

LOCAL NEWS

John Dozler was here from Kingston looking after business.

Before you sell your cascara bark see Doll's cash store.

Mrs. Henry Schultzein of Sulimity is reported sick with pneumonia.

Dr. Brewer reports several cases of scarlet fever below West Stayton.

Milford Allen left for the harvest fields of Eastern Oregon Saturday.

Frank Thomas of Mill City was here visiting his brother, L. A. Thomas, this week.

L. A. Thomas has just finished painting the Quinn residence, and also the Luthy jewelry store.

Rev. Warren and family and Mrs. W. A. Weddle and children are at Salem picking loganberries.

W. A. Riggs and wife spent last Sunday at Cascadia. Wes reports the water fine—for drinking.

Ralph Urban and family returned from an outing on the coast the first of the week. They report a pleasant time.

C. E. Brown will go to Newport this week where he will work for some time. He recently shipped his machinery there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas, father and mother of Alva Thomas of Stayton, left Salem Wednesday for an extended visit in Washington with their two daughters.

The 8-year-old daughter of Pat Lyons of Albany who has been visiting at the O. M. Baker home at Kingston with her parents, was bitten by a dog Sunday. Dr. Brewer attended her.

Ed. Bell, of the Farmers & Merchants Bank force, has gone to The Dalles for a two weeks vacation. Ed. will visit relatives there and enjoy an outing in that part of the valley.

Joe Lulay of the Lulay Bros. & Giesler Lumber Co., of near Scio, while placing a belt on a pulley at the mill Saturday had his thumb badly torn by the belt. He is under the care of Dr. Brewer.

L. A. Thomas received a letter from Gus Eksman last week which locates him about 20 miles from Pendleton on a 1,000 acre ranch. Gus is driving team and says he likes the work. He wished to be remembered to all his Stayton friends.

Mary Stamp was nine years old Monday and a number of her young friends gathered at the Masonic grove to help her celebrate the event. Games were played and ice cream and cake helped make the afternoon a very pleasant one.

Tony Schindler, who works for the Murphy-Gardner saw mill at West Stayton, jumped from a load of ties which was about 14 feet high, last Saturday and dislocated his ankle. The ties began slipping and Tony thought it was best to jump. Dr. Brewer is attending him.

If you know of a news item or a piece of news, tell us about it. A newspaper man sometimes experiences more difficulty in gathering news than one would imagine. This was the case when a reporter in a neighboring town who, a few days ago, was sent to write up a fire in a residence. Going to the door he inquired for the lady of the house. The maid said she was out. "Are any of the family at home?" inquired the scribe. "No, they are all out," was the reply. Not quite discouraged the reporter asked "Well, wasn't there a fire here last evening?" "Yes," said the hired girl, "but that's out too."

Joe Pieser was transacting business at Salem this week.

Bring your cascara bark to Doll's cash store.

Liston A. Darby sold his Chevrolet car to his brother B. F. Darby.

The William Mollet family of the Waldo Hills spent Tuesday in Stayton.

The J. W. Mayo family spent last Sunday at the Taylor Camp Grove on the Little North Fork.

Mr. J. T. Hunt and daughter Miss Helen were in Stayton Monday of this week.

Miss Nora Gavin has gone to Corvallis for a two week's vacation with friends.

Mrs. Naomi Thomas has been visiting friends and relatives in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sloper and Mrs. V. Sloper were Salem visitors the first of the week.

Harold Murphy and Miss Poppe of Salem were in town the first of the week visiting friends.

To those who work: Bishop has the most complete stock of clothes for the working men's needs.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Crabtree and daughter Edna of near Kingston were shopping in Stayton Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor and son Jay went to Portland Sunday for a two weeks visit with friends and relatives.

Cacilia and James Mielke went to Salem last week, returning with a new Overland for sale at the store.

Harold Murphy is back to town again, having quit work near Redne, Oregon, where he has been for the past several months.

Frank X. Basil from Fern Ridge was in town Tuesday of this week transacting business with Stayton merchants.

Guy Hurt was visiting friends in town last week. He was enjoying a short vacation from one of Portland's shipyards.

