FARM AND CITY LOANS.

If you are paying a high rate of interest, why not refund your loan at a lower rate and more liberal terms. It is not good business to pay a higher rate of interest than the market demands, nor is it good business to keep your surplus funds on time deposits at 3 and 4 per cent per annum when 6 per cent can readily be secured on first Farm Mortgages. If you have money to loan or wish to refund or secure a new one, call or write S. H. HELTZEL, Stayton, Oregon.

What's a Battery Expert?

Expert: "One who has special skill, experience or knowledge."
Every Willard expert must have all three when it comes to handling batteries.
Our experience immediately tells us where your battery troubles lie; our knowledge tells you what needs to be done; and our skill insures a workmanlike job.
We're at your service.
We want to tell you about Threaded Rubber, too, and give you a copy of the booklet, "A Mark with a Meaning for You."

WEY WOMEN SUFFER

Many Stayton Women are Learning the Cause

Women often suffer not knowing the cause.

Backache, headaches, dizziness, nervousness.
Irregular urinary passages, weakness, languor—
Each torture of itself.
Together hint at weak kidneys.
Strike at the root—get to the cause. Quickly help the kidneys if they need it.

No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills.
Here's convincing testimony from this locality.

Mrs. E. A. Bodine, 418 E. Fifth St. Albany, Ore., says: "I have known the value of Doan's Kidney Pills for a number of years and couldn't recommend a more reliable medicine for backache and kidney trouble. I am subject to backache and irregular action of my kidneys once in a great while and a such times I take Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days. They never fail to stop the misery in my back and put my kidneys in good order."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bodine had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Clinton, Mo.—James Monroe Kaiser would change his name. He petitioned the circuit court here for permission to change his name, asserting that the name of "Kaiser" has become so damned odious in this country that no loyal American should longer be required to bear it.
Judge Calvert, in receiving the petition, stated that he had noticed the language used, but considered it "merely emphatic and entirely justifiable."

Small Girl, Japanese Tooter and the Conductor

THERE is a new toy—made in Japan—which looks like a lead pencil and sounds like a horn. Everybody—leaving out old man Scrooge—accepts a Christmas horn as a forgivable crime, but it was perfectly obvious that every passenger on the car wanted to choke off a small girl who tooted her way from Capitol Hill to Center market the other forenoon. Her presumable mother bore the affliction with a chronic patience characteristic of parents who are too mistakenly fond to make their youngsters believe, but the passengers around were not so placidly resigned. Two jolly, commonplace women, each loaded with empty baskets and cord bags, had things to say on the subject, and they said them good and loud; and they said them good and loud: "I like kids all right, but if that young one belonged to me I'd spank her so hard that—"

"What can you expect with a mother like that?"

The two marketers got out at Seventh street and the horn virtuoso slipped into a window seat one of them had vacated and sounded a farewell toot of jubilation. It was also what you might call her swan song, for the conductor, goaded to intervention, politely invited the young miss to consider her recital at an end.

To the gaspy astonishment of everybody around—and just to show that it takes all sorts of people to make up a car crowd—a fat, little old body in badly laundered white, topped with a rose pink sweater, charged a lance in behalf of the breaker of the peace.

"Let the child play if she wanster! Don't you know that the angels in heaven play horns? If you don't, I can show you a picture of little winged cherubs blowing gold—"

"That's all right, lady. I haven't got a thing to do with running heaven, but I'm expected to look after this car."

"Young man, you think you're mighty smart, don't you? But let me tell you something. If you was to see that picture—"

"I know all about 'em, lady. Little angels, all heads and wings, and not a lung in the lot to blow with."

Somebody chuckled and the small girl discarded the horn thing to consider the conductor with lavish smiles—of the teeth-shedding variety. And all was peace.

Little Incident in a Washington Antique Shop

MOST people are honest, but it is the exception that gives pungency to the rule. One man, for one instance, keeps medieval junk. Among his customers the other afternoon was a woman who wanted a table, something in Chippendale to match a whatnot. The proprietor was starting off to bring forth Chippendale when the woman, seeing a chair convenient, sat down.

Spindle-legged furniture is artistic but treacherous, as the lady should have remembered before she weighted her overstuffed too, too solid et cetera, on spidery legs that cracked the instant she let herself go.

The tag price of the chair was something awful—though as the proprietor protested what could you expect of a treasure that had had its honored place in an Italian palace for over two hundred years, but if the lady would pay $20 for the damage she had done—

And then another customer who had been looking the chair over stepped into the situation.

"I happen to be in the business myself and know the exact value of this chair. Without going into embarrassing particulars, let me suggest, madam, that you pay this man 15 cents for his time and trouble in mending it; and if you hear any more from him let me know and I'll go into court myself with a charge of false pretenses. It is fraud of this sort, sir, that ruins any trade. Better come out with me, madam, and the next time you want antiques take an expert along."

No Mystery in Meat

Some things are so simple that they have to be explained again and again. When things are obvious, people keep looking for mysteries behind them.

So it is with the packing business. The mere size of Swift & Company confuses many. Because their imaginations are not geared up to scale, they believe there must be magic in it somewhere—some weird power.

Swift & Company is just like any other manufacturing business run by human beings like yourself; it takes in raw material on the one hand and turns out a finished product on the other.

Swift & Company keeps down the "spread," or the expense absorbed between raw and finished material, to as low a figure as possible. (If it didn't it would be put out of business by others who do.)

How much Swift & Company pays for the raw material, and how much it gets for the finished product, depends upon conditions which Swift & Company does not control.

It depends entirely upon how much people want the finished product, and how much raw material there is available to make it from.

The profits of Swift & Company amount to less than one cent per pound on all meats and by-products—less than one-fourth of a cent on beef.
