Mass Meeting Well Attended

Last Friday evening a largely attended meeting was held in the high school auditorium in the interest of the great Y. M. C. A. drive that was drawing to a close at that time and all who were there were well repaid for the time and effort expended in going as all the addresses were to the point and gave the audience some facts first hand about the work the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. is actually doing on all the war fronts, in prison camps and cantonments.

Geo. Keech was chairman of the meeting and those from out town attending were Messrs. Denham, Ginrich and Rollin K. Page of Salem, Chaplain Matthews of the U. S. army stationed at Fort Stevens and Mr. Hannah a Canadian soldier who has returned from the trenches and is now incapacitated for further military service.

Mr. Keech introduced Mr. Denham who made a splendid talk along patriotic lines and drove home some facts in regard to the work being accomplished. The talk that stirred the hearts of every individual present was the simple but earnest recitation of the experiences of himself from the time he enlisted in a Canadian regiment in August 1914 until he was sent to the hospital with 13 bullets in his body and limbs as related by Mr. Hannah. This young man although but a boy yet in years has had experiences enough to last the most adventurous for a long lifetime, yet he only did his duty and what our boys are now being called upon to do. The one bright spot in his life and the life of every other boy at the front is the many acts of kindness, the entertainment and diversion furnished by the Y. M. C. A.

Chaplain Matthews made an eloquent plea for a good contribution to the work from an economic standpoint showing very plainly the need of just such an organization and how the boys, whether they be Jew or Gentile, Protestant or Catholic, atheist or what not, not only enjoyed the Y. M. C. A. but actually welcomed them and were always glad to avail themselves of the home they furnish for rest, recreation and entertainment.

Mr. Page made a short talk covering the subjects of the evening in a general way. Mr. Keech closed the meeting with a short patriotic address, which stirred the audience as only he is able to stir them.

Dance November 28

The dance to be given by the patriotic ladies of Stayton in the Trotter building Thanksgiving eve promises to eclipse anything of that character ever given in Stayton. The lady management assures the public that they will have the time of their lives at this function.

The building will be profusely decorated, Coney Island Hot Dog Cakes and other edibles will be served and those who trip the light fantastic will do so to the strains of Talmadge 3 piece orchestra. Come, have a good time and incidentally help provide some of the "Comforts for Our Boys."

Railroad Men are Here Again

The appearance in our town last Tuesday evening of M. Lynott and H. N. Putnam, coupled with the fact that the engineers have again been in our midst for the past ten days, caused no little stir in the community. The engineers have been engaged in changing the line in the vicinity of Sublimity, which is now nearly completed. In keeping with the policy of the company to please and accommodate as many prospective patrons of the road as possible this change was ordered made.

In conversation with a Mail representative last night Mr. Lynott reiterated his oft repeated assertion that the securing of the right of way was the only obstacle in the way of immediately starting construction work. So let's get busy.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that a road district meeting will be held at N. J. Gehlen's residence in road district No. 32, in Marion county, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 27th day of November, 1917, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of levying an additional tax for road purposes in said district. W. M. Bushey, County Judge.

Miss Ina Harold, who has for the past three or more years been the efficient and accommodating clerk in the Stayton post-office, has resigned her position, and is now enjoying a well-earned rest at home. Miss Harold expects to attend school and better fit herself for a government position in a larger field, where there are opportunities for promotion. Mrs. G. F. Korinek is occupying the position at present. Wednesday was little Miss Louene Thomas' birthday and a number of little folks were entertained at the Thomas home in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Wilbur Entertains

Something new and novel in the way of entertainment is reported by those who were present at the J. P. Wilbur home on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. P. Wilbur entertained the Birthday Club, complimenting her daughter Mrs. Roy Hall, who will leave soon for her home in Eastern Oregon. The invitations were unique and aroused the curiosity, and the entertainment provided by Mrs. Wilbur for her guests was all that could be desired. The ladies were given a picture of a house, with its description and floor plan and were supposed to cut pictures out of magazines to furnish their house. These pictures were assembled and placed on large cards. Then each lady was given a clothespin and her choice of any color of tissue paper to dress it in. These clothes pin ladies were later used as place cards. The ladies voted on the most attractive card and Mrs. W. F. Follis and Mrs. C. E. Daugherty tied for first place and were each presented with a handsome cup and saucer. The consolation prize a Keupie doll fell to Mrs. Elder.

After the prizes were awarded the guests were invited into the dining room which was indeed a beautiful sight. Ribbon streamers hung from softly shaded lights to the table and these were made more attractive by autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. A huge bowl of yellow chrysanthemums graced the center of the table and other bowls and baskets of these flowers were used about the room. An elegant lunch was served after which the ladies enjoyed several selections on the Victrola and later departed for their homes, all voting Mrs. Wilbur and daughter delightful hostesses.

"Hinton's Double."

It was necessary in "Hinton's Double" in which Frederick Warde will be seen at the Star Theatre Sunday to show a close-up of a dog howling. Ernest Warde, the star's son and director, asked a dozen people in the studio to scout around for the worst howl-wower in New Rochelle, one that could give long sustained yips and yodels.

The pet bloodhound-terrier-great-dane-pomeranian of the son of a New Rochelle policeman a long tailed "mutt" that had long agonized the precincts of an inn where many Thanouser players live, was unanimously decided upon.

However, when the dog was placed in his kitchen set and given the cue for his important howling he merely lay down and looked pleasant. Then he had camera fright and shrank into a corner. It was all right for him to appear sad, for the story was that he had eaten a pan of biscuits made by a Mrs. Newlywed, and his subsequent howling was to be a testimonial to her cooking.

William Zollinger, Mr. Warde's cameraman, finally suggested that some one step lightly on the mutt's long tail. The dog seemed to understand, for the mere spoken suggestion obtained the desired results.

Workmen are busy getting the Trotter building in readiness for the benefit dance Nov. 27. As stated before: the proceeds from this dance will go to provide comforts for "our boys" in the service.
