Oak Glen Notes

Many farmers of this vicinity are complaining of the unusual hot and dry weather. They fear it will damage the crops if a change does not soon come. Some gardens are showing the effect of the hot days but no serious damage has resulted thus far with other crops.

Mrs. N. Neitling and children and Mrs. Emma Neitling, accompanied by Mrs. Clauser, were visiting at the home of Albert Neitling in Lebanon last week. They report a pleasant visit and returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Etzel have returned from their visit to Kansas. They report crops there fairly good and weather very hot.

Mrs. N. Neitling and daughter Francis called on Mr. and Mrs. Al Friedl Tuesday. They also visited with Mrs. P. Wagner Tuesday evening.

A few of the young folks of Oak Glen attended the dance given at the Frank Basl home Friday of last week.

Mrs. N. Neitling made a business trip to Aumsville Monday morning.

August Toepfner was helping the Neitling boys in the hay field this week.

Salena and Giles Wagner of Mehana attended the dance at Basl's home.

Cool the stomach, washes out the bowels, drives out impurities, helps the liver—it's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Take it once-a-week during hot weather and see how happy and contented you'll be. 35c. Tea or Tablets. Sloper's Drug Store.

NEW STAGE DRIVER

Geo. Warford, who has been driving the Salem-Mill City motor stage for a number of years, has accepted a positing as driver for J. W. Parker on the Salem-Silverton stage. Mr. Warford is driving on his old route this week on the account of the sickness of Joe Hamman, the proprietor, and Mr. Parker is driving his own stage. Mr. Warford will resume work on the Silverton run as soon as Mr. Hamman is able to take the wheel.

Mr. Warford is a competent, careful and business-like stage driver and will give Silverton people the service they demand. —Silverton Tribune.
