Lost Jewels; Two Honest Women; the "Double-Cross"

LAFAYETTE, IND.—Cecil G. Fowler, banker and hotel owner, took an automobile trip to Chicago the other day. H. H. Dunbar, the hotel manager, went with him. So did Mrs. Fowler. And Mrs. Fowler took her jewelry along with her. Quite a lot of it there was, diamonds and pearls, valued at $10,000.

When the Fowlers and Mr. Dunbar had got enough of Chicago they started home. Mrs. Fowler put her jewelry in her suitcase. She put the suitcase on the back seat beside Mr. Dunbar, saying: "Take good care of it; it's got my jewelry in it." Then she took a front seat.

At Fifty-ninth street and Western avenue, Chicago, Mr. Fowler stopped to put up the side curtains. Some of the curtains were under the rear seat, so as Mr. Dunbar stepped from the machine he lifted out the suitcase containing the jewels and also his own.

When the party had proceeded about ten miles Mrs. Fowler looked back to see if her grip was in the seat. It wasn't. Mr. Fowler drove back without finding the missing grip. The party reported the loss to the police, put an "ad" in the paper and returned to the Chicago hotel to await results.

Out in Chicago Heights there's a nice little row between Mrs. Charles Griese, 1610 Aberdeen street, and Mrs. Hattie Erickson, 2900 Jackson street. "It pays to be honest," says Mrs. Griese. She has been paid $500 for returning Mrs. Fowler's jewelry, which was picked up at Western avenue and Sixty-third street.

"She got the reward and double-crossed me," says Mrs. Erickson. "I found the jewelry and we agreed to divide the reward."

Incidentally, Mrs. Fowler's diamonds and pearls are valued at $500 more than they were.

And Mr. Fowler says the incident is closed.

French soldiers are keeping the French shops busy these days. Souvenirs of France and various regions and cities of France are all the go. Among these souvenirs are brooches bearing the arms of different cities. The head of the famous Lion of Belfort, the statue of Bartholdi, the sculptor who designed the goddess of Liberty, is another favorite. The Lorraine cross has also proved very popular with the Yanks. This symbol has two sets of cross arms instead of one. It appeals particularly to the Americans because of the part which the Yanks played in Lorraine during the war. The Red Cross dog and the lucky white elephant charm are other French souvenirs which the Americans are procuring in large numbers to take back to the States.—From The Spiker, France.

Famous Old Inn Gone.

The city of Augsburg has seen the last of that famous inn, "Drei Mohren," or preferably, in sonorous French, "Hotel des Trois Maures." The Bavarian revolution has demolished it with the famous room and fireplace in which the financier Fugger, to save his life, lit a fire with all those "I. O. U.'s" awkward reminders of a monarch's indebtedness. It was in this hostelry, too, that Marie Antoinette put up on her way to France to become the wife of the dauphin. Over the lintel of the "Trois Maures" were carved the lilies of France in commemoration of the event. Now the inn and the lilies have disappeared in another such cataclysm as swept Marie Antoinette to the guillotine, some hundred and twenty-odd years ago.

Finda Pot of Gold.

Virginia, Ill.—John Severon is showing his friends a pot of gold which fell at his feet out of a foundation near Chandlerville. Severon bought the old Robert Morgan estate north of Chandlerville recently. He was sounding the stone underpinning of the house, built before the Civil war, recently. He dislodged an ancient kettle and it contained 140 $20 gold pieces.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Many Stayton People have a weak part and too often it's the Back

Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back.

Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up day and night. Backache is often from weak kidneys. In such cases a kidney medicine is needed.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Good proof of merit in the following statement.

Mrs. R. W. Forgey, Madison St., then until I had finished four boxes, which cured me of the backache and kidney disorder.

for two or three weeks at a time with my back. My kidneys were out of order and acted irregularly and I got so weak and tired I could hardly drag myself around. Other medicines had very little effect and I was getting worse. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and the first box gave me great relief. I stuck to them until I had finished four boxes, which cured me of the backache and kidney disorder.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Forgey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
