POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED AT SUBLIMITY

At the Catholic church at Sublimity, at the hour of 9 o'clock, on Tuesday, Nov. 18., Rev. Fr. Laineck united in Marriage Miss Julia Boedigheimer and Mr. John Gries, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Miss Margaret Gries, sister of the groom was bridesmaid and the groom was supported by Wm. Boedigheimer, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony, the newly wedded couple and their friends went to the home of the bride, where an elaborate wedding dinner was served.

The bride is the second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Boedigheimer, of Stayton is a highly accomplished young lady and is very popular among the younger set.

The groom is one of the prosperous farmers of this section and is held in high esteem by a large circle of friends.

In the evening the happy event was celebrated with a dance in C. O. F. Hall at Sublimity at which one of the largest crowds that ever attended a like celebration, was present.

Many useful and pretty presents were presented to the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Gries will be at home to their many friends next week on the groom's farm near Sublimity.

The 'Mail' joins with their large circle of friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

O. Kinnard, president of the Stayton Light & Power Co., was here from Salem the first of the week. While here he purchased the residence property of James Archer, on Water street. Possession will be given in about thirty days.

PARAGRAPHORISM

Where there's a will there's a way.
Some suckers we fish for nearly land us.
Life being one grand song doesn't mean chin music.
This is a temperate zone, but some of us are not.
Some chickens don't scratch much for a living.
We little know how little we know.
Some old folks' only comfort is on the bed.
Dreams can't come true until you wake up.
Some bosses dress nearly as well as the clerks.
Don't die early—nobody can make anything off you after that.

ETIOLE DE L-EST CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MESDAMES TAYLOR AND ELDER, THUR.

Last Thursday the Etiole de L-Est Club, which is composed of members of the Eastern Star, were entertained by Mesdames W. W. Elder and Taylor, at the home of Mrs. Elder. It was a mask affair and some of the costumes were very unique. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent.

CITY FATHERS SAY MORE LIGHTS FOR TOWN

At a special meeting of the village council Tuesday evening it was decided to have more lights placed on our streets. Thirteen big lights will be distributed from the school house along main street on down to the road leading to the bridge. Other smaller lights will be put up on Water street and elsewhere in the city.

E. W. Swallow, who was formerly employed at the Wilbur Woolen mills here, has gone to Washougal, Washington where he will be employed in a like manner. Mr. Swallow recently recovered from an accident to his foot this is the first work he has done for some time.

LATE VARIETY OF ENGLISH WALNUTS

Clarence Beaucamp has some English walnuts at his drug store that he is offering for sale. The nuts are the largest that has been seen here for many a day. Mr. Beaucamp raised them on his property here. The seed was brought from England and is very choice. There are only two trees of the variety—which is called Mayette, in the state. Mr. Beaucamp harvested two sacks full from the one tree.

ROLLER RINK FOR SALE

Otto Klett of Salem is erecting a roller skating at the old ball park. Otto will have the place open by the holidays. It will be the largest rink in section of the country and will accommodate a large number of skaters. The floor will be of hard maple and every convenience possible will be provided for the public. Watch for opening announcement.

HIT OR MISS

A long slit skirt is an observation train.
Some faces would crack if they smiled.
A girl as pretty as a picture must have a good frame.
New problem—how to be happy though sober.
Our conscious alarm clock is not always wound up.
Because of Columbus we are always getting discovered.
Some pray for a lot of things the Lord hasn't got.
Our contemporaries are so dry people use them in lieu of towels.
Don't be noisy. That wakes the dead and makes the undertaker mad.
The operation is successful if the life insurance is sufficient.

GYM DEBT KILLED BY HIGH SCHOOL ENTHUSIASTS

In about three weeks Stayton will witness one of the best literary entertainments and musical shows ever staged throughout this section of the country.

By the way soliciting committees report on season ticket sales it promised to be creating a great deal of enthusiasm among the people of Stayton and vicinity.

The fore part of next week the committee will finish up soliciting the town and country surrounding with a limited supply of season reserve tickets for the four performances. There will also be tickets left at Beaucamp's drug store for sale. If you are one that has not purchased your season ticket you can obtain same at Beaucamp's drug store or from the committee in charge.

The high school student body can consider themselves fortunate in securing this troupe of players as they have met with success wherever they performed. It also gives them a chance to diminish the Gym debt to a considerable low margin. Every person within this high school jurisdiction should give this undertaking its utmost support and carry on the good work of the school as they have in the past.

The exact date and program will be published later.

VOLNEY GATES DIES AT MILL CITY HOSPITAL ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Volney Lawrence Gates died at the Mill City hospital Tuesday evening at ten o'clock, at the age of 29 years, 10 months and 22 days.

On July 2nd, while working for the Goolh Lumber Company, he received injuries to one of his legs which confined him to the hospital 84 days.

He recovered sufficiently so as to be brought home where he remained for about six weeks and it was thought that his leg would get well.

Later complications set in and it was deemed for the best to amputate and the operation was performed at Mill City hospital Monday of this week. He stood the ordeal in fairly good shape. Tuesday he began to grow weaker and he passed away in the evening.

His mother, Mrs. J. L. Quinn, was with him when the end came.

Volney Gates was born at Gatos, Oregon, and was well and favorably known throughout this part of the valley as a bright, honorable and industrious young man.

The funeral was held Thursday from the Ringo undertaking parlors in Stayton, at 10 o'clock with Rev. Reeves of the Methodist church officiating. Interment was in Lone Oak cemetery.

Besides his mother he leaves three sisters, who reside in Washington, to mourn his loss.

—Lyceum—

Prof. Ford of the Stayton High School, motored to Eugene last Friday where he took in the big football game.
