School Notes

The student body of the High School passed a resolution the later part of last week, changing the time of electing its officers from the beginning of the school term, to the month of May of the preceding year.

The eight grade, the future Freshmen, were invited to participate in the election, which was held Monday morning. The following officers were elected: William Ryan, President; James Mielke, vice President; Lynn Neal, Sec.-Treas.; Melvin Nipple, Editor of Bugle; Roy Follis, Athletic Manager; Henry Geymer Sergeant at Arms, and Edwin Keech Business Manager of the Bugle.

The High School Base Ball Team played their first game this year at Turner, last Friday afternoon. The two teams were quite evenly matched and Turner won by a single score. The unfavorable weather has prevented the boys from practicing as much as they might, but they have made up their minds to work, and try for the county championship. The next game is scheduled to take place here on the school grounds the coming Friday afternoon.

The speed contest for the school championship in type-writing is to be held the first Thursday afternoon after the school term is over. June Kearns won the silver cup last year, which goes to the winner in the contest this year.

Thursday of every week has been decided upon for the meeting of the Girls' National Honor Guard. There will be two lectures this week, Tuesday and Thursday by Doctor Brewer. The girls are doing good work under the able supervision of Mrs. M. J. Crabtree, in charge of the home department, Doctor and Mrs. Brewer in Emergency work, and Mr. Davy in military drill. The girls had their first lesson in military drill last Thursday evening in connection with gymnasium work.
