If you are paying a high rate of interest, why not refund your loan at a lower rate and more liberal terms.
It is not good business to pay a higher rate of interest than the to keep your surplus funds on time deposits at 3 to 4 per cent. per annum when 6 per cent can readily be you have money to loan or wish to

RELIGIONS IN CHINA.

One For Everyday Life, One For Sickness and One For Death.

The state religion is not Confucianism, though founded on it. To the worship of heaven it adds the worship of nature in its chief material forms, such as the earth, sun, moon and stars, mountains and rivers. To the cults of ancestors it not only adds that of heroes, but expands so as to take in many of the divinities of Taoism and Buddhism, thus forming a compound of the three religions.

Logically the three are irreconcilable, the Taoist being materialism, the Buddhist idealism and the Confucian essentially ethical. Yet the people, like the state, make of them a unity by swallowing portions of each. In ordinary their lives are regulated by Confucian forms; in sickness they call in Taoist priests to exorcise evil spirits, and at funerals they have Buddhist priests to say masses for the repose of the soul.

Besides the women and the priesthood the two sects last named have very few professed adherents, though the whole nation is more or less tinged by them. The men (at least those who can read) almost without exception profess to be followers of Confucius.—Scientific Monthly.

Oil and Lubrication.

Oil is a peacemaker and serves its purpose by interjecting itself between the two warring elements of a bearing surface which would soon find themselves in the midst of a hot and disastrous argument were it not for the good offices of this conciliatory medium. Therefore it is an actual film of oil which is forced into the bearings or under the cylinder walls and over which adjoining bearing surfaces slide.
It is because the actual film of oil must exist between the smooth surfaces of a bearing that it is found necessary for oil to be of a certain thickness or viscosity. If therefore becomes evident why oil, to be satisfactory for use in a gasoline engine, should be of a quality not easily broken down or thinned by the temperatures reached in the oil circulating system of the average automobile power plant.—H.
W. Slauson in Leslie's.

OUR NATIONAL FORESTS.

They Are 153 in Number and Are Seattered Over Nineteen States.

Under authority of an act of congress passed in 1891 the president of the United States is empowered to set apart public lands bearing forests as public reservations. The primary purposes of the national forests are to insure continuous production of timber and favorable conditions as to flow of water. As means to these ends strict supervision is maintained over the sale of mature timber, and the forest areas are guarded against fire.

These areas are much used by campers, hunters and fishermen. "Recreation maps" are issued, which not only present maps of many of the national forests, showing towns, streams, roads and trails, but contain information pertaining to camp sites, fish and game, and campers' registers are kept at the headquarters of the forest supervisors.

The national forests, 153 in number, are scattered over nineteen states, Alaska and Porto Rico. All but two of these states, Florida and Michigan, lie west of the Mississippi. The total area of national forest land, excluding that of other lands within national forest boundaries, is 244,189 square miles.
This area is nearly as great as that of the state of Texas, or of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia combined, or of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin combined.

EAT ORANGES AT NIGHT.

Then You Will Sleep Soundly and Rise Happy in the Morning.

If you are troubled with sleeplessness or if you are restless at nights, eat oranges before retiring. Oranges are the best sedative in the world. A man on the orange diet will never get rheumatism, and he will have no appetite for alcoholic liquors. Both apples and oranges cure the liquor habit.

Oranges, eaten before retiring, will make you sleep so soundly that you arise in the morning invigorated and refreshed, with the notion that you have been drugged with some potion that makes life all the happier and joyous. The acid of the orange will help purge you in case you need purging, and the sugar of the orange will sweeten your breath and your whole body.
The coolness of the juice will reduce the fevers of your digestive tract, and you will be 1,000 per cent better off for the orange diet.

Orange buds and orange leaves steeped in hot water and made into a tea are also splendid sedatives.
The orange was originally a berry in Asia. It was brought into Europe by Alexander the Great, and it has been greatly improved since Alexander's time, especially by the horticulturists of California.

The oranges are not growing here for nothing. They thrive here because nature intends them to be used by you as a food.—Los Angeles Times.

When Brodie Bluffed Mitchell.

Once when in England Steve Brodie, the famous bridge jumper, was in a party which included Charlie Mitchell, the prizefighter. Mitchell made some remarks derogatory to John L. Sullivan, to which Brodie rejoined with some sarcastic observations on the sprinting ability Mitchell displayed while in the ring with Sullivan. This angered the prizefighter, who knocked Brodie flat.
As he scrambled to his feet Mitchell made another rush at him, but by then Brodie had a pistol in his hand and, thrusting it under his assailant's nose, remarked: "You think you're going to make a reputation off lickin' Steve Brodie, don't you? Well, you just hit me once and there'll be a lot in the papers about it, but you won't read it." That closed the incident.

