New Years Eve Trot

Dearest Dot, may I take you to the trot?
Would it chance you would dance and frolic light and free
With myself as company?
I could trot a foxy trot with you, Dot!
I could eat a weenie hot with you, Dot!
On New Years Eve.
Then trot to Trotters hall with me, Dot.
There we'll trot the old year out, And we'll trot the new year in.
And we'll dance for our boys in France.
The orchestra has lots of Jazz, Dot.
Four pieces, maybe more, like as not, Dot.
Ladies all are free,
And six bits will enter me
To trot all the trot I've got.

Xmas Business Good

The Stayton Christmas trade was not as large as it would have been had weather conditions during the last week been more favorable. However the merchants feel highly elated over the immense volume of trade they enjoyed. The stocks carried were larger and the selection more diversified than ordinarily found in towns the size of Stayton. The number of useful gifts bought showed the people had caught the war time spirit and were determined to make their money do the greatest amount of good possible.

Mrs. J. P. Wilbur has been on the sick list.

J. M. Ringo and wife took Christmas dinner with relatives in Salem.

J. P. Wilbur made his employees a present of a turkey for Christmas.

Miss Roxv Stayton is here from Spokane for a visit with home folks.

William Munkers and family now occupy the Munkers place on the West Stayton road.

Miss Lois Williams a teacher in the Portland schools is spending the holidays with home folks.

Mrs. W. F. Klecker and son Edwin left this morning for a visit with relatives in Portland.

Miss Nell Stayton and nieces the little Misses Mount of Silverton spent Christmas at the M. Stayton home.

Mrs. Mattie Bruce left the first of the week for Hillsboro, after a short visit with the Mayo family here.

Mrs. Candice Down and son are visiting at the J. P. Davie home and with other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Jones and son Harry are visiting the A. W. Cornish home in Moutague, California.

The Joseph Sestak home was the scene of a merry gathering on Monday afternoon, the occasion being the 8th birthday of little Miss Eugenia Sestak. The children spent some time playing and listening to the Victrola and were later invited to the dining room where a most excellent lunch awaited them. The table was most attractively arranged, a small Christmas tree being used for the center piece. Then too, there was the birthday cake with 8 lighted candles. It was an afternoon long to be remembered by the kiddies.
