

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. E. Roy is in Portland this week taking in the Rose Festival.

All those new records you've wanted are at Luthy's Jewellery Store.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy and the Forest Mack family motored to Mill City last Sunday.

The Brown-Fetzel saw mill has been closed on account of a gear being striped in the water wheel.

Jim Gardner is among the Staytonites enjoying the Rose Festival in Portland.

Maurice Caldwell, who has employed in Portland, visited for a few days with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesley, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Beedle and Hattie Chance, motored to Corvallis and Philoma Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baker are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bakers parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mendel.

What is Patriotism? See it at the Star Theatre and have a bigger and better understanding of it 'Patriotism.'

Al Ring and George Colby of Lyons were transacting business with Stayton merchants on Monday of this week.

P. E. Hirsziefen of Portland recently spent a few days here visiting with his mother and also at the at the J. F. Mielke home.

"The Man From Funeral Range" will be in Stayton June 21st. We are wondering what his business in town will be.

The J. F. Mielk family enjoyed an over-Sunday visit from Miss Minnie Poley and her mother and sister, all from Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lau and son of Fox Valley spent several days visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Carl Ruble has gone to Portland where he will be employed until harvest time when he intends to go to the eastern Oregon harvest fields.

Bessie Barriscale the little Red Cross nurse in Patriotism sure carries away her part to the satisfaction of all who have seen her in this play to be shown at the Star Theatre Sunday June 15.

Mrs. E. C. Lau has returned from a several months visit with her daughter and family near Kelso, Washington. Her little grandson Frederic, accompanied her home.

Hear "Beautiful Ohio," "Only Blowing Bubbles," "That Wonderful Mother of Mine" on the Golden-Throated Claxtanolas and the new Columbias at Luthy's Jewellery Store.

Miss Nora Cavin was recently called to Mill City by the serious illness of her grandmother. Nora is still in Mill City owing to the fact that her grandmother is still very ill.

Miss Clara Mielke left for Portland Wednesday morning. After taking in the Rose Festival she will leave Portland for Gearhart where she will remain for the summer.

Do you read the Salem Woolen Mill Stores ads? They are money savers.

Dorothy SATURDAY Dalton

Vive La France

Hole In the Wall-Comedy

Henry Lazinka, Jr. of Pendleton spent the forepart of this week visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesley. Mr. Lazinka has just completed a term at the O. A. C. and returned to the home ranch to assist in looking after his father's cattle interests.

Mrs. Chas. Cladek is spending the week in Portland taking in the Rose Festival and visiting her people.

All those new records you've wanted are at Luthy's Jewellery store.

C. F. Grover and family left this week for Clackstine where the Prof. will have charge of the schools there.

In buying your boys fall suit, we know of nothing better than one of Bishop's Fabrics at the Salem-Woolen Mills Store.

The dance that was to have been held Saturday evening in the Streff building has been postponed to some future date.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirsch and children arrived from Criterion, Oregon last Thursday and are visiting with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ringo have adopted a baby girl from Portland. The new baby was only four days old when adopted. It has come to stay in the Ringo household.

Little Roy Mack fell on Monday of this week and dislocated his elbow. He was taken to Dr. Beauchamp and the injury was repaired. The little fellow is getting along nicely.

Miss Caryl Ruble has gone to Portland where she has accepted a position as stenographer in the Oregonian building. Caryl is to be congratulated upon receiving this good position as she has a almost unlimited chance to work her way up higher and higher.

J. P. Wilbur has been in Portland this week where he attended the wool auction and we notice in the report of the sale that Mr. Wilbur purchased 24,573 pounds of wool at 50c and 14,042 pounds at 42c, making a total of 38,615 pounds. It took a nice little bunch of money to make the deal too.

Douglas Fairbanks is assistant cashier in a town bank. His work? O' caring for the pet canary who gets away one day, see Douglas Fairbanks in his effort to capture it in, "He Comes Up Smiling" at the Star Theatre Wednesday, June 18th.

