Directors Meet

Monday evening the directors of the Stayton Mutual Telephone Co. met in the Standard office.
There were present J. W. Mayo, John Thoma, Henry Smith and E. D. Alexander. The meeting was called for the purpose of selecting a delegate to the switch board association. Henry Smith was chosen.

The question of securing new poles and other matters of business were discussed.

At this time it may be well to state that the Switch Board Association has found it necessary to levy an assessment of 50c on all shares of stock in the association to use in paying taxes and indebtedness on central office property. The expense of the building and moving was greater than expected and the $3 assessment levied at that time was insufficient.

Illahee Club Meetings

Another enjoyable meeting of the Illahee club was held in the club rooms on Thursday evening.
About fifty were present and the time passed all too swiftly. As usual 500 and dancing furnished the entertainment for the evening. Three long tables in the dining room were tastily decorated with Oregon grape and an excellent lunch, served cafeteria style was a well appreciated feature of the evening. As there are five Thursdays in this month the club will have a meeting tomorrow night, March 30th.

Enjoyable Event.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thomas opened their commodious home to a number of party guests of G. C. Eksman, who has for a long time roomed with them. It was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

The guests present were C. A.
Beauchamp and wife, Jac. Spaniol and family, Guy Kearns, Mrs.
Addie Beaver, Jos. Fisher and family.

Excellent refreshments were served, and games and other amusements filled out the evening. All unite in pronouncing it an enjoyable event.

Obituary

Henry J. Follis was born November 7, 1832 in Maury county, Missouri. Came with his parents, A. H. and Mary Follis to Cedar County, Missouri in 1839.
Crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852 and purchased 400 acres of land one and one-half miles south of Stayton, in Linn county. Improved and lived on same until 1892. Moved to Stayton and there completed his earthly career March 20th 1916.

Married to Mary J. Williams, October 13th 1859. To this union three children were born, John T., Susan F. and William F., who with the devoted wife, are left to mourn the departure of a beloved husband and father. H.
J. Follis was converted and received into the fellowship of the Baptist church by experience and baptism 1870. Was ordained Deacon 1888, which office he honored until his death.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev.
Lawrence. The church was crowded to the utmost by friends and neighbors, many coming from a distance to pay their last respects to the deceased, for he was a good husband, a kind father and obliging neighbor. His absence is severely felt, not only by the devoted wife, who had been his companion for more than 56 years; the children and grand-children; but by the church and community as well.

The undersigned desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so generously assisted in caring for the husband and father.

A Near Blaze Saturday

As S. L. Stewart was about to arise from his slumbers in his room at the home of Mrs. Anna Stayton he noticed a flame creeping along the wall paper on the ceiling. It did not take him long to conclude that the house was on fire, and calling to Mrs. Stayton for some water, he soon had the blaze extinguished. The flame had secured a good start and a few minutes delay might have resulted in the loss of the house.
As it was, little damage was done. The fire started from a defect in the flue.

The property was insured, and Frank Lesley, agent, soon had the damage repaired.

W. R. C. Is Organized

On Saturday evening March 18 in Beauchamp's hall a post of the Women's Relief Corps was organized, Mrs. Cora McBride, of Portland, assisted by Mrs. Lizzie Smith, of Salem, conducting the work. Nine members joined the post and the following officers were elected: Commander, Mrs.
M. A. Heltzel; Sec., Mrs. Clara Pratt; Treas. Mrs. A. J. Chance; Chaplain, Mrs. Alice Holford; Conductor, Miss Idris Rossell.
Other members are: Mrs. Bernice Elder, Mrs. Lizzie Rossell, Mrs.
Sarah Weddle and Mrs. Anna Shepherd. Any patriotic woman is eligible to membership in the W. R. C. and it is expected that the membership of Stayton post will be doubled before long. Just when the next meeting is to be will be announced later.

E. B. Watters and wife, of Fox Valley, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

J. H. Porter, of Aumsville, was a Stayton visitor Saturday.

Albert Bass and wife, of Corvallis, are visiting his parents near Mehama.

Miss Bessie Goode, who has been a guest at the home of her brother, Attorney Goode, left for her home in Salem Monday.

Miss Vida Young came over from O. A. C. and visited the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Young.

A number from here attended the meeting of the Commercial Club at Sublimity last night. An interesting session is reported but no special business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wourms and daughter were in town today.

Mrs. W. H. Harlan and sons, of Detroit are guests at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs.
W. S. Watters.

Mrs. P. P. Crabtree of Kington was in town Tuesday.

Jac. Spaniol made a business trip to Salem Monday.

W. E. Thomas of Salem was a caller today. Mr. Thomas has been doing some work at the cemetery for Uriah Whitney and for the Goodman estate.

As the dry summer season draws near forest fires begin to be thought of. In the report of the state forester we note that Road Supervisors, L. S. Lambert and Geo. A. Etzel will act as ex officio state fire wardens. Such appointments make it convenient for settlers to obtain permits to burn slashings during the closed season, provided it is safe to do so.
