Marion County Pioneer Dies

C. K. Read of near Aumsville died at his home last Saturday April 14th, aged 81 years.

Clifton Kittridge Read was born at Callusoid, Onedia county N. Y., on February 28, 1833. At the age of 5 years he moved with his parents to McHenry county Ill. In 1852 the family came to Oregon by ox team and took up a donation land claim about two miles south east of where the town of Turner now stands. On October 20, 1864 the subject of this sketch was married to Elizabeth N. Porter, daughter of William Porter a pioneer of 1848. To this union nine children were born all of whom were present at the funeral services. They are Virgil H., of Portland; Sarah I. Read, of Aumsville; Silas of Corvallis; John of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. J. A. Folland, of Salem; Mrs. J. T. McCulloch of Antelope Ore.; Mrs. Everett Downing, of Sublimity; George Read and Mrs. E. L. Porter of Aumsville. For many years Mr. Read had been an Odd Fellow and a member of the Christian church honoring both professions by an upright, honest and useful life.

Funeral services were held in the Christian church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. M. F. Horn of Stayton. Interment was in the Aumsville cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of W. A. Weddle of the Ringo Undertaking Co.

New Highway Possible

According to the Portland Journal there is a prospect, if the road bond issue carries, of a hard surface road through the foothills of the Cascade mountains in the section lying between the Molalla and McKenzie rivers.

A trunk road through this large and rich portion of the valley would not only serve local needs, but it would be an attractive route for tourists.

It would bring Portland within three to four hours of Stayton by motor truck, saving one to two dollars per ton on freight.

The central part of the valley and the western portion have been looked after in the state system as already planned by the legislature and highway commission but the claims of the eastern edge of the valley have not apparently been taken into consideration.

A road of this kind would logically pass through the lower Clackamas valley, to Molalla, Mt. Angel and Silverton. From Silverton through the Waldo hills, passing through Stayton, Scio, Lebanon, Brownsville, Springfield, to Eugene, where it would connect with the Pacific highway.

With this road assured, there would be a prospect for the road bond carrying.

Straits Tin.

More than two-thirds of the world's supply of tin is mined in the Malay peninsula. Straits tin, as it is known in the trade, is of exceptionally good quality. Much of the tin is taken to the smelters at Singapore and after refinement is shipped direct to the United Kingdom or to this country in slabs approximately 99.9 per cent pure.

Line He Most Needed.

"When I bought this car the salesman harped on its beautiful lines."

"Yes?"

"But he failed to mention that what I would need most would be a towing line."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Illahee Club Has Big Time

For some time the Illahee Club which is conducted by the men, said that they would give the ladies an opportunity to entertain, so at a recent club meeting a committee was appointed to make all arrangements for the following entertainment. So the committee issued invitations to club members and their friends for a dance at Beauchamp's hall on Thursday evening last. After some time spent in dancing the crowd was invited to the I. O. O. F. hall. Here each was handed a small card which secured for them a partner for supper. When all had found their partners they lined up and marched to the tune of the "Red White and Blue" into the dining room which had been tastily decorated with flags and bunting. Following a salute to the colors and a speech by Mayor Beauchamp, all partook of a delicious lunch. After the lunch was finished all stood and sang America and later marched back to the hall where the ladies took charge of the dance and where much merriment ensued.

It was in the "Wee small hours" that the party broke up, all having had a most enjoyable evening. The success of the affair is due to the efforts of the ladies who were on the committee and to several others who so ably assisted them. It is hoped that in the near future another committee of ladies will be appointed to make arrangements for just such another enjoyable evening.

Practical Health Hints.

Sore Throat.
The most frequent cause of distress or discomfort in the throat is exposure to cold and wet. Other conditions cause sore throat, such as exposure to infection. It may be of gouty or rheumatic origin. It may be excited by local irritants, such as hot drinks or the inhalation of noxious gases.
In mild cases of sore throat a gargle of a saturated solution of boric acid, used every four hours, will give relief. In severe cases the application to the neck of cloths wrung out of cold water proves grateful. Sucking small bits of ice affords much relief.
Internal treatment is needed.
For this a sedlitz powder is very useful or a dose of salts upon rising in the morning. If, however, there is any fever or the tonsils are red and swollen or show tiny yellow or white spots on their surface, send as soon as possible for a physician.

The Man Who Thinks.
A man with dirty face and hands, shirt soaked with perspiration, stopped, laid down his dinner bucket, rolled a broken knuckle out of the pathway between the trucks, put it close up against the ends of the ties, where no one could stumble over it, picked up his dinner bucket and plodded home.
More than fifty other employees had preceded this man, each one carefully picking his way around the obstruction.
I asked this man why he took the trouble to roll the knuckle out of the pathway. He seemed surprised at such a question and said, "Why, some of the boys might get a bad fall if that knuckle was there after dark." I said, "All the other men passed it by," and he replied: "Oh, they're all good boys. They'd have done the same thing if they'd thought about it."
He said something, didn't he?
"If they'd thought about it." Ah, yes, "if they'd thought about it."—Erie Railroad Magazine.

Golden Weddings.
"But, papa, things have changed since you were young."
"Yes, they have. Folks used to wait fifty years for a golden wedding, but now they demand it at the start."

Her Gain.
Mrs. Jones—Does your husband remember your wedding anniversary?
Mrs. Smith—No; so I remind him of it in January and June and get two presents.—Harper's Bazar.

Dangerous Moonlight.
Moonlight most intense sometimes causes sore eyes in Cuba, and the natives navigate and perambulate with umbrellas and parasols.
