Extra STAR THEATRE Extra

"Joan the Woman" is the old story known the world over, of the peasant maid who leads the soldiers of France to victory against the English at Orleans, and through her courage and inspiration saves the besieged city. She is betrayed, captured on the way to Campagne by Eric Trent, who loves her, although an enemy. She is thrown into prison and by order of Pierre Caudhon, the bishop, burned in the public square as a witch.
