FARM AND CITY LOANS.

If you are paying a high rate of interest, why not refund your loan at a lower rate and more liberal terms. It is not good business to pay a higher rate of interest than the market demands, nor is it good business to keep your surplus funds on time deposits at 3 and 4 per cent per annum when 6 per cent can readily be secured on first Farm Mortgages. If you have money to loan or wish to refund or secure a new one, call or write S. H. HELTZEL, Stayton, Oregon.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Stayton Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a nearby resident who has used them and publicly boils of the benefit derived?

W. W. Manter, retired farmer, S. Thirteenth & Jefferson Sts., Corvallis, Ore., says: "It has been a good many years since I have needed to take a kidney medicine. From past experience I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being a reliable medicine for kidney trouble. I found them to be all that's claimed for them when I was troubled by my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Dr. Manter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Local News Notes

The Wilbur Woolen Mills is advertising a sale to start on Monday, October 14th. There was a mistake made in the date of the sale in last week's Mail. The date read Monday, October 12th and it should have been Monday, October 14th. Mr. Wilbur has some very good bargains to offer the buying public and it will pay you to go to the sale. Remember the date, Monday, October 14th.

H. Lilly, the hardware man, had a funny experience with his Maxwell car, Wednesday. While doing some repairing on the car, he left the lever in the reverse. The self starter failed to work and Mr. Lilly got out to crank the car. When he turned the engine over the car started backwards, and before Mr. Lilly knew what had happened it was headed for the mill race and got there ahead of Mr. Lilly. It required the services of a rope and several men to get the car out. The car was not damaged.

The dance given by Separate Co. "A" last Friday evening was not as largely attended as the first one. The rainy weather was the cause. There was a fairly good sized crowd present and the proceeds amounted to $102.00. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher served the refreshments for the boys and a rising vote of thanks was tendered them at the regular meeting of the Guard Monday night. The dancers claim that the music furnished by Richey's Orchestra, of Salem, was by far the best dance music that has ever been in Stayton.

Henkle-Parker Nuptials

Miss Marie Henkle and Mr. Clinton Parker, of Redne, stole a march on their friends last Thursday and hid themselves to Albany, where they were quietly married.

The bride is well known here, having worked in one of the general stores for some time. She has been managing a store at Redne for Potter & Hill for some time and is also postmistress of that place.

They will reside at Redne where the groom is employed. Thursday evening a reception was tendered the happy couple at the home of Mrs. George Gassner. Those present were: Mrs. G. F. Harold, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Baker and child, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sandner and child, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Dozier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Titus, Mrs. Raleigh Clayton and children, Mrs. Alice Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gassner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chrisman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Titus and family, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Darby, Mrs. Carl Follis, Mrs. Eva Humphreys, Mrs. Mate Titus, Mrs. Bertha McKenzie, Miss Della Harold, Leo Weir, Ralph and Arthur Kelly, Tony and Alex Minn, Clarence Mertz, Lons Titus and Mike Gassner.

At a late hour refreshments were served and after singing a few songs the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Parker many happy and prosperous years of married life.

School Notes

On Thursday night, Oct. 3, the Senior class had their opening party for the school year. A "glorious" outside social had been planned, but owing to the weather the affair was held in the gymnasium. All the members of the class, for whom it was possible to attend, were there, for well they have come to know, that when one of their socials are missed, they have by no means missed a small affair.

School Notes

A siege of illness seems to have attacked the teachers and during the past two weeks several of them have had to give up their work for a few days. Miss Schifferer was absent on Wednesday of last week, Beryl McLaughlin taking charge of her classes. Miss Miller was not able to be in school Thursday morning, and Friday Mrs. Creech became ill. She was confined to her home until Wednesday of this week, Mrs. George Brown substituting in her place. Mrs. Lau has recovered from her attack of the mumps and is able to be with us again.

The members of the school board made a trip to Salem Saturday to secure a deferred classification for Mr. Weeks until June of next year. Mr. Weeks had been placed in Class 1 by the draft board and had received his summons to appear in Salem Sunday for examination. After the examination Sunday, Mr. Weeks was told that he would be placed in the limited service group, but was not told when he might be called.

