Roseburg—$157,000 ready to build 12 mile section of road between Canyonville and Johns ranch.

Portland—Big Monarch Lumber Co. plant re-opened.

Oregon shipyards need 3000 additional men in next two months. Secretary Dodson of the Portland Chamber of Commerce has been doing excellent work in placing value of Oregon shipbuilding before the public.

Brookings—Big Sawmill running steadily here.

Corvallis—Loganberry plant will be erected here if farmers will sign up to produce 300 acres of loganberries on long time contract.

Regulations promulgated by fuel administration setting aside Thursday and Sunday as "lightless nights" do not apply to localities deriving power from hydro-electric plants, as such plants are already conserving coal and oil by using waterpower. This emphasizes the necessity of legislation encouraging to waterpower development.

St. Johns—Oceanic Shipbuilding Co., incorporates at $125,000
Portland—Albina Engine and Machine Works gets government contract for 4 steel ships, cost $4,000,000.

Marshfield—Coos Bay Shipbuilding Co., will employ 600 men to finish 4 vessels now on ways.

Shipbuilding and lumber industry on the coast has suffered much from strikes of high paid workmen taking advantage of labor shortage caused by enlistments. These men are the worst kind of slackers and their names should be published and they should be dealt with the same as delinquents in registration.

Eugene—Contract signed for Siuslaw road.

Portland—Northwest Steel Co. and Columbia River Shipbuilding Corporation awarded government contract for 20 steel steamers, cost between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000.

Patriotic League.

The committees of Patriotic Ladies appointed by Mrs. J. P. Wilbur who have had charge of raising funds for patriotic purposes and for which so many have been laboring, met on Saturday evening Jan. 5 and decided to perfect a permanent organization to carry on this work.

Several names were suggested for the new organization, Staytons "Patriotic League," being chosen as the most appropriate. Aside from the regular officers, there is an advisory board consisting of five prominent business men of Stayton. The object of the League is to inculcate a higher spirit of patriotism and unity, to knit, sew or do any other work deemed worthy for the comfort and welfare of "our boys" at the front or in training.

The league will meet regularly every first and third Monday of every odd month, but may be called in special session, any time seen fit by the chairman. It is to be hoped that through this league the citizens of Stayton, will work as a unit, that "our boys" may confidently know the folks at home appreciate the sacrifices they are making and show they are willing and anxious to do their part in helping win this war for democracy. Minnie A. Luthy, Secretary.
