Smoke Screens in Naval Warfare.
The smoke screen or smoke attack that is so effective in naval warfare originated in the United States navy, being first used in our destroyer fleet when it was under the command of Captain Eberle.
The writer well remembers being present at such an attack off Block Island several years ago, when five groups of destroyers, twenty in all, crossed the head of a column of battleships until they were in the windward position, and then, with the leading destroyers smoking heavily, swept down the line of the enemy at a distance of about 1,300 yards. The pall of dense smoke rolled down to leavard, enveloping the enemy and screening the destroyers from observation, but above the dense and low lying bank of smoke could be seen the successive pairs of fighting tops of the battleships, and had the maneuver been an actual battle some of the capital ships would have been heavily torpedoed.—Scientific American.

Largest Zoo in the World.
The New York zoological park, both in point of area covered and the number of living creatures maintained there, is the largest menagerie in the world, and even the old established institutions of the kind in Europe, where there is no free admission, can boast of no better buildings or more splendid grounds.
At the New York zoological park there are more than 5,000 specimens, representing about 1,200 species, and all of these have to be fed and well fed. In fact, some of the specimens, far removed from their native habitat, must be supplied with certain dainties which they would obtain but occasionally in their native wilds, but which help them to thrive here. Nowhere are animals, birds and reptiles more carefully looked after, and the very few deaths at this park long since established it in a class by itself.—New York Telegram.

Proving Multiplication.
The following method, which is taught in nearly all English elementary schools in India, is the quickest way of proving multiplication, and it will be found that it is absolutely correct in every case.
Example—Multiply 84,689 by 5,214—44,598,346. Add all the digits of the multiplicand till one digit is obtained, thus: 8+4+6+8+9=35=3+5=8. Do likewise with the multiplier, thus: 5+2+1+4=12=1+2=3. Multiply the two results and add the digits till one digit is obtained: 8x3=24=2+4=6.
Lastly, add the digits of the product till one digit is obtained, thus: 4+4+5+9+8+4+6+8+9=67=6+7=13=1+3=4. If the result agrees with the result obtained by adding the digits of the preceding sums the product is correct.
We get 6 in both cases. Hence the product is correct.—Machinery.

Using Bits of Embroidery.
Save any embroideries of dollies, cushions, etc., after the material itself, on which the embroidery is done, is so worn out that the piece is of no further use. The initials from handkerchiefs and old lingerie can be put on new lingerie again. They are almost always as good as new. With the rest of the embroideries charming little gifts can be made. The pretty butterflies in colors on a wornout cushion were not in the flaps of a child's white apron. The trailing poppies of a cushion were appliqued on a natural color linen garden apron. Other uses occur from time to time.

Motorcar Suggestions.
Examine your battery every other week; fill it with water if necessary.
Examine the oil level in your crank case before each trip.
Keep out of the car tracks and ruts.
Do not tinker with parts you know nothing about.
Turn up the grease cups and fill the oil holes without waiting for squeaks.
Test the inflation of your tires twice a week and keep them pumped up.
Read the instruction book you received with your car.
Wash your car immediately after every trip.

Denied the Statement.
"Sister is a very good child when she is asleep," said Tom facetiously, having heard some one else say the same thing.
"I ain't dood when I's asleep," declared sister. "I has bad dreams and wake mamma up."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Lot of Nothing.
An Englishman, leaving a fortune of over $200,000, provided for his wife in the following terms: "I bequeath to my once dear wife nothing. She left me for nothing and wants for nothing, and I have nothing more to say respecting her."—Argonaut.

Do It Skillfully.
"You are lying so clumsily," said the Englishman to a litigant who was making a dubious statement of his case, "that I would advise you to get a lawyer."—San Francisco Star.

Fine Comparison.
"Remember," said Mowls, "that riches have wings."
"Well," replied Gilson, "the fact that a bolted chicken has wings doesn't prevent me from enjoying it!"

Real Hunger.
A baby shouting for his morning meal makes as good an example of what a food riot really is as anything we know of.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Nobody is thoroughly accomplished unless he has the ability to mind his own business.—New York Sun.

Longer, But No Better

"Intolerance" and "Birth of a Nation," D. W. Griffith's world famous photoplays, were longer, but they were no better, according to scores of critics, than this master producer's spectacular, soul-stirring six-act wonder drama, "Her Condoned Sin," which will be the special featured attraction at the Star Theatre Saturday Matinee and evening.
Never in the history of the silent drama has such a wonderful cast of players been assembled as in "Her Condoned Sin." The story is especially interesting right now, as the action of this wonderful drama all centers about the choice made by a beautiful girl between her lover and the safety of her nation. She undergoes a terrific emotional struggle and eventually sacrifices her lover that her people may live. Rarely is such remarkably fine photography seen in any production as in "Her Condoned Sin," a picture which must stand for years to come as one of the screen's greatest classics. More than 11,000 persons were used in some of the battle scenes and the same lavish scale was followed in every detail of this picture.

Albany Round-up

Albany, Ore., June 25.—Unlike the average wild west show, which is devoted entirely to the rougher sterner side of the game the Albany Round-up this year will present features of an entertaining nature that will please all elements in the audience at all times. A good laugh is never amiss and Manager Clarence R.
Adams has seen to it that the best talent in the fun making-line obtainable was secured.

Guests at the Albany Roundup last year will remember Rube Fisher, a Keystone movie actor and cowboy, who drove Marie Dresser off of the pier in an automobile in "Tillie's Punctured Romance." Besides Fisher there will be Pe Wee, a little colored boy who performs with a boro for the movies in California, and Adams guarantees a laugh a jump with his antics.
Hank Potts, who is one of the best riders and ropers in the west will also add comedy to some of his stunts.

Another entertaining feature will be Jessie M. Jenes, a cowboy soloist, far above the every day cowboy singer, who will be heard in selections every day.
Jones, who lives in Eastern Washington, a university graduate and a cultured musician, and will make a great hit here.
These besides the Cowgirl's Band and the Albany Municipal Band are but a few of the features which will add variety to the exciting races, roping, bull-dog-ging and bucking contests. The Round-up will be held July 2-3 and 4th.

Miss Elnora Wiling who has been visiting in Portland, Astoria and Seaside for the past five weeks returned home last Saturday.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