AMERICAN IS NOT SONGSTER

Seems That Real Musical Instinct Has Yet to Be Awakened in the United States.

The last quarter of a century the general feeling has spread abroad that America was quite a musical nation, and it is true that in the large cities of the eastern seaboard and quite far into the middle West there is a good deal of listening to music in the form of opera and concerts, given, for the most part, by imported musicians; but when we reach the great heart of the country we find that the natural instincts of the people are almost entirely starved, or at any rate, very poorly nourished. For a musical nation is not one which merely listens to music made by others, any more than a people is athletic if, instead of exercising themselves, they watch others indulge in gymnastics.

A musical people is one which considers music such an indispensable food and tonic for their own spirits and imaginations that they sing and play in every activity of daily life just as freely and naturally as they laugh and speak. For many centuries this has been true of all the great European nations—the Italians, French, Scotch, Irish, Scandinavians, Russians and others—and the result is the great body of folk song and folk dance which is the priceless heritage of all these nations.

Just why the American has not yet become a singing animal (as Aristotle said everyone was a social animal) is a difficult matter to explain, although, doubtless, if sufficient time were taken, reasonable causes might be suggested; but, at any rate, it is a fact. Surely one of the most direct products of this war will be the bringing home to the whole body politic of the value of music, for by means of the stress of war which is bringing the whole country together, a love of music may be carried into the most remote parts of the country.

Good regimental bands have always furnished one of the most sympathetic bonds between the body politic and the government of any given country, and we earnestly hope that more and more, both during the war and after it, we shall have in America a number of such bands which will consider it their pleasure and duty to play at all public and patriotic meetings, especially on national holidays, thus impressing upon all citizens the stimulating effect of martial music.

In a number of the camps in the middle West and in Texas we were told by officers and song leaders that there were drafted men who had come in from remote towns and settlements who had never seen any musical instruments, such as a pianoforte and violin, and who had no idea that men could make pleasing sounds with their vocal organs in connection with the uttering of words.

Economical Husband.

The conversation in the lobby of a Washington hotel turned to a subject of war-time economy when a fitting anecdote was related by Congressman Porter H. Dale of Vermont.

Recently the Browns moved into a new house, and not liking the wallpaper in the dining room, Mrs. Brown decided to have it repapered at her own expense. The work was done while Brown was at the office.

"I want you to look at the dining room, Jimmy," said little wife when the old man returned at the dinner hour and was proudly led into that apartment. "How do you like it?"

"I like the paper all right," replied Brown, just a little emotionally, "but why in the world did you use paste in putting it on?"

"Paste!" was the wondering rejoinder of the good woman. "How else could I have put it on?"

"You should have put it on with tacks," declared the economical husband. "You don't suppose we are going to live in this house forever, do you?"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Munition Brass to Cost Less.

Perfection of a new type of electric melting furnace that will reduce materially the cost of making brass for munitions, devised by H. W. Gillett, a government chemist, was announced by the bureau of mines. Patents have been assigned to Secretary of the Interior Lane as trustee.

Lynn Neal is at present convalescing under doctor's orders at his home near Silver Creek Falls. Lynn cut one of his feet severely just about the time school began. When he became better he attempted to begin school on crutches, but found it impossible. We hope that he will soon be able to be with us again. He holds the positions of Sec. Treas. of the Student Body, Athletic Manager, and the Senior member to the Executive Committee of the S. B., which all goes to show that he is very popular.

The annual reception to the Freshmen was given on Monday night, October 7, in the school gymnasium. This reception is for the purpose of welcoming the Freshmen into the high school and wishing them to become one of us in all we undertake for the good of the school.

Christ Nietling has been obliged to discontinue his school work for a month or two, owing to the fact that he must assist his father in the urgent farm work.

One of the students is in receipt of a letter from Leo Klecker from San Diego, California. He writes concerning life in the navy and in California. He says that at present it is very, very warm and that the worst of it all is that the entire camp is under quarantine for Spanish influenza and no one is allowed to leave. They therefore miss their daily swim in the ocean. Leo says he thinks nothing of swimming two miles in that body of water. He is in the U. S. N. Band and is one of 11 playing cornet. Since the quarantine they have been kept very busy entertaining the rest of the camp by giving concerts, etc.