Watches, Thick and Thin.

Although some of the early watches were very small in circumference, they were thick, and the front- and back-fairly bulged so that they were more the shape of an apple than a cookie, which they really resemble today. The waterlike watch is an invention of very recent times, and the process of thinning it is even now going on. The obvious advantage of the thin watch is that it can be placed in the belt or pocket without making a bulge. If watches had always been worn round the necks they might still be spherical rather than disklike in shape.—Exchange.

Climbing the Ladder.

The prudent, penniless beginner in the world labors for wages awhile, saves a surplus with which to buy tools or land for himself, then labors on his own account another while and at length hires another beginner to help him. This is the just and generous and prosperous system which opens the way to all, gives hope to all and consequent energy and progress and improvement of condition to all.— Lincoln.

Basket Ball Game Played at Scio

Stayton High defeated Scio High both by the actual score and by having the game forfeited to them by Scio refusing to play.

Before going into the details of the game at Scio it is necessary that some of the happenings of the first game at Stayton on Dec. 7 should be mentioned.
Stayton won this game 18 to 10.

When time for the game was at hand the Scio manager and center was not on hand. So the Stayton team waited 15 minutes for him to arrive. He did not come, so the Scio team asked that their coach be allowed to play, and of course the Stayton principal could not stand for this, but let them play a man whose name was not on the eligible list sent by the Scio principal. This was done in spite of the fact that they had the required number of men without him. Scio was allowed to have their coach as the referee, and he was continued for the whole game in spite of the fact that he was continually coaching his men while he was refereeing. The Stayton High team and coach made no objections during the progress of the game nor did the Stayton coach utter one word of coaching during the whole game. Stayton asked for no umpire as they are considered unnecessary.

The return game was scheduled for Feb. 15 but because Mill City was unable to get their hall for Jan. 4, Scio was called up and given the game as per the request of their manager who had asked that the game be changed to an earlier date. The Stayton team went to Scio accompanied by 35 loyal rooters.

The dodgers announcing the game advertised that Scio High would play Stayton High, but the Stayton coach having heard rumors that the Scio high team was not playing, asked their principal just before the game if this was their team, and he answered yes, except that some were in the 8th grade. No objection was made to this.

At the very first part of the game the referee began calling the ball out of bounds when it hit the side or end wall. The Scio coach immediately made objections stating that they played caged basket ball rules, and although there is no longer such rules in match games, the Stayton coach and captain agreed to this. After the score had run up 14 to 2 in favor of Stayton, in spite of the fact that Scio's coach had been playing on the floor continually and was telling his men what to do, and yet his team could not win because of the excellent team work of their opponents, he began telling his men to mix and rough it. This they did till the half closed 16 to 2.

Between halves Stayton offered to let their coach referee, but he would not consent to this as he could not do quite as efficient (?) coaching as from the field of play without officiating. The second half started with the Scio coach again within the field of play where he stayed and coached his men continually not only he but the umpire coached them at the same time, and the umpire was never agreed upon by Stayton, and so far as the referee being unfair to Scio, he called all the fouls on Stayton that the umpire had seen, save one. But not once did the umpire call a foul on Scio. The rough and dirty playing of the Scio team continued till three of their players had four or more personal fouls, when according to the rules they shall be thrown out of the game, but the referee let them stay in, and when many of the Scio rooters began to hoot at the Stayton captain when he was tossing free throws at the basket from the foul line, the referee asked them to discontinue it as it is clearly against the rules.

They did not stop this unsportsmanlike conduct so the referee told the Stayton captain to hold the ball till the crowd stopped their hooting. The Scio coach took his men off the field of play and the crowd stopped for a moment. The Scio team finally coming back on the field the referee blew his whistle to play and then the crowd started again, when the ball was declared dead till they discontinued such actions, and because the referee would not allow time to be taken out for this the Scio coach again took his men off the field of play and the referee gave him two minutes to get his men ready to resume play or he would forfeit the game to stayton. This was done and announced to the crowd.

The losing side in the typewriting contest are planning on entertaining the winners in the very near future.

The program of the Apollo Literary Society was postponed until next Friday, on account of the trip to Scio.

Miss Poley was able to return to school last Friday morning.
The first meeting of the Chante was held Tuesday evening at the high school. The Chante has been organized for some time but because of the rush of amusements elsewhere the meetings had not been held. The refreshment committee served 'hot
