

Country Correspondence From All Over The Valley

Mt. Pleasant

G. H. Ray was a week-end visitor at Lacomb.
Mrs. M. F. Ryan left Sunday for Aberdeen, Wash., to attend the funeral of her sister.
Tom Huffman went to Salem Friday.

Geo. Westenhouse called at the H. R. Shank home Tuesday.

W. R. Ray, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Zona, left for Portland Wednesday, where they will be for some time.

Mrs. Frank Habberman returned to her home in Salem Wednesday after several weeks visit with home folks.

The Jungwirth Bros. made a business trip to Lyons Friday.

Fred Henkel and H. R. Shank called at the H. Montgomery home Wednesday.

Joe Senz called at the H. Senz home one day last week.

Miss Anna Miles was a Sunday visitor at W. R. Ray's.

Miss Gladys Downing was a Sunday guest of Miss Mamie Peters.

John Lutz called at the Roy Brenner home Sunday.

Mr. Ralph Kelley, of Kingston, visited Miss Josie Kloer Sunday.

Earnest Knapp and Melvin Shank visited Fred Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Lenn Lambert called at the W. R. Ray home Monday.

Miss Frances Kloer and the Misses Eberhardt were visitors at Lee Downing's Sunday.

A large crowd of young people attended the singing at the F. Shelton home Sunday evening. A very enjoyable time is reported by all.

Mrs. G. H. Ray and daughter visited at J. Burton's Sunday.

Pearl Burton and Meryl Frost were Sunday visitors at the G. H. Ray home.

Kingston Kinks

The church services at Kingston were well attended both morning and evening. Several Stayton people were over.

Mrs. V. Pietrok and daughter Lanna called at the Karl Peters home Sunday.

Enil Henkel, who has been employed at the McKensie home, has quit work.

Miss Ruth Fuson spent Thursday night at the M. S. Titus home.

Mate Titus entertained Rev. Levitt, of Eugene, Saturday and Sunday night.

Adam Shepherd moved his family to Stayton Monday.

Leo Rock, mail carrier, found evidence of having made many friends along his route when he made his trip Monday, judging by the numerous packages which his buggy contained.

Elsie Downing of Mt. Pleasant spent Sunday with Elsie Peters.

Philip Pietrok is working at the J. A. Brand farm.

Several young people, including Elsie, Mamie and Charlie Peters, Lanna Pietrok and Elsie and Harry Downing, went boat riding on the Santiam Sunday afternoon.

The farmers have been at work on the roads, filling up all the holes, preparatory to next summer's motoring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gasner and family called on Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Creech Sunday afternoon.

J. A. Fiddle of Mehama was a business visitor in Stayton Wednesday.

Rock Point

(Too late for last week)
J. T. Hunt spent a few days at home last week.

Mrs. F. M. Fresh is on the sick list this week.

Georgia Hunt of Stayton is visiting here this week.

Max Hill was a Salem caller Saturday.

Mrs. Worthington spent the past week at Beaverton with her children.

R. E. Downing of Stayton visited his farm Wednesday.

Miss Laura Rand spent the week end at the P. Darby home.

Mrs. J. T. McCulloch of Antelope Ore. visited her sister Mrs. E. C. Downing Thursday.

Mrs. A. Frank and daughter Mable were trading in Aumville Saturday.

Ida Frank spent Saturday afternoon with Clarice and Alice Downing.

Chas Schmitt is working for Albert Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hunt spent Sunday with his brother Morris.

Lyons News

(Too late for last week)
Hugh Weitman and sister Miss Leah visited at the Woodworth home Sunday.

The ground was white with snow Sunday morning, April 15. No fruit trees in blossom and stock still having to be fed.

Three Lyons boys have enlisted: Ernest Laffoon, in the navy and Delmar Laffoon and William Woodworth in the marine corps.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Peterson and Miss Opal Phillips motored over to Lyons Saturday to visit friends. They live near Aumville.

Miss Holder spent the week end with G. F. Johnston family. Miss Holder is the primary teacher in the Fox Valley school.

Mrs. S. D. Brown received a message Saturday morning saying that her mother had fallen and fractured her hip and wished her to come at once. Willis and his mother left at once with the auto. Mrs. Brown's mother lives near Portland.

Mrs. W. R. Surry and Mrs. Siegmund of Fern Ridge went to Portland on the afternoon train to attend the D. of H. as delegates from the Lyons lodge.

This week Mrs. Smith and daughters of Oregon City have been visiting with Mrs. Smith's mother Mrs. Morris.

Jack and Frank Johnston made a trip to Jordan Tuesday of last week for oats. Now they are longing for good weather so they can get their seeding done.

Samuel Engle was buried here last Wednesday at eleven o'clock Rev. Fisk of Mill City officiating.

Mrs. E. D. Thompson and son Howard spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Alva Grimes of Gates.

Willis Brown tried speeding one day last week and attempted to stop with a flourish in front of the postoffice, with the result that the machine turned turtle, breaking off the top and the wind shield and bending the fender, but being a Ford, when it was righted it ran all right. Willis was not hurt.

Aunt Sarah Cox, of Stayton, is visiting at the Fred Morrills home. Her many friends were glad to see her.

Mrs. S. D. Brown returned home Monday evening, her mother having passed away last week.

We Lead--Others Follow!

We sell goods at the old prices and we WILL continue to do so for the next 30 days. Having bought large orders at BED ROCK PRICES, now as the raise comes we quit buying and are giving you the benefit of these EXTREMELY low prices that defy all competitors.

