

News From All Over The City

Possibly About You or Your Friends

Otto Burson was an Aumsville business caller Tuesday.

Mrs. Ed Highberger called on Mrs. Fuson Saturday.

Forest and John Mack were Mill City visitors Monday.

D. I. Caldwell of Portland, was visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. W. H. Fuson was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Kuester, Friday.

Mrs. G. L. Brown is spending the week in Salem with friends and relatives.

Theo. Highberger of Sublimity was a caller at the home of his son Ed. Highberger, this week.

Mrs. Sarah Cox has returned from a very pleasant visit with her son at Springfield.

Ben Klecker, and wife of Fleetwood, Ore., are visiting relatives in Stayton this week.

D. M. Doll left last Monday for Bremerton Wash., to take an examination for musician in the U. S. Navy.

Marion Hunt and Dare Sloper were Salem visitors the first of the week.

Miss Rose Amort, of Salem, is spending the week in Stayton visiting friends and relatives.

Chas. Burmester, of Klamath Falls, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Kramer, this week.

Allied flags, service pins and service stationery for sale at Sloper's Drug Store.

Miss Agnes Fuson who has been seriously ill for the past two months is convalescing at the home of her uncle W. H. Fuson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas visited at the home of Roy Jones at Victor Point, Sunday.

Peter Dedrich was in Salem the last of the week after more Ford cars.

Judge D'Arcy and party of Salem, were in Stayton Sunday returning from an up-country trip.

Lowel Riggs of Pendleton paid a hurried visit to Eugene Ware from Sunday until Tuesday.

Word comes from California that the Stayton boys who are with the colors there, will soon be transferred to Maryland.

Ben Irons, formerly of Stayton, but now living at Roseburg, was in town last week renewing old acquaintances.

Trench mirrors and folding tooth brushes for the departing soldier at Sloper's Drug Store.

Ed Young and family of Salem motored to the T. J. Ware home Sunday afternoon for a call.

C. E. Daugherty and wife and Miss Margaret Schaefer were entertained at dinner by the T. J. Ware family Sunday.

Sestack & Thomas have purchased a new one-ton Ford truck with which to take care of their increasing business.

J. W. Mayo and family and father and mother, motored to Cascadia Sunday, and spent the day sightseeing.

Emil Henkle arrived home Sunday from Montana where he has been for the past year. He is in the next Linn county draft.

Conrad Neibert, Miss Grace Elder, Everet Gardner and wife and J. H. Missler were among the auto parties that enjoyed an outing at Cascadia last Sunday.

Geo. Blatchford and wife, of Molalla, Oregon, were in Stayton Monday returning from a visit with Mrs. Blatchford's parents who live near town.

Mr. Chas. Allen of Mill City, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Salem Hospital Thursday. Dr. Beauchamp performed the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Beauchamp entertained Mrs. Beauchamp's sister and husband, Mr. and B. F. Mulkey, of Portland last Sunday.

I will buy evergreen blackberries again this year, delivered at my place. Will pay top price. Pickers wanted.

Mew advertisers this week are Chas. Cladek, W. C. Cladek, Lesley Hotel and Ditter, Bell & Co. See their ads in another part of the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Edwards and Mrs. W. W. Curtis of Salem passed through town Monday on their way to the mountains for a few days vacation.

Carl Fryer and wife, of Junction City, were in the city Sunday visiting of J. R. Gardner. Mrs. Fryer is the daughter of J. R. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McKenney and son James, Mrs. Wade McKenney of Portland, were Sunday visitors at ye editor's home.

Dr. Beauchamp has been making some improvements in his office the past week. He has had the office repainted and new linoleum laid on the floors.

Mrs. Keber and daughter, of Mt. Angel, visited with Mr. Keber, who is temporarily employed here in the State Bank, the first of the week.

Eddie Bell, of Sublimity, has accepted a position in the Stayton State Bank as book keeper, and started upon his duties Monday morning.

LUX

We Handle Lux for all Fine Laundrying

Coveralls for Men--all sizes
KHAKI COLORS PRICES RIGHT

Full line of OVERALLS, all sizes and 3 different Patterns. Get yours now before prices advance again

Good No. 1 Walnuts
Soft Shell, 30c lb.

NOBODY UNDERSELLS US
ESTABLISHED 15 YEARS

W. F. Klecker, Stayton, Ore.

Currin Spring Heel Loggers

Stand the work in the river and the woods

All Kinds of Harvest Shoes for men and women. A straw hat free with each pair
ASK FOR IT

Lancefield Shoe Store

Next Sunday the Kingston church will have a basket dinner and a sermon at 11 o'clock and another service and sermon at 2:30. Everybody invited to these services.

