MISUNDERSTANDING CLEARED UP

A misunderstanding relative to the canteen work of the Y. M. C. A. has been cleared up by the War Department, which issued the following:

"Matter of prices asked by Young Men's Christian Association for its canteens sold in canteens overseas already investigated by war department and condition is being remedied. The Young Men's Christian Association was originally asked by General Pershing to run the canteens for the army on a cost basis. In order to do this it had to reckon in price fixing such overhead charges as transportation charges and marine insurance so that prices were much higher than in this country.

"The Young Men's Christian Association made no profits, but lost thousands of dollars. Arrangements now made will enable them to obtain supplies from sources that will reduce overhead charges and keep prices down."

UNITED WAR WORK OFFICERS

State committee officers for the United War Work Campaign are: W. M. Ladd, chairman; O. W. Davidson, director; John W. Kelley, and Mrs. William H. Marshall, associates; director publicity, Ira F. Powers; speakers and entertainers' bureau, J. W. Day; students, John H. Rudd; victory boys' and girls' feature, Walter A. Goss.

Chairmen of the seven allied organizations:

Y. M. C. A., Mr. Ladd; Y. W. C. A., Mrs. William MacMaster; War Camp Community Service, Emery Olmstead; American Library Association, W. L. Brewster; Knights of Columbus, Frank J. Lonergan; Salvation Army, O. C. Kortzmeier; Jewish Welfare Board, Ben Selling.

John R. Mott, of New York, is director-in-chief and Lyman L. Pierce, of San Francisco, is director of the Western Department, embracing eight states, including Oregon.

Huts for Nurses.

Huts for nurses are maintained by the Y. W. C. A. at the base hospitals in France. To extend this work a portion of the United War Work funds to be raised in November will be used.

PERSHING'S "DO WITHOUT IT" CLUBS

Organization of "do without it" clubs in America, as a means of aiding the United War Work campaign, which open November 11, was recommended by James F. Pershing, brother of General Pershing, in an address delivered recently in Portland in behalf of the drive. He urged the American people to make some sacrifices in order to help "carry on" the great undertaking that is to furnish money for war work in the battle zone during the coming year. A great percentage of American people, he said, do not know from any sacrifices made thus far, that a war is in progress. Relaxation of activities because of peace proposals, he declared, should not be tolerated, and asked people of the country to throw their whole energy and co-operation behind this latest drive for securing funds for the seven big war-working agencies consolidated in the campaign.

WAR EMERGENCY SHOE SALE

CONTINUES ALL THIS WEEK

The Ban on Holding Meetings on Account of the "Influ" has been Declared Off by the Health Board, but the

BAN ON HIGH PROFITS GOES ON

Owing to the extraordinary conditions arising from the war and the "influ" epidemic trade has been quiet for the past two or three weeks, but our big stock of shoes has been coming in right along, consequently our shelves are crowded and bills are coming too, so to relieve both situations we will put a BAN ON HIGH PRICES and make EXTRA INDUCEMENTS to shoe buyers. Next year the government limits the colors to black, dark brown and white, but for the present Mr. Baruch of the war industries board says, "It is a patriotic duty to buy the fancy greys and combinations of colors that are already in the stores," and there is no limit to what you shall buy if it is already made.

Our pledge to our government is: We, in the spirit of loyalty and patriotic service to our government in meeting all of the exigencies of the war, as applied to its prosecution and service of the people, we pledge ourselves to follow all the restrictions and regulations to the utmost.--Signed, THE BOOTERY, by J. B. Littler, Manager.

As it was before, our prices on all grades have been lower than the government regulations. But in addition, for this sale we will make these

DECIDED BY DICE

Cooks Roll Bones to See Which One Gets "Leave."

Two cooks just arrived at Camp Wadsworth wanted permission to visit town, but Captain Field ruled that only one could be excused. In vain one pleaded he "hed or gal in town and wuz bleeged to see her." The other vehemently objected that he "hed no gal and was bleeged to git one."

"Either of you got any bones," suggested the captain. Both produced dice. "Shoot," said the officer, and the game was on.

The dispute settled, Captain Field commanded the dice, saying: "If I ever hear of either of you gambling again I will send you to the stockade."

Keel Laid in Ten Seconds.

The national record for laying a wooden ship's keel is claimed by the Grays Harbor Motorship corporation's crew at Aberdeen, Wash., which recently laid a keel in ten seconds. The previous record was 11 seconds. The new record was made on a ship upon which an attempt will be made to beat the national wooden ship launching record.

BRITISH LITERARY ENVOY

Lord Charnwood, traveler, writer and home rule advocate, has come to this country at the invitation of the Illinois centennial committee. An author of a book on Abraham Lincoln, the British peer delivered a lecture October 5 on the martyred president at the celebration in Springfield.

Lord Charnwood's trip is of more than usual importance, for he is chairman of a subcommittee of the committee for promoting an intellectual entente among the allied and friendly countries, recently formed by the Royal Society of Literature. Lord Charnwood's committee was formed for American relations. He will remain until next January.

A liberal, a supporter of Gladstone and home rule, an ardent admirer of Lincoln and a student of his life and times, the British peer is peculiarly fitted to promote mutual understanding and sympathy between his country and the United States. Lord Charnwood, for some years before the war an earnest advocate of a national and compulsory system of military training, has since the outbreak of hostilities had much to do, first with voluntary enlistment, and later with the administration of the military service acts.

KANSAS CITY.—The glare of the arc light at Twelfth and Charlotte streets four years ago disclosed a small boy seated on the curb. His chubby fists grasped a revolver, his fingers tugging at the trigger. The officers heard a childish cry "Up hands--beetles!"

The boy smiled as a patrolman jerked him to his feet. Ernest Harwick, seven years old, living at 620 East Twelfth street, with his "mamma and step-papa," said he "wanted to be a hold-up man." Since then the boy has been known as "Ernie, the Bug Shooter."

In 1914 he stole a coat belonging to a woman neighbor. In 1915 Ernest was paroled from the McCune Home. Then Ernest was arrested for stealing a box of candy. A month later he took three packages of tea from a grocer. And in another month he robbed a creamery company of several butter packages. His parole was revoked, but he escaped from the home.

Ernest pleaded guilty the other day to robbing a jewelry store, a saloon and a cigar store. He was assisted by two other boys, Paul E. Buck, nine years old, 1016 Locust street, and James Swearingen, nine years old, 4342 West Prospect place. In a "play house" in the back yard of 816 Locust street the police recovered most of the stolen articles.

"I'm the oldest--eleven years," Ernest told the judge. "I've got more sense than they. Send me to jail, Judge, but don't be hard on Jimmie and Paul--they ain't to blame."

Judge Southern sentenced Ernest to the McCune Home for four years. Jimmie and Paul were paroled to their mothers.

"Ernest," said Mrs. Swearingen, "Mrs. Buck and I want to thank you--"

"Gwan," said "Ernie."
