Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to those who so kindly assisted us in our late bereavement—the death of our beloved son and brother. Also we wish to thank the choir for the touching music rendered at the funeral and the floral offerings.

Wm. Stobamp and Family

City Recorder Wm. Greer and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haynes, of Mill City, probably took in more towns on the fourth than any of our citizens in this neck 'o the woods. They visited Salem, Silverton and wound up at Molalla in the evening where they have relatives. They returned Saturday.

Cool the stomach, washes out the bowels, drives out impurities, helps the liver—it's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Take it once-a-week during hot weather and see how happy and contented you'll be. 35c. Tea or Tablets. Sloper's Drug Store.

Notice

C. E. Taylor who advertised to buy balm wood wishes to say to those who have some for sale that they can find ready market for it at the Excelsior mill at Eugene. He also has the name of other mills wanting balm wood and by calling on him you can be informed to your advantage where to get the highest market price for same.

Oh, dear to our hearts are the sad days of spring time

When the annual housecleaning occurs to our view,

When we sleep on the sofa and eat off the mantal

In an atmosphere strongly suggestive of glue:

We think of the stovepipe, the soot that came with it

And the sweet expressions so fluent and fine.

But the saddest and most bitter of all recollections

Is the dusty old carpet that hung on the line.

Notice

Shaw, Oregon, July 7, 1919 To the Officers of the Farmers Fire Relief Association of Sublimity, Oregon.

This is to express my sincere thanks to you for the prompt and satisfactory adjustment and prompt payment and courteous treatment that I have received from you in settlement of the fire loss that I have had on July 4th, 1919. May the Farmers Fire Relief Association always prosper.
