School Notes

The work along the line of Food Conservation has been taken up in earnest in the school. Every pupil was requested to have one of the membership cards for Food Conservation signed by a housewife and then the member of the organization would be given a Membership card, which was to be hung in the window of the home. This work among the school pupils has helped the local committee a great deal.

The A-C's Literary Society gave a very interesting program last Friday afternoon. The Apollo's will give the following program Friday:

Vocal duet; Maryan Alexander and Verda Hamman
Debate; Resolved, That the Printing Press has done more for Civilization than Steam Engine.
Affirmative Edwin Keech, Norval Fischer, Philip Weisenberger. Negative Lynn Neal, Delbert Murphy, Edmund Kiecker.

Reading; Josephine Lambrecht, Coronet Solo; John Susbauer.
Reading; Lewis Kearns.

The Basketball game last Friday evening was very close between the Juniors and Sophomores the score being 14 to 12 in favor of the Sophomores. The Freshmen took the game from the Seniors by 15 points the score being 19 to 4. The games for Friday evening are Seniors vs Juniors, Sophomores vs Freshmen.

The Shorthand II Class has succeeded in gaining 20 words per minute on practiced work.

An Honor Guard meeting will be held in the high school auditorium Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. All old members or any one interested in the work is cordially invited to attend. Meeting opens at 7:30.

Prof. Wilson, talented violin instructor of Albany, called at the high school Tuesday.

The seventh and eighth grades room has been presented with a new map of Oregon. It is very complete, giving most valuable information in detail, concerning the state.

The pupils of the third and fourth grades have written compositions on Food Conservation.

Leslie Child's and Minta Caldwell's were selected as the best in the room and have been sent to the Shetland Pony Contest.

Loran Lampman is absent from school on account of a severe attack of appendicitis.

Sickness has taken several pupils from their school work, Sylvia Darby and Carrie Cavin are absent and Donald Sanders was absent Monday.

Mildred Leahey of Lents has entered the fifth grade.

Two pupils from the primary room have each bought a Liberty Bond. The little owners are; Wilbur Lesley of the first grade and Lee Tate, of the second grade.

The primary pupils have been intensely interested in Food Conservation. In order to save, they have decided upon the following points: no chewing gum, no candy nor ice cream, no veal or lamb meat, brown bread at least once a week and always leave the table with a 'clean plate.'

Eliminate waste to the last degree and render valiant and heroic service to your country by enlistment in Hoover's "Service by Substitution" army of 100,000,000 patriotic souls.

This war is a struggle to assure the dominance of democracy. Every flag that flies against the central powers (despotic militarism) is by proxy the American flag. Every man in the ranks of the allies, every woman and child in Europe sacrificing in the maintenance of these men, are fighting in our defense.
