Ten Dollars For a Pair of Glasses

Yes, it may cost you that much to get properly fitted.

We would not be guilty of slighting our work for any price.

We wouldn't do less for you than for the President. For your eyes, in our estimation, are just as important as his.

Our Equipment

There is no instrument or device of value in eye-testing that we do not own and use.

There is no refinement of workmanship that we do not employ. There is no form of lens, no matter how complicated, that we are not in a position to supply. No spectacle or eye-glass mounting of merit that is not handled by us. We grind our own lenses.
