The Red Cross button is the most widely worn button in the world. Thirty million men and women and children in the United States now wear this emblem of countless good deeds accomplished. For the third year in America comes universal opportunity to wear it.

There are many instances of how this button, bearing upon a white background a tiny cross, has been worn and treasured. One morning in a distant northwest county, a man whose ruddy, optimistic countenance was clothed with ruddy beard, asked the Red Cross chairman if he had another button like the one he wore. The chairman gave him his own. "I have twelve children," explained the man. "I gave my button to the twelfth, a new arrival, this morning. When I have anything good the whole family must come in on it."

The Red Cross — universal mother to the distressed children of men.
Service done our fellowmen is the most beautiful thing in the world. JOIN.
Your Roll Call Button is your distinguished service cross.
All you need is a dollar! You have a heart.

RED CROSS GIRLS FEED THOUSANDS OF DOUGHBOYS

Since the armistice, twenty-five canteens, operated by Red Cross Chapters in Idaho, Oregon, and Washington have dispensed 23,379 gallons of coffee, and 224,236 dozen sandwiches, to soldiers, sailors, and marines en route. The hospitality of these canteens was accepted nine hundred thousand times, often by men who would have gone hungry but for the Red Cross service thus rendered. Figures show that these men, through the courtesy of the Red Cross, drank 8,497 gallons of iced drinks; used 6,663 bars of soap, and 37,713 paper towels; ate 57,491 chocolate bars, 16,622 pounds of candy, 14,754 dozen cookies, 74,913 dozen doughnuts, 9,488 dozen hot rolls; wrote 436,400 post cards furnished and stamped by the Red Cross; and to their own discomfort during a certain period, wore 12,256 influenza masks. All this, to say nothing of 22,956 full meals.

During this time 1847 sick men were aided by the canteen, seventy-nine of them being removed from trains as too sick to travel, and receiving immediate hospital attention.

Canteen work is nearly over, but the Red Cross still has vitally important work to do. Every membership in the Third Red Cross Roll Call will be a vote of confidence in the American Red Cross.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary," but the Red Cross is there.

At the present time in the North western Division alone—comprising Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington—there are 750,868 Red Cross members. Alaska has 13,562; Idaho, 102,055; Oregon, 243,614; Washington, 390,637.
