

LINCOLN MEMORIAL IN WASHINGTON SUNSET

The famous Lincoln Memorial at Washington, D. C., just being completed at a cost of three and one-half million dollars, will stand for all time as a tribute to the great American. This photo shows the great structure in silhouette of a Potomac sunset. Ceremonies will be held there Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12.

Jordan

Mr. H. C. Foltz moved into the Balsiger residence Saturday.

Messrs. E. Delong and H. Neal were Jordan visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Grimes and children of Mill City are visiting at the home of Peter Bilyou a few days.

Mr. F. Coombs and wife called Harve Sheltons Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Privet and daughter Maile of Portland, came down Friday to nurse Grandma Shelton who is slightly improved.

A party of friends from the college at Mount Angel made a short call on Father Boiface last Saturday. They were en route to Lebanon.

Thursday a fine dinner and quilting was given by the young ladies of the parish and held in the hall. A large number was present and all report a pleasant time.

Messrs. G. E. Balsiger and H. C. Foltz are inviting the Jordan store which is soon to be taken by the latter young man of whose sterling qualities we are all familiar, and join in wishing him success in the enterprise.

HIS LINE'S BUSY, HE KEEPS US DRY

John F. Kramer is a busy man. He is federal prohibition commissioner and it's his duty to see that the nation stays dry—that is that the lid clamped on the nation Jan. 16—stays on.

HEAVY WRAPS ARE DISCARDED

It seems rather wintry but that's because of fashion's foolish habit of showing off-season stuff. As a matter of fact this is a late winter or early spring toque and sweater for the school maid when he takes off the heavy wrap. It's uncombed wool, a belted sweater with short flaring skirt. The lighter the color the better.