EXTRA SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK

10 bars of Elk Savon Soap	25c	6 bars of fine Toilet Soap	25c
6 bars White Wonder Soap	25c	Large fresh Lemons, dozen	15c

Oranges at 10c dozen, 3 for 25c

Golden Rod Oats, 5 lbs, for	25c	5C for a double roll of WALL PAPER
Curve Cut Macaroni, 3 lbs	25c

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

You can get harness supplies at our store. We have a department for all your wants. See us first.

We Buy Your Produce at Best Prices

The Farmer's Store of Quality

GOOD GOODS | A. W. SCHRUNK | GOOD GOODS

Aumville - - Oregon

We Speak German

West Stayton

Mrs. Nipple and Mrs. McClellan were Salem visitors Sunday.

Will Councilman and family were trading with Stayton merchants Saturday.

Clarence Forrette was an over Sunday visitor in Salem.

Mrs. Lottie Gentry was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Robbins, who is ill.

Mrs. Mary Hunter, of Portland, is visiting at the D. B. Conness home.

Mrs. Van Nuys gave a birthday party at her home last Friday afternoon in honor of Grandma Giggy. All present report a most pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Dively, Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Gunsauls spent Saturday afternoon at the Weigand home.

Miss Roxey Gunsauls left for Wells, Ore., where she has found employment.

Mrs. Dively entertained the crochet club last Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Schmitz home May 3rd.

Mrs. George Wolf called on Mrs. Loosé Friday evening.

Victor Point

A good school program, including "Kamp-Kill-Kare" was presented by the school to a large crowd at the school house on Saturday evening.

Frank Cheney is doing some carpenter work for R. A. Jones this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fischer and family visited with relatives at Union Hill Sunday.

J. D. Darby and son James made a business trip to Silvertown Saturday.

Mrs. J. King has returned home from Salem, where she has been visiting relatives.

Geo. Doerfler spent the week end in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys spent Sunday with Mrs. Pearl Humphreys at Aumville.

Miss Pauline Kloetch, of Portland, is visiting this week at the Martin and Joseph Doerfler home.

Miss Ava Slagel called on Leon King Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fischer made a business trip to Stayton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Doerfler and Bertha and Freddie were capital city visitors Saturday.

M. Gibson made a trip to his farm near Canby Sunday.

School Notes

Last Saturday afternoon the members of the Girl's National Honor Guard held a meeting in the high school auditorium. It was decided to hold the first class Thursday evening April 26, at 3:45. At this meeting a definite time will be set for the regular meetings at which the first division will be taken up which is the Emergency and First Aid work. Miss Elvora Willing will take charge if she is in town and if not, Dr. C. H. Brewer will give the girls a lecture.

Miss June Kearns has been teaching in Mrs. Pratt's room during the latter's absence.

A very interesting Basket Ball game took place in the gymnasium last Friday evening.

Tennis seems to be a popular pastime among many of the high school pupils.

William and Marguerite Ryan have been absent this week because of the death of their aunt, Mrs. A. McKean of Aberdeen Washington.

The Sophomore English class are preparing for another debate to be given in the near future, but it will be given in their class room and not in the assembly as the one before.

Those receiving 100 per cent in the recent spelling contest are: Edmund Klecker and Wava Brown of the 8th grade; Sarah Caldwell, Rosa Allis and Loren Lampman of the 7th grade; Margaret Hensley, Lyle Lampman, George Mielke and Leo Lulay of the 6th grade; Sylvia Darby and Genevieve Spaniol of the 5th grade; Albert Farrar, Paul Stayton and Henry Deidrick of the 4th grade. Those who received the highest grades throughout the year and are now privileged to attend the final contest in Salem are: Ella Spaniol, Sarah Caldwell, Margaret Hensley, Genevieve Spaniol, Sylvia Darby, Paul Stayton and Alice Klecker.

Union Hill

Miss Mary Peters spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Belle Heater.

Fred Johnston of Silvertown came up Saturday after his brother Albin who has been working for David Pottroff.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heater and daughter Vivian and Mrs. Adolph Heater and children visited at the Pottroff home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fischer visited at the Geo. Scott home Sunday.

Clifford Thomas, who is working near Salem come up last Friday to visit a few days with home folks.

Delbert Murphy of Stayton spent the week end with Guy and Hugh Hurt.

Miss Mary Peters spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Joseph Lincoln.

The Walluga club celebrated their first anniversary with a party at the home of Mrs. Amelia Heater. A large crowd was present in spite of bad weather and roads. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.
The Parent-Teachers meeting was held at the school house Saturday evening. A good crowd attended. A short program was rendered followed by an old fashioned spelling bee and last but not least was the lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Miss Dora Rabens who has been visiting her uncle Albert Rabens of Silver Creek returned home Saturday.

THANKS FARMERS FIRE RELIEF

I sustained a loss by burning of my barn the night of April 10th and within twelve hours a satisfactory settlement was made and I think the association made deserves the farmers support.

Yours truly
G. G. Holmes

Business Change

Having closed out my business I am taking this means of expressing my thanks and appreciation to my friends for their patronage. Ditter Fell & Co., having bought the majority of my stock are able to take care of your future wants.

Again thanking you I am as ever.

Yours truly
Anton Van Handle

Methodist Church

The Great War and the New World Now Being Shot From the Cannon's Mouth for the evening, and "Jesus and the Blind Man" for the morning are the sermon subjects the pastor has chosen for next Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal Church.

No moving picture show Saturday or Sunday at the Star. Don't fail to see the Jolly Entertainers.