Miss Margaret Fehlen visited home folks for a few days recently while the offices of the Northwest Steel Plant were closed.

The working man is the backbone of the Nation—he deserves the best in clothes—Bishop's have them for you, read our ads.

Walter Miller of Turner, who has just recently returned from service overseas with Uncle Sam, visited here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss June Kearns who has been here for the past two weeks, left Monday for McMinnville where she expects to be employed.

Mr. Chas. Schmitt of Portland has been employed by Forest Mack to assist in the Mack Barber Shop while Mr. Mack enjoys a vacation.

T. J. Hill of Salem was here Wednesday looking after hop pickers. Mr. Hill has 35 acres of hops this year and says he will need a large number of pickers.

Mrs. Gladys Guth of Portland, who will be remembered here as Miss Gladys Hosford, has been visiting friends here for the past week. Her small daughter Thelma accompanied her on her visit.

Miss Maryan Alexander, who spent last week at the Taylor Camp Grove on the Little North Fork, is assisting in the Post Office this week while her sister, Mrs. Perry, is enjoying an outing at the same place.

Miss Gladys Hamman is attending the Capital Business College at Salem. She is staying at home and making the trips to and from school on the stage. After a month in Office Training she expects to be employed in Salem.

Posters are up announcing a real jazz dance at the opera house Mill City, Saturday evening, July 19. Good music will be furnished by Talmadge's Orchestra, the official Hey-E Hyue Jazz Band at the 1919 Round-Up and Victory Celebration and the big attraction at the Lebanon Strawberry Festival and the Brownsville Pioneer Picnic, with Earl J. Headrick, the Jazz Singer, in the latest song hits. Everyone is invited and there will undoubtedly be a large crowd of dance enthusiasts present. It

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. R. M. Taylor. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

From the Bereaved Family.

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the school clerk up to six o'clock p. m. August 6, 1919, for the "Janitor Work" of the Stayton school for the school year 1919-1920.

The school board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. W. A. Weddle, Clerk

Piano Lessons

I can take a few more pupils for the piano at my home at West Stayton. Mrs. E. M. Gilbert. 5-22 tf

STAR THEATRE

SATURDAY

"When Do We Eat"
COMEDY—"Why Worry"

SUNDAY

"Drifters"
COMEDY—"Lonesome Luke"

WEDNESDAY

"The Empty Cab"
ALSO BIG COMEDY

JUST WHAT YOU WANT may be offered in this week's want ads at a bargain. It's a good idea to look them over every week.

Automobile Insurance

Fire, Theft and Transportation

Agent for Oregon Fire Relief Association
Farmers Fire Relief of Butteville, Ore.
New Jersey Fire Insurance Co.
Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York

Harry Humphreys - Stayton

GEM CONFECTIONERY

First Class Confections. High Grade Pure Candies

Fine Cigars and Tobacco

Hot and Cold Fountain Drinks

All Prices and Style Box Candy

J. A. HENDERSHOTT, Proprietor

Stayton, Oregon

Balsiger & Son

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Jordan Oregon

We buy anything in the Produce line from Cascara Bark to a dressed cow. Will sell you anything in the Merchandise line from a knitting needle to a new threshing machine. Come and see

Balsiger & Son, Jordan, Ore.

Marion Ice Cream

At...

Sloper's Drug Store

The Stayton Mail is $1.50 Per Year

A Perfect Combination for Your Auto Engine

"MOTORLIFE"

ASSOCIATED GASOLINE AND HAVOLINE OIL

Has Proved Satisfactory to Others

TRY IT ONCE

Revere Tires 15 per Cent Off

Clark's Tire House

319 N. Commercial St. Salem, Oregon

Save Today for Tomorrow's Needs

Do you live "from hand to mouth?" There is a system of living whereby Today may be made to provide for Tomorrow—this year for next year—the prime of manhood for old age.

SAVE

This one word tells the story. Just a little regularly deposited in our savings department makes a pleasantly surprising showing in the years to come.

Capital $50,000.00

Farmers & Merchants Bank of Stayton, Ore.