

LOCAL NEWS

Dance tomorrow night. Stanley Starr and wife were Portland visitors this week. Remember the play and dance at Sublimity tomorrow night.

John Thoma and wife made a recent business trip to Portland. Miss Verda Hamman was again with home folks over the recent week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schaefer made a business trip to Salem, Monday.

Big play and dance at C. F. hall in Sublimity tomorrow night.

Miss Agnes Kirsch visited at the John Lulay home Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lilly were Salem visitors Tuesday of this week.

Winnie Tate, from the Waldo Hills, was visiting friends in Stayton Tuesday.

Mrs. Ethel Gooman and children visited with friends in Stayton last Monday.

Mrs. V. A. Goode was in charge of the St. r store this week for a few days.

Mrs. J. M. Ringo has as her guest this week her sister, Mrs. J. R. Fawk of Rickreal.

Lawrence Seigmund and sister Marta, are spending the week at the C. A. Luthy home.

Jake Worms' this week purchased the old John Heater place northeast of Stayton.

Ed Jacobs, who is working at the Twir' Oaks farm, was in town for a short time Tuesday.

The Misses Agnes Kirsch and Mary Lulay were callers at the Lambrecht home last Saturday.

Albert Lulay captured a finny prize Sunday. It was fourteen inches long and was sure some fish.

LeRoy Steward is among the returned soldier boys. He is at the home of his parents, east of Stayton.

Dr. Brewer reports the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Russell, of Shelburn, February 22.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy and their daughter Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Mack, drove to Salem last Thursday.

Mrs. H. Hohn has been enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Carter, of Tonasket, Washington.

The Murphy-Gardner Lumber Company has again resumed operations after having been temporarily closed for repairs.

Messrs. M. L. Brown and W. M. Mulkey, of Scio, attended the installation ceremonies of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Tuesday evening.

A letter from Max Hill locates him in New York where he is doing guard duty for Uncle Sam. Max has been in the service for the past ten months.

There will be services in the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening at the usual hour. The regular pastor will occupy the pulpit.

Mrs. McIntyre has been quite seriously ill for the past few days. Her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Jones of Lebanon, has been with her during her illness.

Loomis Rossell, who has been stationed at Camp Lewis, has received his discharge from the U. S. service and is now visiting friends and relatives in Stayton.

P. Eskew, better known as "Red," returned from Kentucky the first of the week, where he has been with the colors for the past eight months, in the medical corp.

Fred Luthy, well known here and a resident of Stayton some 30 years ago, died at Portland Monday following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Luthy is an uncle of C. A. Luthy.

Word has been received from Marshfield that L. L. Thomas, formerly of Stayton, has been selected as president of the Business Men's Club of that thriving city. Congratulations.

Matt Mauer had the misfortune last Tuesday, while loading ties for George Green near Kingston, to drive a pick axe through one of his hands. Dr. Beauchamp dressed the very painful injury.

A land deal was made here this week in which Rudolph Kusy sold his 150-acre farm between here and West Stayton to Joe Hendricks. The consideration was in the neighborhood of $15,000. The deal was handled by George Smith, of Stayton.

John P. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark of Stayton, has returned from England, where he has been as an instructor in bayonet fighting. Mr. Clark, who has been in the service for three years with the Canadian forces in the 129th brass band, went overseas in August 1916, and returned December 2, 1918.

Street Cominsioner Smith has been busy this week with teams and men hauling gravel and placing it on the street that runs from Sloper's drug store past the saw mill. This fills a long felt want as the road has been almost impassable all winter. The expenses the work was paid by popular subscription.

Edward Schroeder whose home is near Stayton in Linn county, has just returned from overseas, where he spent about thirty days in the trenches and on the firing line. Mr. Schroeder left this country with Company L, 125th Infantry on the 7th of August, 1918, and landed back in New York on December 24. He was never wounded, though he went through some very exciting and thrilling battles, and the experiences he has been relating to home folks are indeed very interesting.

Dare Sloper has received a letter from his brother Guy, who is now an M. P. doing guard duty in Washington, D. C. He is still with the 63rd Infantry, having been transferred there from Camp Meade, Maryland. He writes that he cannot understand just why men from the 63rd were put on this patrol duty, for it is usually the work that is performed by Marines, unless it is because of their excellent reputation as a military unit. He doesn't know when he will be mustered out but thinks he may be discharged within a month.

Sergeant Oliver A. Forrette, who left Stayton on June 1st of last year, returned to his home here last Wednesday, after being eight months in the service of Uncle Sam. Oliver was stationed first at Camp Presidio, California, but was later transferred to Camp Meade, Maryland, where he has been until receiving his honorable discharge. His brother, Corporal Edwin N. Forrette, who went from here with him, is still with the 63rd Infantry, but was sent from Camp Meade to a camp on Long Island, New York. Oliver was at one time with the 63rd but was transferred to the 72nd infantry.

