

"EVERYBODY WINS" A

Thousands of Dollars in Rich Prizes Will be Awarded

This Big Contest officially opens next Monday, June 21, and closes Saturday Night, August 7th

Rules and Regulations

- 1 Contest officially opens next Monday morning, June 21; will extend over a period of seven weeks only, closing Saturday night, August 7th.
- 2 Any reputable man, woman or child residing in Stayton, Marion County or vicinity is eligible to enter this contest and compete for a prize. Nominations may be made at any time during the contest.
- 3 No employe or near relative of an employe of the Stayton Mail is eligible to enter this contest and compete for a prize. The Stayton Mail reserves the right to reject any nominations.
- 4 The winners of the prizes will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscription and coupons clipped from the papers.
- 5 Candidates are not confined to their own particular town or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in the county; or, for that matter, anywhere in the state, or United States.
- 6 Cast must accompany all orders where votes are desired. Candidates will be allowed to collect back subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions, and votes will be issued on all alike.
- 7 Votes are free. It costs the subscribers nothing extra to vote for their favorite. Votes must be asked for at the time of paying subscription, otherwise subscribers waive this privilege. Votes will not be issued on receipts covering past payments.
- 8 Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the contest department must represent a subscription. Votes will not be issued on subscriptions for less than one year nor for more than five years in advance for any one candidate.
- 9 Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race his or her votes will be canceled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.
- 10 Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competition, or any combination formed to the detriment of candidate or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate entering into or taking part in such combination will forfeit all right to a prize or commission.
- 11 All ballots issued on subscription may be held in reserved and voted at the discretion of the candidates. The printed coupons appearing from week to week must be deposited at the contest department before the expiration date appearing thereon.
- 12 In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes a prize identical in value will be given each tying contestant, but does not automatically advance the succeeding candidates in the prize winning class.
- 13 No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or candidate varying from the rules and statement published through the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publisher.
- 14 In case of typographical or other error it is understood that neither the publisher nor the contest manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction upon discovery of same.
- 15 Candidates in this contest are authorized agents of The Stayton Mail and as such may collect arrearages and advance subscription payments from present subscribers as well as from new subscribers.
- 16 It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all moneys collected, and that they will remit such amounts in full at frequent intervals, or on demand, to the contest department of The Stayton Mail.
- 17 There will be SIX BIG PRIZES awarded, besides a twenty per cent cash commission to all active non-prize winners, but it is understood that in the event any candidate becomes inactive, failing to make a regular cash report, he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.
- 18 To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. During the entire last week of the contest the box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of Farmers & Merchants bank candidates and their friends may deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And, not until the contest has been declared closed, will the seals be broken, the box unlocked, and, in the presence of the candidates and all other interested parties, will the judges make the final count. In this way no one—not even the contest manager—can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.
- 19 The Stayton Mail reserves the right to amend the rules of this contest, if necessary, for the protection of the protection of the interests of candidates or this newspaper.
- 20 The Stayton Mail guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise the decision of the management will be absolute and final.
- 21 In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above conditions.
