School Notes

The Baseball game last Friday ended very successfully for the Stayton team. It was a close game, the score being 9 to 7, in favor of Stayton.

The physical Geography class are studying atmosphere and have been taking thermometer readings and plotting temperature lines.

The typewriters were cleaned and overhauled Tuesday. This work was superintended by D. C. Davis, Lynn Neal and Roy Mielke.

Frank Rauscher visited the high school Tuesday.

Joseph Spaniol, a former high school student went to Salem to take his examination for the Army Tuesday.

The Textile class visited the Woolen Mill Tuesday afternoon Mr. Wilbur very kindly took the class through the mill and explained the entire process by which finished pieces are made from the raw material. This visit was both very interesting and instructive. Each girl in the class was presented with a sample of areo-cloth. This cloth was sent to Mr. Wilbur by a friend in Connecticut. It is made of the very finest grade of cotton which is the "Sea Island." A firm in Connecticut is the only one in the U. S. which has been able to successfully meet Uncle Sam's requirements. This material is so very expensive that it will never appear on the retail market.

The baseball team will play the Lebanon high Friday, April 26, at Lebanon. Saturday they will play Brownsville high at that place. Our team has won every game so far and is determined to keep up the good record.

The next baseball game at Stayton will be played with the Amity team Friday, May 3.

Prof. Ford took and passed the examination for Y. M. C. A. Secretary in France, and expects an appointment soon.

The contest for the silver cup resulted in victory for Anna Spaniol, her speed being 79 words per minute. The speed of the other contestants was as follows: Leona Sandner 77, Josephine Lambrecht 68, Caryl Rubble 66, Gladys Hamman 63.

Come and see one of the best programs ever given in Stayton at the Recital May 10.

Wallace Child has returned from the shipyards for a visit and gave Miss Crabtree's room an interesting talk about the making of ships one day last week.

Zora Stowell visited Miss Crabtree's room Monday.
