Adopt Resolutions

There have been numerous complimentary remarks made in some newspapers lately regarding Pres. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College, from the fact that he secured a raise in salary. The students at the O. A. C. Short Course, representing various parts of this and other states, passed resolutions condemning the newspapers for their "unfounded and uncalled for criticisms made wholly without just cause or good reason." They state "as a further testimony of our appreciation be it resolved that each and every one of us sincerely thank Doctor Kerr, the deans, and the many instructors for their courtesy and efforts put forth in our behalf in imparting to us knowledge which will be of inestimable value to us in carrying on our various pursuits in life."

Tuesday the executive board of Stayton Auxiliary A. R. C. met at the Red Cross rooms. General business was transacted and J. H. Thoma, J. W. Mayo and Geo. Keech were appointed to act as a civilian relief committee.

Letter from Gus

Camp Belvoir, Alexandria, Va.
Jan. 27, 1918.

To the Ladies of Stayton and Vicinity:

Received your most welcome package this morning and was sure pleased as I needed the helmet and wristlets and socks real bad. Had a sweater from the Red Cross for Christmas, so if one of the boys in our company is without any will give him one.

It makes me feel good to know that the people at home still think of us boys in the army.

Have to make a 45 mile trip (that is, each way) tomorrow in an open truck with zero weather here, so will have a chance to give the new suit a trial.

I am located now on the banks of the Potomac river, 25 miles below the city of Washington. Am down to real soldier life now, as we have been living in tents the past month.

Am feeling fine, never even have had as much as a cold since I have been in the army.

We are hooked to start for France soon, as the first battalion has gone and we are in the second. If we get the keiser will send you a souvenir, maybe his hat.

Many, many thanks to all.
Your friend

Scio Condensery a in Mix-up

Considerable excitement has prevailed in the section adjacent to Scio the past week, when several hundred dollars worth of checks issued by the condensery at that place were turned down by various banks. Representatives of banks at Albany and Jefferson went to Scio to investigate. They found the manager in Portland, and the man in charge knew nothing of the return of the checks and insisted that the firm had plenty of money to pay its bills. Later developments seem to indicate that the condensery will pull through its difficulties and resume operations. It is stated that the firm has been supplying the government with its products, and that its troubles are caused by the delay in receiving its pay. It is hoped that the company will be able to pay its bills, as there are many farmers interested who can ill afford to lose what is due them.

He is a progressive young man and deserving of the patronage of all lovers of good clean pictures. The Mail bespeaks for him success in this latest enterprise.

DELICIOUS CORN MUFFINS.

Here's an old fashioned recipe for corn muffins that has recently been revived and used with unusual success in several of the larger New York hotels: To make three and a half dozen muffins take one quart milk, six ounces butter substitute, twelve ounces of light syrup or honey, four eggs, pinch of salt, two ounces baking powder, one and a half pounds cornmeal and one and a half pounds rye flour. The butter and syrup should be thoroughly mixed; then add the eggs gradually. Pour in the milk and add the rye flour mixed with cornmeal and baking powder.
