J. Sheard Injured

In renewing his subscription to the Mail, J. Sheard states that about six weeks ago as he was walking to the mill, an auto trying to pass another one, skidded to the side of the road on which he was walking. It knocked him down and stopped with the front axle resting across his shoulders at the back. He was resting in a bed of deep, soft mud, which no doubt saved him from death. He says: "On being pulled from under, I walked to the mill and cleaned up not feeling much the worse, but in a few hours I realized that I was more damaged than I thought. On seeing the doctor, I found I had cracked one of my ribs and strained my left foot and shoulder and back, besides several minor bruises. I am now attending to my work all right and think that I got off very lucky. We are having beautiful weather here now but during the month of March we had some heavy rains and all around the mill the flat country was badly flooded. I would not like to miss a single number of the Mail. On Monday evenings when it gets here I feel happy to hear from Stayton, where I have so many good friends that it makes it seem like home to me."

Stayton Boy Marries

Monday April 8 Nello Mack of Stayton and Josie Vitale of Port Angeles were united in marriage by the Rev. C. F. Fulmer of that place.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Mack of Stayton, and is well and favorably known here as he has grown to manhood in this community. He is now a Corporal in the U. S. Army. He was called to Camp Lewis with the first call for troops for the National Army, having registered in eastern Oregon he was called with that contingent. After several months active training he with his company were transferred to Vancouver from which point they were sent to one of the Spruce camps near Port Angeles, getting out Spruce for airplanes, at which place he is now stationed.

They will make their home for the present in Port Angeles. The Mail joins the many friends of Nello in wishing him and his wife a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

In Again—Out Again

"In Again—Out Again" is the first Douglas Fairbanks offering following his affiliation with Artcraft Pictures. It presents a satire on New York and peaceful New Jersey and discloses incidents that are of the typical Fairbanks variety, offering on the whole a rapid-fire picture of red blooded American theme and unusual surprises. Written by little Anita Loos, authoress of many Fairbanks hits, and staged by John Emerson, "Doug's" well known director. "In Again—Out Again" carries further than ever before the wonderfully successful Fairbanks message of smile and be happy. It is a photoplay that does not play to giggles but to hearty laughs, and never for a minute does it allow one's interest to lapse. Be sure and see this picture at the Star theatre Friday and Saturday.

To the Boys En Route

They're off to the land of "Some where"
Perhaps to those fields of France
Where heroes bold in days of old
Rode forth with sword and lance.
Their lives for others they offer
And greater love hath none
Than they who sacrifice it
So sayeth our Christ the Son.
There on the troop ship standing
Faces turned to the west,
Bidding farewell to the homeland
Thinking of ones loved best.
Knowing perhaps that the morrow,
(So held on the knees of God)
May bring a loved one sorrow
For a soul that has gone to its God.
Borne o'er the billows bright gleaming
While with the moons silvery sheen
Life for them has but one meaning
And "Honor" their only dream,
The honor of fighting under
Old Glory until free,
And bursted fur asunder
Are the bonds to Liberty,
Forth from the field victorious,
Else on your shields up borne,
Life has naught more glorious,
Than death for others borne.
Over the fields of memory,
Our tears fall like the dew,
May God in his keeping shield thee
Our prayers are all for you,
—W. D. Shaif.

Freckles

Louise Huff and Jack Pickford who have already won tremendous popularity as a co-starring duo by their wonderful work in "Seventeen" and "Great Expectations," are now presented in their newest Lasky-Paramount Picture, "Freckles" an adaptation of the story by Gene Stratton-Porter, which has proven to be one of the biggest fiction successes of the generation. The opportunities offered the motion picture producer for picturesque outdoor settings and for speedy thrilling action make its screen success inevitable. The scenes for this subject were staged in the celebrated Lumberlost. "Freckles" deals with the adventures of an orphan with a withered arm, who runs away from the orphanage and finally secures a position as watchman in the Lumberlost, a valuable timber swamp. How he meets the "Angel," saves his employers life at the risk of his own, and later nearly loses his own life to save that of the "Angel," is presented in a most graphic and beautiful manner at the Star theatre Sunday.

CANDIDATE FOR State Treasurer

To the voters of Marion County I am a candidate for the office of State Treasurer.

I have lived among you for over twenty-seven years. I have been one of your county officers for nearly six years. You know me in office and out of office. When you re-elected me two years ago by a five to one majority over my competitor you told me I had made good as your county assessor; that you were satisfied with my principles in conducting the hardest office to fill in the county. If I have made good as your assessor I can and will make good as your state treasurer. I have been in close touch with all classes of people for many years and I know their needs, and since attaining the office as your assessor, I have made a study of the duties a public official owes to the people he serves and you will have to agree with me that I have at all times ready and willing to render my services to anyone who came within my office. I am now asking you to give me your support for state treasurer the same as you did for county assessor. You know we all like to advance in life when opportunity offers. In asking this I will assure you that you will have no cause to regret, and I feel I can be of greater service to the people of this county and the state than to serve you locally, and you will find me at all times on the job doing my duty for the best interests of the state.

Parent Teacher Association Meet

A meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held in the High School Auditorium last Monday evening, the purpose being to hear of the work of the county Home Workers' League from the association's county representative Mrs. T. W. Creech. Previous to the talk the Junior Orchestra under the direction of Mr. D. C. Davis gave several selections, and the pupils of the third and fourth grades sang. In her discussion of the work and purpose of the Home Worker's League, Mrs. Creech emphasized the very urgent need of greater conservation of food stuffs, and particularly the necessity of using more substitutes for certain articles. Through greater cooperation of the housewives, and through local organization this is expected to be brought about. Following this discussion Mr. Ford spoke briefly upon the garden club work, and on what we should plant in our gardens. Mrs. Pratt, chairman of the Publicity Committee of the Home Worker's League announced a meeting of the ladies of Stayton and vicinity for Saturday afternoon, April 20, for the purpose of local organization. This meeting at two o'clock at the high school building. The final number on the program was a vocal solo by Mrs. Earl Percy.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be removed and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Special cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars Free. All Druggists, etc.

Someone Sent Him a pouch of Real GRAVELY Chewing Plug

Tobacco is about the only comfort the soldier has—and no chance to smoke on duty! But a satisfying chew of Real Gravely Plug—he can enjoy that even in a shell hole in No Man's Land.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravely Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best! Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravely, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravely with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Seaport of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c stamp will take it to him. Your dealer will supply envelope and give you official directions how to address it.
