MEHAMA NEWS

The population of our little town continues to increase. Four new scholars started to school Monday. Miss Brown now has 22 pupils and they are busy with their lessons after a week's vacation.

The new butcher shop is running now and we feel we are a little nearer like city folks.

Ed Taylor has purchased a new 1929 Ford.

While returning from Salem Monday evening, Mrs. Sarah Beringer and son, Russell were in an accident that might have proven serious. The Stage going to Salem from Mill City and the one coming from Salem were stopped on the road, the one from Salem had no tail light and the other one did not have its lights dimmed. The Beringers were going at a slow rate of speed and because of the glare of the headlights could not see the other stage and before the brakes stopped the car they ran directly into the stage, causing considerable damage to the car but luckily the occupants escaped injury.

R. H. Champ made a flying trip to Salem Monday.

The Misses (at 2 a. m.) were soon to arrive home and a nice state to arrive in, I must say! Explain, you brute!

Hisself—Of friend asked me to help him gather evidence of violations of the wartime prohibition law, 'dear, an' I jus' (his) couldn't refuse.—Buffalo Express.

Six to One. "What a wonderful family! A charming wife and five beautiful daughters. You must be a very happy man."

"Yes, I suppose I ought to be, and I suppose I really am, but right now I want to say that I can tell you a lot about the difficulties of being out-voted six to one."

Plunder. The gentleman burglar flashed his lamp in the startled eyes of the aroused head of the family.

"Where's your valuables?" he demanded, politely.

"For heaven's sake, don't shoot!" pleaded the victim. "My jewels are in that box on the bureau; my money is in the handbag on the dresser; my husband's watch—"

Impatiently shooting a hole in the pillow, the burglar snapped: "Don't kid me! I asked you where you keep your butter and eggs!"

But with a shriek of desperation the woman leaped upon him, for that was too much, too utterly much!—Richmond Time-Dispatch.
