The date when the Blue Bird will be shown will be announced in a few days. This is one of the most wonderful productions ever portrayed, wherever it has been shown it has been endorsed by doctors, lawyers, ministers and laborers as teaching the greatest lesson of human life as well as accomplishing some of the most difficult stage settings ever produced in moving pictures.

FARM AND CITY LOANS
If you are paying a high rate of interest, why not refund your loan at a lower rate and more liberal terms. It is not good business to pay a higher rate of interest than the market demands, nor is it good business to keep your surplus funds on time deposits at 3 to 4 per cent. per annum when 6 per cent can readily be secured on first Farm Mortgages. If you have money to loan or wish to refund or secure a new one, call or write S. H. HELTZEL, Stayton, Oregon.

School Notes

The H. S. Chorus is progressing rapidly with their work and a number of fine chorus numbers are being rehearsed. A Memorial Song is being studied at the present time. This song will probably be rendered May 26 at the Memorial Day Services.

Wednesday, May 1 was Junior Annual, the day set aside by the present Junior class each year since their Freshmen year as a date for a class picnic. After school the merry picnickers left town for a big time, and spent an evening long to be remembered. (Some Picnic! ?) May 17 is Junior Day, they will give a program which will well deserve to be called "A Junior Program." You are cordially invited.

Another of the High School boys left Monday morning for service with Uncle Sam. Sam Warren, a senior, was liked by all his classmates and will be greatly missed by all. The Student Body presented him with a watch as a remembrance of old times at Stayton High.

Don't fail to see one of the best games of the season to be played on the home grounds with Salem High on Saturday, May 11.

Mrs. Lau's pupils are still keeping up the fight by selling Thrift Stamps.

Don't forget the recital. Let Oley Smash. "The Real Swede," smash your woes.

The fifth and sixth grades are taking up the study of pictures in their English work this week.

The representatives of the sixth grade at the annual spelling contest are: Leo Lulay and Lee Brown. Those going from the fifth grade are Alice Klecker and the others lies between Paul Stayton and Harry Mutchler.

Irene Lee has returned to school after some illness.

The boys of the seventh and eighth grades have organized a baseball team and played their first game with Turner, May 4, but came back losers with a score of 9 to 2 in favor of Turner.

The tenth of May, is the day.

When we are going to give our wonderful show

When we are sure, you will forget your woe,

Farce, "Oley from Olsonville" is its name

And besides this, which itself is winning fame

There will be numerous funny speakings

And several great musical squeakings,

For each of the ladies and gents The admission is twenty-five cents

Children? Yes, their admission fee

Only fifteen cents will be Benefit? To aid the fund for the Gym

We're going to make our debt look dim!

On the Level

An actress may be a popular stage favorite and may not prove to be an acceptable screen star. As a matter of fact many of the stage favorites fail miserably as such. One, however who is even more popular on the screen than on the stage is Fannie Ward, the dainty favorite of England and America. She has appeared before no less personalities than the King and Queen of England, and has made a number of trips across the Atlantic. Her entrance into motion pictures was in the Paramount photo play, "The Cheat," which has made such a great success throughout the country. In this production she has playing opposite her the great Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa. Since then she has appeared in a number of other popular productions, but undoubtedly has done nothing since "The Cheat" equal to her performance in "On the Level." This is the story of the daughter of a sheep ranchman out west whose father is killed by raiders and who was left to fight her battle against the world alone. Through her help in redeeming a drug fiend, she finally falls in love with her patient and then complications begin to arise. See this play at the Star theatre next Saturday.
