Mrs. Pencost was taken to Salem hospital Monday evening by Dr. Hobson, where she was operated on for gall stones. She stood the operation in fine shape and is on the road to recovery.

W. F. Goodman, better known here as Fitz, is reported sick at the hospital at Pendleton, Ore., with typhoid fever. He has been confined to bed for the past three weeks.

Dick Brown, of Lyons, was here Tuesday, coming down to get some help in filling out his Questionnaire. Dick says it is no small job to fill out one of the blanks and he wanted to be sure that he made no mistakes.

"He who fights and runs away May live to fight another day."

German militarism is now "fighting and running away," and in any peace settlement we must be careful that it is deprived of all power to "fight another day."

W. F. Blakely received a message last Friday from his son Ray, who is working at Eugene, that his youngest child "Beverly," had died on the 11th. No further word as to when the funeral will be held has been received up to this writing.

The friends of this paper will please hand us in news items when they are fresh. We prefer not to publish a birth after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over or the death of a man after his widow is married again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ringo and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Faulk, of Riekreath, motored to Hood River last Friday. Saturday they went through the orchards of that district. The party returned Sunday and report the roads in fair condition.

Mrs. E. D. Alexander was called to Junction City Wednesday night last week by a telephone message announcing the serious illness of her son-in-law, W. C. Parry. With W. F. Follis she left at 10 p. m. for that place, arriving at about 2 a. m. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander returned home Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Parry and little son, who will make their home in Stayton.

The Stayton Red Cross has a call from Fort Canby for dish towels. Anyone having towels made of flour or sugar sacks, will be helping the boys by donating them. They can be left at Starr's store. They should be hemmed.

Do you know that an editor or a reporter for a newspaper can stop and ask a hundred persons "What is the news?" And ninety out of the hundred will reply, "Nothing special." And yet fifty out of that number know something that if not found in the next paper will astonish them greatly and disappoint them more, and perhaps make them madder than hornets. Don't be afraid to let the newspaper man know it.

Pvt. LeRoy Stewart spent last Sunday with home folks. We sure enjoyed having LeRoy home even for so short a time. He thinks we have nothing on him, as he said, "Gee, its great to be home, but folks I'm not one bit sorry I'm in the army and surely would be disappointed if I could not be with the other boys. Camp Lewis is a great place, one is learning something new all the time." Leroy also said, "Some day we are going to kill the kaiser. Some day they will find him dead. Then we will get the other pup, who helped to stir the kaiser up and spend the rest of our days in peace."

Red Cross Flower Sale

The ladies of the Red Cross are holding a flower sale at Starr's store. There are a number of very pretty potted plants on display, which have been donated by, Miss Potoriff, and Mrs. Gassner. These plants will make very nice Xmas presents. Better make your selection early.