A public joint installation of Stayton Lodge No. 64 and Eve Rebekah Lodge No. 92 E. O. F. was held Tuesday evening, February 25, 1919, and the following officers were installed in their respective chairs: Grant Murphy, Past Grand; Albert Pancoast, N. G.; Stanley Starr, V. G.; W. H. Hobson, Secretary; J. W. Mayo, Treasurer; O. E. Gardner, Warden; H. A. Beauchamp, Conductor; B. A. Schaeffer, R. S. to N. G.; Archie Casper, L. S. to N. G. J. P. Davis, Chaplain; L. Bailey, L. G.; E. Roy, O. G.; J. R. Gardner, L. S. S.; V. Dare Sloper, R. S. S.; J. M. Ringo, R. S. V. G.; T. C. Crabtree, L. S. V. G.

REBEKAH OFFICERS
Mrs. Lulu R. Lilly, P. G.; Mrs. Nina J. Ringo, N. G.; Mrs. Edna Sloper, V. G.; Mrs. Marguerite Schaefer, Secretary; Mrs. Emily Starr, Treasurer; Mrs. E. Sloper, Warden; Mrs. Maude Beauchamp, Conductress; Miss Ella Williams, R. S. N. G.; Mrs. Anna Hobson, L. S. N. G.; Mrs. Marcia Mayo, Chaplain; Mrs. Rose Follis, L. G.; Mrs. Fannie Crabtree, O. G.; Mrs. Nora Gardner, R. S. to V. G. Mrs. Minnie Caspell, L. S. V. G. She installing officers for the Odd Fellows were W. A. Weddle, D. D.; W. Hobson, G. M.; and J. R. Gardner, W. M. Mulkey, B. A. Schaeffer and Horace Lilly. The installing officers for the Rebekahs were Miss Ella Williams, D. D.; Mrs. Fannie Crabtree, G. M.; and Mrs. Anna Hobson, Mrs. Marilla Gardner; Mrs. E. Wilbur and Mrs. M. Beauchamp. The social committee consisting of Mrs. Maude Beauchamp, Mrs. Rose Follis, Mrs. Lulu Lilly and Mrs. Nora Gardner served refreshments to the members and their friends. Several out-of-town members were present.

Man Betrays Himself By Chance Expression

For a man to be betrayed by a chance expression after he has eluded the police for 11 months,

SLOPER'S DRUG STORE

is the Exclusive Agent for Stayton and Surrounding Country for the International Stock Food Products A Complete Line of Fresh Stock

ALSO DEALER IN THE STANDARDIZED KRESO DIP FOR ALL LIVE STOCK AND POULTRY

Used by the U. S. Government

8 ounce cans to 5 gallon cans. Also in Bulk

SLOPER'S DRUG STORE

Stayton, Oregon

COFFEE Coffee COFFEE

We Can Supply Your Wants in Coffee

We carry the following brands:

Royal Club Great American Golden Gate Golden West Crescent 3-4-1 Crescent 99 Crescent 44 Schilling's Best and 1,000 pounds of coffee in bulk at prices Lower Than Wholesale Cost Today

Invest Your Money in Coffee NOW and save 50 per cent on your investment

OUR 16 YEARS EXPERIENCE ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE

W. F. Klecker

and when he is just about to win a bet of $20,000—this is the curious predicament in which George MacFarland, played by Wallace Reid, in "Believe Me, Xantippe," finds himself. And the expression was the one used for the title of the play "Believe Me, Xantippe." MacFarland makes the slip, and it is a pretty girl who finds him out, but later it is the same pretty girl who saves him.

The story, which is one of the most enthralling screen romances shown here in a long time, will be the attraction at the Star theatre, Saturday night, March 1. It is a Paramount picture, and Wallace Reid and Ann Little do some excellent acting in the principal roles. They have been provided with excellent support, and the splendid direction the picture received at the hands of Donald Crisp adds a great deal to its attractiveness.

Centenary Campaign

In connection with our Centenary Campaign, next Sunday being the third Sunday, or Laymon's day, the theme for the morning service, which will be in the hands of the minute men, will be Christian Stewardship and Tithing." The theme for the evening service will be "The Scriptural Basis of the Tithe."

W. J. Warren, Pastor.

Methodist Church
Pastor W. J. Warren

Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School 10 a. m. Epworth League 6:30 p. m., Bible class every Wednesday in the parsonage at 7:30 p. m., when we study the International lesson.

QUACK SALEM'S TIRE MAN

United States and Pennsylvania Tires Solid Truck Tires Retreading and Repair Work

NOTE:—The best equipped repair shop this side of Portland. Full Line of Accessories and Oils

219 N. COM'L ST., SALEM, ORE.

THE Star Theatre

Saturdays Program will portray WALLACE REID IN Believe Me, Xantippe

Sunday's Program will present Charles Ray IN The Family Skeleton

STAR THEATRE