CONG. J. J. ESCH

Even though the repeal of the daylight saving law is not effective until Oct. 26 and too late to aid farmers during 1919 still agriculturists can thank these men for the successful fight made in Congress which makes it effective even then. Senators Williams of Mississippi and Capper of Kansas led the fight in the Senate winning 66 to 6 while Representative Bland of Indiana, and Representative Esch of Wisconsin won in the House 233 to 122.
