 WHERE CASH IS KING

Insects Are Curious.
 In many ways the structure of insects is wonderful. They are gifted with muscles of extraordinary strength and are yet destitute of bones to which those muscles can be attached. They possess a circulatory system and are without a heart. They perform acts involving the exercise of certain mental qualities and are without a brain. But more remarkable still, they breathe atmospheric air without the aid of lungs. If we take any moderately large insect, say a wasp or a hornet, we can see even with the naked eye that a series of small spotlike marks run along either side of the body. These are apparent spots, which are generally eighteen or twenty in number, are in fact the apertures through which the air is admitted into the system and are usually formed in such a manner that no extraneous matter can by any possibility find entrance.

A Painter's Retort.
 Shortly after Franz Lenbach had painted the portrait of Emperor William I, a privy councillor called on him to express the emperor's satisfaction. There was only one criticism to make—would the professor be so kind as to paint more distinctly the buttons on the uniform, which were only indicated vaguely? Lenbach looked at him a moment over his glasses and said, "Look here, Mr. Councillor, I paint heads, not buttons (ich mal' nur koepfe, aber keine knoepfe!) Tell his majesty that!" The emperor when this answer was brought to him laughed heartily.

Brevity of a Dream.
 One evening Victor Hugo was dictating letters to his secretary. Overcome by fatigue, the great man dropped into a slumber. A few moments afterward he awoke, haunted by a dream which, as he thought, had extended over several hours, and he blamed his secretary for sitting there waiting for him instead of waking him or else going away. What was his surprise when the bewildered secretary told him that he had only just finished writing the last sentence dictated to him and that Hugo could have been dozing only for a few seconds.

Early Rising.
 John Wesley was a strong advocate of early rising, which he asserted was beneficial to weak eyes. "When I was young," he stated in a sermon on "The Duty and Advantage of Early Rising," "my sight was very weak, but it is stronger now than forty years ago. I impute this principally to the blessing of God, who fits us for whatever he calls us to do," but undoubtedly the outward means which he blessed with rising early every morning.—Exchange.

He Had the Real Kick.
 "Don't seem to be a very good day for fish," remarked the man on the bank to the angler who had sat for four hours without a nibble. "Oh, I don't know," replied the fisherman calmly. "I don't see why the fish should complain. I'm the one who ought to kick."

Corn of Guatemala.
 Guatemala's annual corn production amounts to about 6,000,000 quintals of 104.4 pounds each. This suffices for domestic consumption only, as corn is the most important food in that country. Beans rank next in importance as a national food.

THE GOOD JUDGE GETS HIS CLOTHES AT POWELL'S TAILOR SHOP

HE POWELL, WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A SUIT FOR ME AND A CHEW OF W-B CUT TOBACCO?
 THAT'S EASY! IT TAKES A BIG SUIT TO FIT AND SATISFY YOU, BUT A LITTLE CHEW OF W-B CUT WILL LAST AND SATISFY ANY MAN!
 THAT CERTAINLY IS THE TRUTH!

RUN your tape line along the sum of money you've been spending for chewing and then chop it in two in the middle. Now you get an idea of what W-B CUT is saving judges of good tobacco. The difference is in the tobacco itself, its the richness that makes tobacco lovers take to it—that's why a little goes such a long way. W-B CUT is just tobacco satisfaction through and through.

This is the time of year that cities and municipalities turn their attention to a clean up campaign and we should manifest some civic pride along the same line.

President Wilson's appeal to the American public, extracts of which will be found in another column of the Mail, is a masterful appeal from a masterful mind and heart and should find a ready response from the American public. All we need is to be shown what to do and it will be done with a will and completeness that will startle the world.
