Birthday Party

Last Sunday evening the Jos. Fisher home was the scene of a merry party, when a party of classmates gathered to wish Norval many happy returns of the day, the occasion being his birthday.

The house was tastefully decorated in the High School colors purple and gold; Scotch Broom and Purple Iris being used as the flowers. On the place cards were painted a yellow basket containing purple flowers and small bouquet favors were given. Punch, Homemade candy, Ice Cream and Birthday Cake were served to the guests, after which they all attended the show.

Get Right With God

Rev. R. Boymer will conduct a Revival meeting in the M. E. Church, beginning on Monday, June 2nd, at 8 p. m. Singing from 7:45 p. m. We will have a piano for the occasion. A free seat and a free hymn book for everybody.

Peter Deidrich says that the new Ford owners the past week are Jos. Zimmerman of Sublimity; Fred Slater of Mill City and M. M. Gassner of Kingston. They all bought touring cars.

The Hamman Stage has changed its schedule this week and is now running on through to Mill City. The Stage now leaves Stayton at 9:45 in the morning and gets back at 5:35 in the evening. The new schedule appears in this week's issue.

Last Saturday the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thoma, Miss Luella, had the misfortune to fall from a small express wagon, breaking her left arm. The injured member is getting along nicely, and will soon be all right again.

Dies Of Heart Failure

Friends of Oscar M. Aplet, of near Lyons in Linn county, were grieved to learn that he had passed away at his home about 3 o'clock last Saturday morning.

He had been suffering from heart disease for some time and had been unable to work, but was seen in town only a few days prior to his sudden death.

Deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aplet of Stayton, his wife and one son, Jesse. At the time of his death he was 45 years old.

The funeral service was held Monday at Lyons and interment was in the Fox Valley Cemetery.

Oregon certainly ranks first in the dairy industry, as is shown by the fact that the Champion Jersey cow of the world is located on the Pickard Brothers farm near Marion. There will be an exhibit given next Friday, May 23, and several members of the Dairymen's Association will be present. Everyone is urged to take a basket lunch and spend the day.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Arrangements are being made whereby all the graduates of Stayton High will be called together at a meeting Saturday evening, May 24, for the purpose of organizing an Alumni Association. This meeting or rather reunion will be held in the I. O. O. F. Hall. Over fifty students and teachers are expected to be present.

The Senior week-end outing to Niagara has been postponed until May 30-31 and June 1st. The bad weather was the cause of this postponing, but the students are really glad for the reason that by the above dates all their school work will have been completed.

John Creech had the misfortune to fall from one of the school swings on Tuesday and injure his back.

Lee Tate was absent from Mrs. Humphrey's room for two days last week. He went to Portland with his parents.

The 3rd and 4th grades now have their art classes at the old period, 2:30 instead of 3. This enables them to leave school at 3 o'clock.

The 1st grade has now finished the Wheeler's reader.

Julia Creech has the honor of being able to say the multiplication tables from the 2's to the 6's in 13 seconds. This is the best record that has ever been made this year in the primary room.

Hilda Marking received a gold star in spelling for her excellent work this month.

Roy Mack still leads in stars for attendance and row 6 leads for clean faces and hands.

A very pretty poster was made by the primary pupils of daffodils cut from paper and then colored.

The second grade has added another original story 'The Tea Party,' to their note books.

The first grade finished the Sloan Reader this week and is now reviewing.

Mr. George Dozier, who recently purchased a farm in the Waldo Hills, has added an adjoining eighty acres to his property.

AUMSVILLE

Miss Eva McClellan of West Stayton, was visiting friends and relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Swank and H. L. Lewis motored to Salem Tuesday to attend the Grand Lodge which is being held at Salem this week.

C. M. Miller and family have moved their household goods to their new home in Turner, formerly owned by Dr. G. A. Massey. Mr. Miller will be engaged in saw mill work at Turner.

Those motoring to Salem this week on business were Chas. Hein and daughter Mrs. G. R. Munkers, May Smith and Mrs. W. C. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bowne attended the John McCormack recital, which was given at Portland May 21.

Those attending the dance at Stayton May 17, were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Anderson, Bland Speer and May Smith.

Little Merle Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin, who has been sick, has recovered and is again attending school.

Chas. Colvin has purchased a Ford.

Miss Ruth Fuson who is nursing in Salem in visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fuson.

Miss Gladys Denhem is suffering with an attack of tonsilitis.

SUBLIMITY SHOTS

Sublimity has again appeared on the map, so here are a few newsy items from the live little town.

The play entitled "The Dust of the Earth" given by the Turner High School at the C. F. Hall, last Friday, was well attended, and all report a good time. The dance which followed was also enjoyed by the young folks.

Joseph Kipp is making some improvements in his pool hall, and in the near future expects to have as good a place as any in the state.

Don't forget the big dance here Friday May 30th at the C. F. Hall. Music by the Talmadge orchestra. Come and enjoy a good hop at Sub.

Improvements are being made on the school grounds here, and with a little patience and hard labor we hope to make this ground one of the neatest and prettiest places in Sublimity.

The Spelling contest which took place at Salem May 17, is a day which will long be remembered by our teachers and pupils for they had the pleasure of bringing home with them three medals. The following were awarded gold medals: Annie Wolf, eighth grade; Hilda Starr seventh grade and Theodore Wolf of the fifth grade.

Don't forget the dance Friday May 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis of Mikalo, Oregon, are visiting with friends and relatives here.

Information reached Salem yesterday of the marriage in Portland Sunday of Norlyn P. Hoff, son of State Treasurer and Mrs. O. P. Hoff, to Miss Minnie Dorothea Alexander of Portland. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Alexander. Mr. Hoff returned only a few weeks ago from service over seas and is now employed in a Portland bank.