Dr. Beauchamp reports the birth of a baby daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cerisman, west of town on the 24th of July, and a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hookstra of West Stayton last week.

Dr. Brewer reports that a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Creamer on the 21st, and a son to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McCormick, of West Stayton on the 26th.

Last Sunday Dr. Brewer performed an operation on the 6 year old son and 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Murphy for the removal of tonsils and adenoids.

FOR SALE—Driving team, wt about 1100, set double hack harness, set single harness, carriage hack, express wagon, single buggy. Apply Hammans Barn.

H. H. Shreve, who is with the colors, is now taking a navigation course in Portland which will last six weeks. He expects to come up for a commission as soon as school is finished.

Miss Ruth Fuson has returned to the home of her parents after six weeks nursing in and around Aumsville. Miss Fuson, formerly a teacher of Linn county expects to begin hospital work in October.

The Brown, Petzel Lumber Company have a crew of men driving down a half million feet of logs which they have cut at their camp, six miles east of town. The drive will reach here in about ten days.

Dr. Beauchamp performed an operation on T. F. Lake, at Salem Hospital Tuesday for the removal of a tumor. The patient stood the ordeal in fine shape and at the present writing is resting nicely.

C. E. Daugherty and Eugene B. Powelson, Mrs. Daugherty's oldest son, who is now in the service, take this opportunity to thank the ladies of Stayton for their kindness in presenting them with sweaters.

Mrs. Lesley received a letter from her son Olliver last week in which he says that he has enlisted in the aviation corps as Land Machinest Mate in the Navy Aviation Reserve Corps. He is looking for a call to the colors soon.

Byron Robertson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dare Sloper motored to Wilhoit Sunday and spent a few hours at the popular resort. They drove to Portland in the afternoon and took in the show in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. H. Lillie motored to Jefferson Sunday where they attended the Sunday School Convention. Then they went to Corvallis for a few hours visit with friends and relatives. Miss Gladys Rice, sister of Mrs. Lilly returned with them.

The Frank family had a reunion at Wilhoit Springs last Sunday. Henry, Albert and Fred Frank and families were present also a number of outside friends and relatives. There were about forty people present. Walter M. Pierce addressed the gathering in the afternoon.

L. D. Waterman, of Lyons, while working with a surveying party near his home on Monday

FRUIT JARS

Mason and Economy Jars, Jar Rubbers and Tops, get your canning supplies now at the

MARKETERIA GROCERY COMPANY

THE STORE THAT UNDERSELLS BECAUSE IT SELLS FOR CASH
General Merchandise

GEM CONFECTIONERY

First Class Confections. High Grade Pure Candies
Fine Cigars and Tobacco

Hot and Cold Fountain Drinks
All Prices and Style Box Candy

J. A. HENDERSHOTT, Proprietor
Stayton, Oregon

Cook in Cool Comfort

We have a large line of the best oil cook stoves on the market in all sizes such as

Perfection and Blue Flame Stoves

These makes are too well known to need description, with one of these stoves you will be able to do your cooking in a cool kitchen had the misfortune to slip while climbing over a barb wire fence and cut a gash in his left thigh about four inches long, severing the arteries. He was brought to town and Dr. Brewer attended to the injury. Mr. Waterman was taken to his home where he is getting along nicely.

LILLY HARDWARE CO.

Subscribe for the Mail.

Last Friday afternoon a group of about 15 ladies from the Kingston church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Daugherty for the purpose of planning for a service flag to be dedicated next Sunday. A committee was appointed and the material purchased for the flag which is now being made.

The Star Theatre is Showing Stars of magnitude this week

Saturdays Program will portray

George Beban

—IN—

"One More American"

Sunday's Program will present

Pauline Frederick

---IN---

"Mrs. Dane's Defense"

A Paramount Picture

STAR THEATRE

Make Everything Go Farther--

THE WAY TO DO IT IS TO SEE THAT EVERYTHING YOU BUY IS GOOD

It Takes More Effort to Make Things Good; a Little More Courage and it May Cost You a Little more Money, But it Pays Every One in the Long Run. That's the Reason Why We Say

BISHOP ALL WOOL SUITS

$20 TO $35

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

$25 TO $40

They're Good; the Makers Make the Effort and Have The Courage to See That They're Good. They Wear Longer Than Cheap Clothes They Make Your Money Go Farther

The only way for us to be sure of quality when you buy is to be sure we have it before we sell. We buy only the best Merchandise and price it right. If you aren't satisfied you get your money back.

MEN'S ARMY SHOES $5 to $8

SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE

SALEM

OREGON

MEN'S ARMY SHOES $5 to $8