Stayton High won a glorious victory over Woodburn High in the best game of the season, last Friday night. The game started with a "snap" and so continued to the end. Woodburn's players soon found that for once they hadn't run up against anything easy and realized that they would have to put forth their utmost efforts to save themselves from a disgracing defeat. However, when the fight did end with only sixteen scores in their favor against twenty in favor of Stayton, we doubt if they even then realized what had happened, since they had come here so very confident of victory.

At this, the last game of the season, the gymnasium was crowded to capacity with spectators. The "rooter's section" was filled with a good lively crowd with lots of "pep." The H. S. girls serpentine the floor during the intermission between the two halves of the game, and also gave several yells and sang their "Graveyard" song for Woodburn. The local boys are to be congratulated on the exceptional good team work which they showed Friday Night. The crowning defeat which they administered Woodburn will live long in the hearts of the S. H. S. students.

Mrs. Lloyd Tegart spent the recent week-end with her husband in Eugene.

The following local teachers attended the Teachers' Institute at Salem last Saturday: Miss Margaret Miller, Mrs. J. F. Lau, Mrs. T. J. Creech, Mrs. Eva Humphreys, Miss Nora Crabtree, Miss Schifferer, Mr. A. O. Weeks and Prof. Grover.

One of the lectures most enjoyed was given by W. C. Gaunt, who was for several years professor here. Another interesting talk was given by Dr. Doney of Willamette University, in which he told of his experiences while in France. Miss DeVore, Critic teacher at Independence, had as her subject "Primary Methods," which was very much enjoyed by the grade teachers.

The high school girls, under the leadership of Mrs. Creech, are going to take up Folk Games. Classes will be held twice each week from 4 o'clock until 4:30. These will be on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. On one afternoon the games will be played in the lower hall of the school building, so that the piano may be used. On the other afternoon the class will be held in the gymnasium.

Senior play practice began last Tuesday evening under the direction of Mrs. Tegart. The play "Lost, A Chaperon" will be presented to the public in the near future. The senior class had hoped to put their play on much sooner, but owing to many difficulties they have been delayed.

The Domestic Art class are going to begin work on their new garments soon. These will be spring dresses.

Mary Tate was absent from school for a few days because of illness.

Last Friday afternoon Miss Schifferer's pupils and Mrs. Humphreys' pupils were invited into Miss Crabtree's room to hear the 8th grade debate and also to see their dialogue. The question for the debate was, Resolved, That country life is more advantageous than city life. Those debating on the affirmative side were: Cleo Weddle, Mary Tate, Louise Rieger, Margaret Hensley. Those on the Negative: Elizabeth Lee, Elizabeth Mulkey, Giles Brown and Gilbert Hamman. The affirmative side was victorious.

The dialogue given was a historic one, "John Smith and Pocahontas." It was very well presented and much enjoyed by all the pupils.

The eighth grade faced a hard struggle when they returned to school after the long close due to the influenza epidemic, but they were well aware of the fact and have put forth their best efforts to complete all the required work before the state examination. Miss Crabtree reports that if they will only keep up this good work she feels confident that they will all be Freshmen in high school next year.

Miss Schifferer's pupils have been doing their landscape drawing in their art work for the past week.

The 7th and 8th grades have been studying the major and minor mode in their music classes.

The 5th grade has taken up fractions in their Arithmetic work and Miss Schifferer reports them doing very good.

The 2nd grade are writing the story of Washington in their language note books. They have also begun their new reader, "The Story Hour."

If You Built a Battery

You wouldn't spend money for plates and acid and battery jars and then fail to protect your job with good insulation.

Then why neglect, when you BUY a battery, to make sure that it's a Bone Dry Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

We carry a full stock of Bone Dry Batteries—and every one of them is as brand new as the day it left the factory. You don't take any risk—either of delay or of getting a battery not in "very sense brand new."

There's an interesting story in the booklet, "196,000 Little Threads." Ask for a copy.
