

SCHOOL NOTES

The mothers of the Stayton High school were entertained at an afternoon tea last Thursday from 2 to 3 in the Domestic Science dining room. Tea and fancy cookies made by the girls were served. The room was tastefully decorated in pink and white crepe paper streamers and apple blossoms.

The Freshmen had a very delightful time at their class party last Friday evening in the Science room. Ice cream and wafers were served.

Many of the high school students attended the Junior May Day Festival at the Willamette University at Salem last Friday and Saturday.

Stayton defeated the Silverton Hi baseball team again last Friday at Stayton, score 5-4. They also defeated the Albany team here on the 11. The score being 5-3. This was the first defeat that Albany has met this season, and our boys are highly elated over the fact that Albany won victories over Eugene, Corvallis and Salem. Junction City will play here Friday, May 14 at 2 o'clock in place of the usual time 3:30.

The Senior class are planning on leaving Friday afternoon for an outing at Willhoyt Springs where they will spend a few days hiking, taking pictures and having a good time.

Maysel Montgomery at the high school Tuesday afternoon.

Mehama

The Mehama Improvement Club this time headed by the energetic Mr. Phillips and Mr. Simms have started out to do some spring town cleaning.

New sidewalks will be laid, lots cleaned and new fences erected. The church will be painted and altogether Mehama is artistic in its rural atmosphere.

Miss Anna Stout and Walter Richards left for Albany Wednesday to attend the Willamette Prebtery. Miss Stout will go on to Portland to attend the State Sunday School Convention.

With Mrs. B. F. Beringer of of Mehama Hotel this week is Mme Virginia Rovere the prominent singer and teacher from San Francisco. Mme Rovere just closed here busy season with a most successful pupils festival held in Berkeley April 17 and with her recent engagements of Good Friday and Easter in St Mary's Cathedral of San Francisco. Mme Rovere formerly was a great favorite in Portland when the Lombardi Grand Opera Company last appeared there. Her friend Mrs. Beringer being in this part of the country at present gives us the opportunity to have this beautiful singer with us whom we hope to here before long. When asked how she likes this country Mme Rovere assures us that she has traveled for twelve years she has rarely found more beautiful scenery or climate. She says if the Santiam river were in Europe it would be used a thousand ways for power and pleasure.

Mr. N. Cowden, overseer of the new logging road at Mehama is a visitor at the Mehama Hotel.

Mr. Wm Simms the enterprising manager of the new meat market is residing at the comfortable Mehama Hotel.

TEACHES BOYS TO MAKE STEAMERS

Baptist Missionary in Burma Develops Unique Industry—Government Helps in Education.

"On the road to Mandalay, where the old flotilla lay," steam launches built by the Burmese boys of a Baptist Mission school are now making frequent trips and the profits from their sale to the natives are helping in the establishment of practical industrial education in that country.

The Rev. Dr. C. A. Nichols is the man that is directly responsible for this industrial development. In far off Burma, on the actual soil of old England, even though as Kipling says, "there ain't no buses runnin' from the bank to Mandalay," he secured a saw-mill.
