Commencement Well Attended

The high school auditorium was crowded to the utmost last Friday night at the commencement exercises.

The program was carried out in every detail and was received with hearty applause by the audience. The largest class ever graduated from the Stayton high school completed their course of study and were given their diplomas.

M. S. Pittman of Monmouth delivered the address of the evening and he gave a splendid talk and it was thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

Those who graduated were: George Tate, Leo Klecker, Guy Hurt, Ralph Kelly, A. D. Gardner Jr., Selmer Brown, Wanda Brown, Marguerite Ryan, Leon Stayton, Mabel Walker, Gussie Condit.

Married at Jordan

Tuesday, June 5th, at Jordan, occurred the marriage of Minnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Silbernagel, to Louie Giesler.

By this marriage two of Linn county's popular young people are united, and both have many friends who will join The Mail in best wishes.

Quite a number of people from Stayton and vicinity were present.

The young people gave a ball in the evening to their friends, at the Jordan hall.

Attention

On Friday afternoon June 8 at 2 o'clock all ladies who belong to the Stayton Red Cross are requested to meet at the I. O. O. F. hall. All should bring their thimbles as there will be work to do.

Seth H. Burson Passes Away

Seth H. Burson an old resident of Stayton died at 6:45 a. m. Wednesday morning. He was in apparent good health until about 3 o'clock Wednesday morning when he suffered a stroke of paralysis which proved fatal a few hours later. He was past 72 years old and leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss. His children are Mrs. Neal of Lebanon, Mrs. Miller, Seattle Mrs. G. Murphy, Stayton, Mrs. Sandman, Mill City, Otto and W. P. of Stayton, Roy of Alberta Canada and M. S. of Mehama.

The funeral services will be held at the Methodist church at 2 p. m. Friday, interment in Lone Oak cemetery.

I wish to thank the committee and all the members of the Stayton Red Cross auxiliary for their untiring efforts and their hearty response in making the supper served the Masons last Saturday night such a splendid success.

Mrs. J. P. Wilbur, Chairman.
