Something Worth Hollering About

REALIZING that the BOYS, if they are to be healthy men, to carry on tomorrow's burden, have to have the best and strongest of clothing.

BISHOP has had made to his order from his—

"Bishop's Fabric" made from pure "Oregon Fleece Wool"

This is the finest wool grown today, made into boys shirts patterned from men's shirts—made full and roomy.

THEY are to be found in the plain and military collars, and in plain and twilled fabric. For REAL comfort this winter and to avoid colds there is nothing more sensible and economical than several of these garments—they are health insurance. INSURE your boy now, with one of these garments.

WEAR LIKE IRON

Bishop has just received a new shipment of BOY'S CORDUROY SUITS. They are made from the best of material, tailored in the waist seem model and are full belted.

These garments may be worn without belt thus making another style of garment; slashed pockets, and a buttoned down flap pocket on the left breast for the boy's treasures." BELT loops sewn strongly to prevent all accidents.

THE coat is full lined throughout thus making a neat, dressy and stylish garment for school wear. Corduroy is indistrutable and means less clothes bill for the year.
