. Pleasant

Pete Jungwirth made a business trip to Albany Wednesday.

D. Townes and wife were Albany visitors Saturday.

Miss Hazel Lambert of Lebanon spent the week end with home folks.

Mrs. Frank Habberman of Salem is visiting with home folks this week.

Leslie Townes and wife called at Floyd Sheltons Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shank and son visited with home folks Tuesday.

The Misses Effie and Zora Ray were Sunday visitors at F. Shelton.

The Misses Dora and Maud Smith and Crystal Shank visited with Gladys Downing Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siegmund P. H. Lambert and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Huber Marvin Long of Scio, Hazel and Charley Lambert were entertained at the D. Towes home Sunday.

Wayne and Willis Hubel, Lyle Lutz and Earnest Knapp called on Melvin Shank Saturday.

Nick Senz was a Sunday visitor at the J. H. Kloer home.

A large crowd attended the surprise party given at the Ben Thayer home Saturday evening a very enjoyable time was reported by all.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.

Next Saturday evening, March 24th, C. A. Harwood, Grand Guardian of the State of Oregon, and who has been designated special Deputy Grand Master, accompanied by T. W. Riches, P. G. R., and L. J. Adams, P. G., will be in attendance at the regular meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall. All members of the order are earnestly requested to be present.