Ike always thought

—a man was foolish to buy plug of the Gravely class when he could get a big plug of ordinary tobacco for the same money. But one day Bill gave him a chew of Gravely—just two or three small squares.
Then Ike got the pure, satisfying Gravely taste. It lasted so long, you can't tell him nowadays that it costs him anything extra to chew Real Gravely.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost his heart is still wayward and his will rebellious? Home would not would walk even in his father's fields and in his father's house, as an alien, a foreigner. And so all messengers would be in vain.

Even a fathers love can do no more than wait patiently and prayerfully, in hopes that a better spirit may yet come over him, and that some rebound of feeling may bring him home a humble penitent. The change comes at last, and the slow morning dawns.
When the photographer wishes to develop the picture that is hidden in the film of the sensitive plate, he carries it to a darkened room, and bathed in the developing solution the latest image gradually appears, even to the minutest details.
It was so here, for when in his extremest need, with the pinch of a fearful hunger upon him, and the felt darkness of a painful isolation surrounding him, there came into the prodigal's soul a sweet picture of the far-away home, the home to which might still have been his but for his wantonness, but which is his now only in memory. He feels that "the way of the transgressor is hard."

There is more Catarrah in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrah is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrah Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrah Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Why Meat Prices Vary
in Different Stores

Prime steers.....	$19.90@20.35
Good to choice steers.....	17.90@19.35
Common to medium steers.....	16.00@19.30
Yearlings, fair to fancy.....	8.25@15.35
Fat cows and heifers.....	7.25@8.25
Canning cows and heifers.....	6.50@12.50
5-lbs. pigs to meet.....	6.75@15.75
Four to fancy calves.....	10.00@15.50
Western range steers.....	10.00@15.50

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt.
—the lowest at $6.50 and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Because the meat from different animals varies greatly in quality and weight.

Although the quotations shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

- 1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.
- 2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.
- 3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.

Slang in the Pulpit.
A striking instance of the force of one of America's leading preachers.
The speaker, a doctor of divinity, was addressing a Canadian audience on Uncle Sam's efforts. In a 20-minute talk there occurred, among others, these "gems": "We are on this job to the finish. We are prepared to fight till hell itself freezes over, and if Germany isn't beat then we'll buy skates and get after her on the ice." "This kaiser is the biggest duplex, double-action, high-powered liar in history.
He told his people the Americans could never get to France. Waal, he and his people have got another guess coming."