Quite a number of Stayton people went to Sublimity last Tuesday night to be present at the graduating exercises of the Sublimity schools and also to see the play that was put on by the Dramatic Club of that town.

Miss Rae Glover who has been attending school here and staying her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lambert, went to Salem Tuesday morning. From there she intends to go to Portland where she will be for the summer.

To die as a German spy! She who loved France more than life. Yet who would believe her against her hun uniform and the tell-tale papers? The firing squad awaited the command—what would save her? Just one of the tense moments that fills "Vive La Franc" and keep your excitement at a fever heat all through this great war drama.

L. A. Thomas purchased 13 hogs from Frank Frazer, of Silver Creek, last week. The price paid was $714. Some people who have heard the price paid for these hogs are not of the kind that believe a story like this. We are sure of the price and as Mr. Frazer says: "It pays to raise good hogs."

STAR SUNDAY Theatre

Patriotism

I'm On My Way-Comedy

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hildreth of Crawfordsville was called to Stayton Tuesday to care for their daughter, Hattie Chance, who took suddenly ill with a severe case of tonsolitis Monday. At present the patient is improving.

A large number of our citizens are in Portland this week looking at the flying machines and resting their necks on the tall buildings.

Did you ever love your little canary out of the cage? Douglas Fairbanks did and the worst of it was the bird belonged to the boss who would throw eight fits if it's valet come back empty handed. That is only the beginning of the story. See Douglas Fairbanks in "He Comes Up Smiling."

STAR WEDNESDAY Theatre

Comes Up Smiling

How's Your Husband? Comedy

Ernest Denny who has been in close touch with the officials of the proposed railway from Mt. Angel to Stayton, was called to Portland last week to confer with the head men. Ernest has not much to say right now but in all probability the road will be built now that the war is over. Here's hop'in and let 'er COME.

The 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zuber of Sublimity, died Tuesday and was buried Wednesday from the Catholic church with Rev. Father Laineck officiating. The little fellow was sick only a short time.

There is nothing worse than bad, foul smelling breath; get rid of it for your friends sake anyway. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will clean and purify your stomach and bowels; your breath will be sweet, your disposition improved, your friends increased. 35c. Tea or Tablets. Sloper's Drug Store.

Mail Want Ads give results.

All Kinds of
FARM and CITY
PROPERTY

INSURED

Harry Humphreys

First door North of Theatre
Stayton, Oregon

R. W. Ballantyne

Piano Tuner

Players a specialty SALEM,
With Cherrington Piano House

Lesley Hotel

MRS. FRANK LESLEY, PROP.

We cater to the traveling public

CLEAN ROOMS GOOD BEDS

Make this your home when in Stayton

STAYTON

OREGON

New Silks
New Voiles
New Dimities
New White Goods
New Dress Ginghams

of all descriptions. Get ready for that Summer Dress. We can supply the material at the right price.

GIVE US THE ONCE OVER
ANYHOW AND BE SATISFIED THAT OUR GOODS ARE JUST RIGHT.

W. F. Klecker

Established 16 Years in Stayton

"DESTROY THE SQUIRRELS OR THEY WILL DESTROY YOUR CROPS"

Kill 'em with Woodlark's
Red Dragon
Wakeley's
Boss Frey's
SQUIRREL POISON

Sloper's Drug Store

Spring
Samples

of Tailor Made

Clothing

The Celebrated International line of Men's guaranteed Suits

From the large line of samples you can choose the latest and best suits at a moderate cost

Twenty years experience in measuring and fitting Suits and garments for men and young men.

Fit and Materials
Guaranteed

Chas. Gehlen

Stayton, Oregon

Butter
Wrappers

Butter Wrappers from the Mail office are printed on genuine vegetable parchment—the purest parchment obtainable, complies with the pure food laws and is the ideal sanitary wrapper for all food products. The ink used is also a vegetable product and will not stain through the paper as other inks and pencil marks. STRONGER WET THAN DRY

Printed
Fridays
Only

$1.25 per 100 75c for each additional 100