GREATEST LIVING AMERICAN

Georgian Who Served Under Wood in Philippines is Sure of His Nomination.

Leonard Wood is now, since the death of Theodore Roosevelt, the greatest living American, according to Thomas Reed of Atlanta, Ga., who served under Wood in Cuba and the Philippines. Reed was in business in the Philippine islands while Wood was in command there. Consequently he had opportunity to observe the general from the position of a soldier and a business man.

"Since the death of the great Colonel Roosevelt," Reed writes, "it is my opinion that there is no doubt whatever of his nomination, and that means his election. I merely recite all this to show that I am in a position to know the great character of General Wood."

CRIPPLED INDIAN HONORED

Invited to Ride by General Wood, Who Hears Him Tell of Fighting in Russia.

Menominee, Mich., April 10.—Peter Koscheck, a Menominee Indian who served with the Three Hundred Thirty-ninth Infantry in northern Russia and was wounded twice by the bolshevists, arrived here with the party of Leonard Wood. Koscheck hobbled four miles over country roads to meet the general's train at Harris. When Wood heard of this he insisted that the soldier ride to Menominee so that he might talk to him.

LEONARD WOOD AS A SURGEON

Leonard Wood's taste ran to surgery. He became attached to a lieutenant who was a good football player. One day he asked the young officer: "I understand you are a married man and that your wife is ill. Where is she?" The lieutenant told Wood his wife was in a Southern sanitarium suffering from a malady that baffled the physicians. He described the symptoms.

INDIANA CAMPAIGN ARRANGING

Indianapolis, April 10.—District managers of the Wood organization in Indiana plan a tour of the state by the candidate and an intensive campaign to give him a smashing majority in the primary on May 4. Wood forces will number 23,000 persons and hundreds of other volunteers will have the greatest force in Indiana's history for primary day.

WOOD HITS PROFITEERS

Gauging by Meat Men in Cuba Brought to End.

When General Wood was governor general of Cuba he found there was plenty of food in Havana which the people could not buy because of high prices. He no sooner heard of this than he established a line of procedure to correct it. He sent for the principal butchers of the city and asked:

"How much do you charge for your meat?"
"Ninety cents a pound, senior."
"What does it cost you?"
There was hesitation and shuffling of feet. Then one of the men said in a whining voice:
"Meat is very dear, your excellency."
"How much a pound?"
"Fifteen cents, your excellency; but we have lost much money during the war, and—"
"So have your customers. Now meat will be sold at 25 cents a pound, and not one cent more. Do you understand?"

Turning to an alderman General Wood charged him to see that his order was carried out to the letter unless he wanted to be expelled from office. Thereafter meat was sold in the markets of Havana at 25 cents. The same plan was applied to all other kinds of supplies.

BOY SCOUTS HELP TAME WILD TRIBE

Kavali, Madras Presidency, India, Jan. 10.—Under the direction of the British Indian Government American Baptist missionaries are adapting occidental methods in educating and otherwise making good citizens of one of the so-called criminal tribes of India. This tribe, known as the Erukakas, is made up of what in another country could be called gypsies or brigands and has been rounded up by the government into this region.

The "wild" men and women of the tribe are being taught to work and the boys and girls of the tribe are put in school with other children of this place. The "criminals," as they are called, number two-thirds of the enrollment in the school. Exhibitions from time to time of the work of the pupils brought out a procession of the Erukakas, and the sight of one of their children reciting in a class was a source of intense pleasure.

So responsive have the Erukaka boys proven that a pageant was given recently dealing with the Great War. Several government officials who were present at the pageant were surprised at the discipline.

Discipline has been added by the introduction of the Boy Scout movement. The Head Master of the Kavali School first took the training in Madras, and then he put some twenty of the boys through the training. The administering of the Scout's oath and the presentation of staves and scout handkerchiefs was a unique event and was attended by several officials. This is the only troop in the Madras Presidency that has boys from the criminal tribes in it.
