Magic Stones Get a New Bed.

Tradition tells that miracles of healing were performed by "St. Tullan," in the Scottish highlands, by rubbing on the suffering man or beast certain old water-worn stones. These stones, or stones of that description, are still carefully preserved in the island mill of Killin, at the western end of Loch Tay. Lord Breadalbane, the owner, has leased the old mill for a hand-loom weaving factory; but the lessee binds himself carefully to protect the relics, and to give the public facilities for viewing them.

On Christmas eve, as on every Christmas eve for centuries past, the stones in their niche of the wall were provided with a new "bed," of reeds, straws and other wrack brought down by the mountain torrent of the River Dochart and left stranded on the rocks. The bedding must on no account be picked by the hand of man.

Have You Made Your Will?

If you do not dispose of your property by "WILL" your estate may be disposed of by "LAW" very differently from the way you would wish. The law, without a will, can make no provision for the special or personal needs of the different members of your family, or for any charity. Surely you want to say who shall enjoy the results of your life work. To insure that, make your will and appoint this bank your executor. Our officers have the business experience to properly perform this service, in an impartial business like manner. See your lawyer, and have him draw your will. Don't put it off until too late.
